- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Additional time is required in order for Linens 'n Things, Inc. (the "Company") to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2005 (the "Form 10-K"). The Form 10-K is due to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 17, 2005. The Company now expects to file the Form 10-K on or before April 1, 2005.

As discussed in its press release dated March 10, 2005, as a result of the February 7, 2005 letter from the Office of the Chief Accountant of the SEC to the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, which clarified existing generally accepted accounting principles applicable to leases, the Company reviewed its lease accounting practices. The Company will correct the way it accounts for its leases and landlord allowances.

On March 7, 2005, the Company's management discussed the issues regarding the Company's method of accounting for leases and landlord allowances with the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. Management determined that the Company's accounting for these items was not consistent with the views expressed by the SEC. Accordingly, management and the Audit Committee concluded that the Company will restate its annual financial statements for all fiscal years presented in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2005, other than fiscal year 2004, and will restate its quarterly financial statements for the four quarters of fiscal year 2003 and the first three quarters of fiscal year 2004. On March 10, 2005, the Company issued a press release describing the matters discussed above.

The Company had a short period of time remaining before the due date of Form 10-K in which to complete the restatement and the related Form 10-K disclosures and within which to permit its independent registered public accounting firm to complete its audit. While this process is nearly completed, the circumstances described above prevented the Company from completing the process and filing its Form 10-K in a timely manner without unreasonable effort and expense to the Company.
