FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BANKRATE, INC. TO ACQUIRE INSURANCE LEAD GENERATION AND MARKETING ASSETS OF INSWEB CORPORATION

NEW YORK, NY – October 10, 2011 – InsWeb Corporation (NASDAQ: INSW) and Bankrate, Inc. (NYSE: RATE) announced today that they have entered into a definitive agreement for InsWeb to sell substantially all of its assets relating to its insurance lead generation and marketing business to Bankrate for $65 million in cash at closing, subject to a working capital adjustment specified in the agreement. InsWeb will retain a portfolio of e-commerce and online insurance distribution patents, which it will license to Bankrate on a perpetual, royalty-free, non-exclusive basis. Bankrate has entered into voting agreements with shareholders representing approximately 40% of InsWeb's currently outstanding shares in connection with the transaction. Under the terms of the agreement, Bankrate will also assume certain liabilities of InsWeb, as further specified in the agreement. Following the closing, InsWeb is expected to continue as a public company and will focus on a new business model in which it will license its patented technologies.

“We are excited about this transaction and the value that it delivers to us and our shareholders,” said Hussein A. Enan, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of InsWeb. “The purchase price represents a compelling valuation for the business, while we believe the retention of our patent portfolio and our planned efforts to license the proprietary technologies we have developed over the years provides potential upside to our shareholders. Competition in online lead generation services continues to be dynamic, and the ability to monetize leads effectively is increasingly important. Bankrate's strong online distribution network is an ideal fit for our customers and consumers, who will continue to be well served in the marketplace.”

“The InsWeb assets represent a great addition to the Bankrate insurance business,” said Thomas R. Evans, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bankrate, Inc. “We anticipate that InsWeb's large agent base and lead sources will complement our existing insurance offering and create opportunities for substantial synergies. Once closed, we expect this acquisition to be immediately accretive.”

InsWeb's board of directors unanimously approved the agreement. The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals and the approval of InsWeb's shareholders. The agreement contains several other terms and further details expanding on the information included in this press release, and a copy of the agreement will be filed with the SEC by InsWeb.

InsWeb was advised as to financial matters by GCA Savvian, and as to legal matters by Sidley Austin LLP. Bankrate was advised in this transaction as to legal matters by Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz.

InsWeb to Focus on Monetizing its Patented Technologies Following Sale of Insurance Lead Generation and Marketing Business

SACRAMENTO, Calif., October 10, 2011 – As previously disclosed today, InsWeb Corporation (NASDAQ: INSW) has entered into a definitive agreement to sell substantially all of its assets relating to its insurance lead generation and marketing business to Bankrate, Inc. (NYSE: RATE) for $65 million in cash at closing, subject to a working capital adjustment specified in the agreement. Under the terms of the agreement, Bankrate will also assume certain liabilities of InsWeb. Following the closing, InsWeb will retain a portfolio of e-commerce and online insurance distribution patents, intends to focus its efforts on licensing its patent portfolio, and is expected to continue as a public company. Since its founding in 1995, InsWeb has developed multiple proprietary e-commerce and online insurance distribution technologies and owns five issued patents and two patent applications.

“This transaction provides an attractive opportunity to exit the lead generation business and to shift our focus to monetizing our patent portfolio, which we believe comprises valuable technologies for a wide range of e-commerce companies. Following the close of this transaction, InsWeb will have growth opportunities stemming from our patent portfolio, and a continuing commitment to deliver value to our shareholders,” said Hussein Enan, Chairman and CEO of InsWeb.

Stockholders who own shares of the Company's common stock immediately prior to the closing of the asset sale transaction will continue to hold the same number of shares immediately following the closing. The Company, and not its stockholders, will receive all of the net proceeds from the asset sale transaction. Following the transaction, the net proceeds from the transaction, combined with approximately $6 million in cash from current operations that will remain with the Company, are expected to provide ample capital for future operations. The Company anticipates using a portion of the net proceeds for general working capital purposes in connection with the development and operation of the patent licensing business. In addition, the Company expects to use a substantial portion of the net proceeds from the asset sale transaction to make a special cash distribution to its stockholders in the first quarter of 2012. The Company expects that to the extent the sale of assets results in the recognition of a net gain for tax purposes, the Company's available net operating loss carryforwards will offset a substantial part of such gain. The Company expects to lower its overhead costs commensurate with the reduced scope of operations. The Company and its ongoing business will operate under a new name, to be approved by stockholders, and will continue to be headquartered in Sacramento, CA.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

InsWeb plans to file a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") regarding the proposed transaction. INVESTORS ARE URGED TO READ THE PROXY STATEMENT WHEN IT BECOMES AVAILABLE BECAUSE IT WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. You will be able to obtain the proxy statement, as well as other filings containing information about InsWeb, free of charge, at the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov. Copies of the proxy statement and the filings with the SEC that will be incorporated by reference in the proxy statement can also be obtained, free of charge, by directing a request to InsWeb at 10850 Gold Center Dr., Suite 250, Rancho Cordova, CA 95670, Attention: General Counsel. The directors and executive officers of InsWeb and other persons may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the proposed transaction. Information regarding InsWeb directors and executive officers is available in its proxy statement filed with the SEC by InsWeb on June 7, 2011. These documents can be obtained free of charge from the sources indicated above. Other information regarding the interests of the participants in the proxy solicitation will be included in the proxy statement and other relevant materials to be filed with the SEC when they become available.
