Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Statement is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

On January 18, 2008, Barington delivered a letter to the Company demanding, pursuant to Section 14A:5-28 of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act and the common law of the State of New Jersey, a copy of the Company's shareholder register and other related records in order to enable Barington to, among other things, determine whether the Company has, either now or at any time prior to the date the Company is scheduled to deregister with the SEC, 300 or more shareholders of record.

Members of the Reporting Entities have begun the process of registering some of their shares in their own names. The Reporting Entities encourage their fellow shareholders to contact the banks or brokerage firms that hold their shares and do the same as the Company may not deregister if it has 300 or more shareholders of record prior to April 1, 2008. The Reporting Entities believe that there are over 1,000 shareholders of the Company, approximately 200 of which are currently shareholders of record.

In addition, on January 18, 2008, the Reporting Entities filed a lawsuit in the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, Chancery Division - Bergen County, against the Board of Directors of the Company entitled Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P., et al. v. Sy Syms, et al. The lawsuit alleges that the directors breached their fiduciary duties in causing the Company to delist its common stock from the New York Stock Exchange and by filing to deregister its shares under the federal securities laws. The lawsuit seeks, among other things, to enjoin the directors from causing the Company to deregister its common stock, and to compel the directors to cause the Company to relist its shares on a nationwide securities exchange. While the Reporting Entities intend to vigorously pursue the litigation, there can be no assurance as to how, or when, the litigation will be resolved.

On January 22, 2008, Barington Capital Group, L.P. and Esopus Creek Advisors LLC issued a press release announcing the above. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.6 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
