Transaction Agreement

On October 23, 2017, Graphic Packaging Holding Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), International Paper Company, a New York corporation (IP), Gazelle Newco LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Newco), and Graphic Packaging International, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (GPI), entered into a Transaction Agreement (the Transaction Agreement), pursuant to which, among other things, (i) the Company will transfer its ownership interests in GPI to Newco, (ii) IP will transfer its North America Consumer Packaging business to Newco, which will then be transferred to GPI; (iii) Newco will issue membership interests in itself to IP and IP will be admitted as a member of Newco; and (iv) GPI will assume the indebtedness incurred pursuant to IP's $660 term loan facility and will continue to be the principal operating subsidiary of the Company (collectively, the Transactions).

Immediately following the Closing (as defined in the Transaction Agreement), (i) the Company will hold 79.5% of the membership interests in Newco and (ii) IP will hold 20.5% of the membership interests in Newco. For a period of two years beginning on the date of the Closing, IP will not be able to transfer any of its membership interests in Newco, subject to certain exceptions. Thereafter, subject to certain exceptions, IP will only be able to transfer its membership interests in Newco pursuant to the terms and conditions of an Exchange Agreement, pursuant to which IP will have specified rights. Subject to certain conditions, IP may exchange up to approximately 16.6% of the membership interests in Newco for common stock of the Company or cash, at the election of the Company, and the remaining membership interests in Newco held by IP may only be exchanged for cash.

IP and the Company each made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Transaction Agreement, including, among other things, covenants by each of IP (with respect to its North America Consumer Packaging business) and the Company to conduct its business in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Transaction Agreement and the Closing, subject to certain exceptions.

The obligation of the parties to consummate the Transactions is subject to customary closing conditions, including, among other things, applicable approvals under certain regulatory and competition laws, including the expiration or termination of all applicable waiting and other time periods. Assuming all of the closing conditions are met, the Company expects the Transactions to be completed in the first quarter of 2018.

The Transaction Agreement contains certain termination rights for each of the parties, including the right of each party to terminate the Transaction Agreement if the Transactions have not been consummated by June 30, 2018.

In connection with the Transactions, certain additional agreements will be entered into, including, among others:

The Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Newco, which will provide that the business and affairs of Newco will be managed by a limited liability company to be a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of the Company to be formed prior to Closing;

The Exchange Agreement (as described above);

A Governance Agreement, pursuant to which, for a period of five years following the Closing, IP will agree not to acquire voting securities of the Company and other customary standstill provisions, subject to certain specified exceptions;

A Registration Rights Agreement, pursuant to which IP will have specified demand and piggyback registration rights with respect to common stock of the Company;

Certain supply agreements;

A Tax Receivable Agreement, pursuant to which the Company and IP will allocate tax liabilities and benefits arising prior to, as a result of, and subsequent to the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreements;

A Restrictive Covenant Agreement, pursuant to which IP will agree not to compete with the North America Consumer Packaging business it is transferring to Newco, subject to certain specified exceptions, for the longer of three years and the period in which it owns equity interests in Newco;

Certain Intellectual Property licenses;

A Transition Services Agreement, pursuant to which IP will provide certain services of a transitional nature to Newco;

A Sublease;

A Lease Assignment;

A Tax-Exempt Bond Agreement;

A Taxable Augusta Bonds Assignment and Assumption Agreement

The forms of each of the foregoing agreements are attached to the Transaction Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Transaction Agreement and the forms of agreements attached thereto does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Transaction Agreement and the exhibits thereto, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and are incorporated herein by reference.

The Transaction Agreement has been included solely to provide investors with information regarding its terms. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations between the parties thereto with respect to the transactions described in this Form 8-K, the Transaction Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties.

The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made by the parties in the Transaction Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and are made as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Transaction Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Transaction Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to holders of the Company's securities or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts.

Amendment to Rights Plan

On October 23, 2017, the Company entered into a First Amendment to Rights Agreement (the Rights Agreement Amendment ), which amended the terms of the Rights Agreement, dated as of March 10,

2008, by and between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (the Rights Agreement ) in order to render the Rights Agreement inapplicable to the Transaction, the membership interests in Newco held by IP and its permitted assignees and any common stock or other equity interests of the Company that may be issued to IP or such permitted assignees in exchange for membership interests in Newco pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreement or pursuant to the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Newco.

The foregoing description of the Rights Agreement Amendment does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Rights Agreement Amendment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

All statements, other than historical facts, including statements regarding the expected timing and structure of the proposed transaction; the ability of the parties to complete the proposed transaction considering the various closing conditions; and any assumptions underlying any of the foregoing, are forward-looking statements.
