Combining to deliver value for clients and customers

Cigna and Express Scripts entered into a definitive agreement whereby Cigna will acquire Express Scripts. The combination of a health services company and a pharmacy services company will drive greater affordability and connectivity with health providers while making health care simpler for customers. It will create an expanded portfolio of health services that offers greater choice, alignment and value across a proven services platform for everyone they serve, including customers, employers, health plans and government agencies. Together, the combined company will make it easier for customers to access health care by continuing to innovate to deliver greater connectivity and drive affordability.

Cigna President & CEO discusses the proposed combination.

Compelling Strategic Rationale

Every aspect of an individual's health and well-being is connected, and their mental, physical and social needs are completely interdependent. Yet, the current U.S. health care system is fragmented, disconnected, expensive and on an unsustainable path forward. In pursuit of a healthier, more affordable and more personalized health care experience for everyone they serve, the combined company will offer:

Expanded Consumer Choice

Offering a full suite of medical, behavioural, specialty pharmacy and other health engagement services accessible across a wide array of distribution channels, providing optionality for all customers. This will position the combined company to deliver superior service, responding fully to the dynamic needs of customers and clients, which will drive long-term value creation for shareholders.

Patient-Provider Alignment

Using broad and high-performing delivery system partnerships to drive the combined company's role as the connective tissue between individuals and their health care providers, providing a more coordinated approach to an individual's health care journey, reducing complexity and creating better outcomes.

Personalized Value

Edgar Filing: Express Scripts Holding Co. - Form 425

Making health care easy for consumers by harnessing actionable insights and predictive analytics, maximizing adoption of evidence-based care and delivering industry-leading innovation and medical technology to support care decisions.
