Standard & Poor's improves Petrobras' rating

Rio de Janeiro, February 10, 2017 - Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras informs that credit rating agency Standard & Poor's announced that it raised the rating for the Company's corporate debt to 'BB-' from 'B+' and altered its outlook to stable from negative.

The agency noted on its report that the improvement in Petrobras' rating reflects the evolution of its liquidity and a robust cash position that confers greater capacity to handle eventual liabilities. The recovery in the relationship with domestic and foreign banks and in Petrobras' capacity to access capital markets was also highlighted by the agency, which considered debt management operations to be positive. The progress in the Divestment Program and the perspectives to reach the targets set for 2017 and 2018 were also emphasized.

Standard & Poor's further stressed the management's focus on profitability, a more balanced capital structure, and the commitment with deleveraging, as well as the consistency of the new Pricing Policy, which enables greater visibility over Petrobras' cash flow.

The agency also reinforced the progress in corporate governance and the measures adopted to improve internal controls, relationship with suppliers, and decision-making processes.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company's expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as "believe," "expect," "estimate," "anticipate," "optimistic," "intend," "plan," "aim," "will," "may," "should," "could," "would," "likely," and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company's actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the "Lava Jato Operation"; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company's risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2015, and the Company's other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
