On July 11, 2017, CONSOL Energy Inc. (the "Company") announced that David M. Khani, the Company's current Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, will, effective August 2, 2017, assume this same role at CONSOL Mining Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company that will hold the Company's coal business, which the Company intends to spin-off into a separate, publicly traded Company. Mr. Khani has agreed to remain at his current position with the Company until August 2, 2017 in order to facilitate an orderly transition of that position. By effectuating a spin-off of CONSOL Mining Corporation, the Company will be separated into two independent publicly-traded companies: a coal company and a natural gas exploration and production company, as discussed further below.

On July 10, 2017, the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Donald Rush, age 34, currently Vice President of Energy Marketing, to succeed Mr. Khani as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, to be effective on August 2, 2017. Having served in numerous leadership roles during his career with CONSOL Energy, Mr. Rush has guided the Company through every significant transaction during its transformative journey into a pure play natural gas exploration and production company, including the sale of the Company's five West Virginia mines in 2013 and the separation of the Company's Marcellus Shale joint venture with Noble Energy, Inc. Mr. Rush has held the position of Vice President of Energy Marketing with the Company since June 2015, and in this position, Mr. Rush has overseen the Company's commercial functions, including mergers and acquisitions, gas marketing and transportation. Mr. Rush has also held the following positions with the Company: Vice President Diversified Business Units (December 2013 to June 2015), Director Major Transactions (July 2012 to December 2013), Manager Major Transactions (June 2011 to July 2012) and various other positions since he started with the Company in 2005.
