GRUPO RADIO CENTRO REPORTS SECOND QUARTER AND FIRST HALF 2006 RESULTS

PR Newswire -- July 13, 2006

MEXICO CITY, July 13 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Grupo Radio Centro, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE: RC, BMV: RCENTRO-A) (the "Company"), one of Mexico's leading radio broadcasting companies, announced today its results of operations for the second quarter and first half ended June 30, 2006. All figures were prepared in accordance with the Financial Information Standards issued by the Mexican Board for Research and Development of Financial Standards and have been restated in constant Pesos as of June 30, 2006.

Second Quarter Results

Broadcasting revenue for the second quarter of 2006 was Ps. 234,947,000, representing an increase of 62.4% compared to the Ps. 144,656,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to the increase in advertising expenditures from political parties in connection with the July 2006 presidential and congressional elections.

The Company's broadcasting expenses (excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) for the second quarter of 2006 were Ps. 122,787,000, representing an increase of 18.9% compared to the Ps. 103,235,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was primarily due to increases in the second quarter of 2006 in (i) sales commissions paid to the Company's general sales force and (ii) the allowance for doubtful accounts, as well as expenses related to additional advertising and marketing campaigns conducted by the Company during the second quarter of 2006.

For the second quarter of 2006, the Company reported broadcasting income (i.e., broadcasting revenue minus broadcasting expenses, excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) of Ps. 112,160,000, an increase of 170.8% compared to broadcasting income of Ps. 41,421,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to the increase in broadcasting revenue, which more than offset the increase in broadcasting expenses.

Depreciation and amortization for the second quarter of 2006 amounted to Ps. 7,105,000, a 27.6% decrease compared to the Ps. 9,813,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This decrease was mainly attributed to the Company no longer recording in the second quarter of 2006 the depreciation of company vehicles whose useful lives ended in the second quarter of 2006.

For the second quarter of 2006, the Company's corporate, general and administrative expenses were Ps. 3,338,000, a slight decrease compared to Ps. 3,341,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

The Company reported operating income of Ps. 101,717,000 for the second quarter of 2006 compared to operating income of Ps. 28,267,000 for the same period of 2005. This significant increase was mainly attributed to the increase in broadcasting revenue in the second quarter of 2006, which resulted from higher advertising expenditures from political parties in connection with the July 2006 presidential and congressional elections, which more than offset the increase in broadcasting expenses. It is important to notice that corporate, general and administrative expenses practically were not increased in the second quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005.

The Company reported a comprehensive financing gain for the second quarter of 2006 of Ps. 2,223,000 compared to a comprehensive financing gain of Ps. 2,452,000 for the same period of 2005. This slight decrease reflects the reduction in interest expense for the second quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005, which resulted from (i) the cancellation of Ps. 6,451,000 of interest recorded in 2006 on the provision for the contingent liability recorded by the Company in 2003 and (ii) the Company no longer recording interest on bank debt after paying off the remaining balance of its bank debt on May 17, 2006. The favorable effect of this decrease, however, was more than offset by declines in the second quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 in (i) gain on foreign currency exchange, net, which was due primarily to the depreciation of the Peso against the U.S. dollar in the second quarter of 2006 compared to the appreciation of the Peso against the U.S. dollar for the same period of 2005, and (ii) gain on net monetary position, which was due primarily to a lower inflation rate in the second quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005

During the second quarter of 2006, other expenses, net, totalled Ps. 14,265,000, a 17.2% increase compared to the Ps. 12,173,000 reported in the same period in 2005. This increase was mainly attributed to higher expenses related to the Company's listing, the implementation of the Sarbanes&Oaxley Law and legal expenses during the second quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005.

The Company reported income before extraordinary item and provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 89,675,000 for the second quarter of 2006, which is more than four times the Ps. 18,546,000 reported during the same period of 2005.

During the second quarter of 2006, the Company recorded extraordinary income of Ps. 246,198,000, which resulted from the reversal of the Ps. 260,050,000 provision for the contingent liability recorded by the Company in 2003 minus the accumulated foreign exchange loss and interest recorded by the Company in 2006 in relation to the provision. The Company reversed the provision for the contingent liability after a Mexican court set aside and refused to enforce in Mexico the arbitration award issued against the Company in an arbitration proceeding.

For the second quarter of 2006, the Company reported income before provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 335,873,000 compared to income before provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 18,546,000 reported for the same period of 2005. The Company recorded provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing for the second quarter of 2006 of Ps. 27,395,000 compared to provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 5,726,000 for the same period of 2005. This increase was primarily due to the increase in taxable income for the second quarter of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company's net income for the second quarter 2006 totalled Ps. 308,478,000, compared to a net income of Ps. 12,820,000 reported for same period of 2005.

First Half Results

For the six months ended June 30, 2006, broadcasting revenue was Ps. 411,477,000, a 61.5% increase compared to the Ps. 254,794,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to the increase in advertising expenditures from political parties in connection with the elections that took place during the first half of 2006.

The Company's broadcasting expenses (excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) reported for the first six months of 2006 were Ps. 222,515,000, a 14.9% increase compared to the Ps. 193,702,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was primarily due to increases during the first six months of 2006 in (i) sales commissions paid to the Company's general sales force and (ii) the allowance for doubtful accounts, as well as expenses related to additional advertising and marketing campaigns conducted by the Company during the first six months of 2006.

Broadcasting income (i.e., broadcasting revenue minus broadcasting expenses, excluding depreciation, amortization and corporate, general and administrative expenses) for the first six months of 2006, was Ps. 188,962,000, an increase of more than 200% compared to the Ps. 61,092,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributable to the increase in broadcasting revenue, which more than offset the increase in broadcasting expenses.

Depreciation and amortization for the first six months of 2006 totalled Ps. 17,695,000, a decrease of 11.0% compared to the Ps. 19,891,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This decrease was mainly attributable to the Company no longer recording in the second quarter of 2006 the depreciation of company vehicles whose useful lives ended in the second quarter of 2006.

The Company's corporate, general and administrative expenses during the first half of 2006 were Ps. 6,953,000, an increase of 3.6% compared to Ps. 6,713,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company reported operating income of Ps. 164,314,000 for the first half of 2006, which was more than quadruple the Ps. 34,488,000 operating income reported for the same period of 2005.

The Company's comprehensive cost of financing for the first half of 2006 was Ps. 7,407,000, an increase of 89.5% compared to a comprehensive cost of financing of Ps. 3,908,000 for the first half of 2005. This increase reflects the decrease in interest expense for the first six months of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005, which resulted from (i) the cancellation of Ps. 6,451,000 of interest recorded in 2006 on the provision for the contingent liability recorded by the Company in 2003 and (ii) the Company no longer recording interest on bank debt after paying off the remaining balance of its bank debt on May 17, 2006. The favorable effect of this decrease, however, was more than offset by declines for the first six months of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005 in (i) gain on foreign currency exchange, net, which was due primarily to the depreciation of the Peso against the U.S. dollar in the first six months of 2006 compared to the appreciation of the Peso against the U.S. dollar in the same period of 2005, and (ii) gain on net monetary position, which was due primarily to a lower inflation rate for the first six months of 2006 compared to the same period for 2005.

Other expenses, net for the first half of 2006 were Ps. 23,277,000, a 8.1% increase compared to Ps. 21,524,000 reported for the same period of 2005. This increase was mainly attributed to higher expenses related to the Company's listing, the implementation of the Sarbanes&Oaxley Law and legal expenses during the first half of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005.

For the first six months of 2006, the Company reported income before extraordinary item and provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 133,630,000, a substantial multiple of the Ps. 9,056,000 reported for the same period of 2005.

During the first six months of 2006, the Company recorded extraordinary income of Ps. 246,198,000, which resulted from the reversal of the Ps. 260,050,000 million provision for the contingent liability recorded by the Company in 2003 less accumulated foreign exchange loss and interest recorded by the Company in 2006 in relation to the provision. The Company reversed the provision for the contingent liability after a Mexican court set aside and refused to enforce in Mexico the arbitration award issued against the Company in an arbitration proceeding.

For the first half of 2006, the Company reported income before provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 379,828,000 compared to income before provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 9,056,000 reported for the same period of 2005. During the first half of 2006, the Company recorded provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 37,452,000 compared to provisions for income tax and employee profit sharing of Ps. 5,772,000 for the same period in 2005. This increase was primarily due to the increase in taxable income for the first half of 2006 compared to the same period of 2005.

As a result of the foregoing, the Company had net income of Ps. 342,376,000 for the first half of 2006 compared to net income of Ps. 3,284,000 for the same period of 2005.
