JUST FOR LEADERS EMAIL

Email Subject: WellCare / Centene Talking Points and FAQs for Managers

A Message from CEO Ken Burdick

Dear Leader:

As you will have seen, we just announced that WellCare has entered into an agreement to combine with Centene.

As I noted in my email to all associates, I believe that being part of a larger organization will increase our ability to serve our customers and ultimately create opportunities for associates. I want to assure you that we did not make this decision lightly and I am confident this was the right decision.

Clearly, a transaction like this will raise some uncertainty and associates will wonder what this means for them. At this early stage in the process, we may not be in a position to answer many of the questions that they may have. However, we have included the attached FAQs and talking points, which you should reference to help address some of their concerns. I will be counting on you to help keep your teams focused on their day-to-day responsibilities as it is important that everyone remains committed to providing best in class services to our members. It should be business as usual at WellCare and nothing should change in the short term.

One of our top priorities is to be as transparent as possible and we will provide periodic updates to associates of both organizations as we progress toward closing. Lastly, this announcement will likely generate interest from the media. Please remind your teams that it is company policy not to comment and to please direct all media inquiries and requests to Kimbrel Arculeo at Kimbrel.Arculeo@WellCare.com.

Thank you.
