NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Tabular data dollars in millions, except per share amounts

1. Segment Information

The Company has four reportable segments based on its geographic locations: Europe, North America, Latin America and Asia Pacific. These four segments are aligned with the Company's internal approach to managing, reporting, and evaluating performance of its global glass operations. Certain assets and activities not directly related to one of the regions or to glass manufacturing are reported with Retained corporate costs and other. These include licensing, equipment manufacturing, global engineering, and certain equity investments. Retained corporate costs and other also includes certain headquarters administrative and facilities costs and certain incentive compensation and other benefit plan costs that are global in nature and are not allocable to the reportable segments.

The Company's measure of profit for its reportable segments is segment operating profit, which consists of consolidated earnings from continuing operations before interest income, interest expense, and provision for income taxes and excludes amounts related to certain items that management considers not representative of ongoing operations as well as certain retained corporate costs. The Company's management uses segment operating profit, in combination with selected cash flow information, to evaluate performance and to allocate resources. Segment operating profit for reportable segments includes an allocation of some corporate expenses based on both a percentage of sales and direct billings based on the costs of specific services provided.

Intercompany sales in Latin America totaled $30 million and $63 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, respectively, and $43 million and $93 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, respectively.

4. Derivative Instruments

The Company has certain derivative assets and liabilities which consist of natural gas forwards and foreign exchange option and forward contracts. The Company uses an income approach to value these contracts. Natural gas forward rates and foreign exchange rates are the significant inputs into the valuation models. These inputs are observable in active markets over the terms of the instruments the Company holds, and accordingly, the Company classifies its derivative assets and liabilities as Level 2 in the hierarchy. The Company also evaluates counterparty risk in determining fair values.

Commodity Forward Contracts Designated as Cash Flow Hedges

In several regions, the Company enters into commodity forward contracts related to forecasted natural gas requirements, the objectives of which are to limit the effects of fluctuations in the future market price paid for natural gas and the related volatility in cash flows. In North America, the majority of its customer contracts contain provisions that pass the price of natural gas to its customers. In certain of these contracts, the customer has the option of fixing the natural gas price component for a specified period of time. To limit the effects of fluctuations in cash flows resulting from these customer contracts, the Company enters into commodity forward contracts related to forecasted natural gas requirements. In Asia Pacific, the Company implemented a hedging program in the first quarter of 2016, which included the execution of commodity forward contracts for certain contracted natural gas requirements. At June 30, 2017 and 2016, the Company had entered into commodity forward contracts covering approximately 9,800,000 MM BTUs and 11,300,000 MM BTUs, respectively.

The Company accounts for the above forward contracts as cash flow hedges at June 30, 2017 and recognizes them on the balance sheet at fair value. The effective portion of changes in the fair value of a derivative that is designated as, and meets the required criteria for, a cash flow hedge is recorded in the Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income component of share owners' equity ("OCI") and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the underlying hedged item affects earnings. An unrecognized loss of $1 million at June 30, 2017, an unrecognized gain of $6 million at December 31, 2016 and an unrecognized gain of $3 million at June 30, 2016 related to the commodity forward contracts was included in Accumulated OCI, and will be reclassified into earnings in the period when the commodity forward contracts expire. Any material portion of the change in the fair value of a derivative designated as a cash flow hedge that is deemed to be ineffective is recognized in current earnings. The ineffectiveness related to these natural gas hedges for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 was not material.

The effect of the commodity forward contracts on the results of operations for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 is as follows:

Amount of Gain (Loss) Recognized in OCI on Commodity Forward Contracts (Effective Portion)		Amount of Gain (Loss) Reclassified from Accumulated OCI into Income (reported in cost of goods sold) (Effective Portion)
2017	2016	2017	2016
$ (2)	$ 7	$ —	$ (2)

The effect of the commodity forward contracts on the results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 is as follows:

Amount of Gain Recognized in OCI on Commodity Forward Contracts (Effective Portion)		Amount of Gain (Loss) Reclassified from Accumulated OCI into Income (reported in cost of goods sold) (Effective Portion)
2017	2016	2017	2016
$ 4	$ 3	$ —	$ —

Foreign Exchange Derivative Contracts and not Designated as Hedging Instruments

The Company may enter into short-term forward exchange or option agreements to purchase foreign currencies at set rates in the future. These agreements are used to limit exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates for significant planned purchases of fixed assets or commodities that are denominated in currencies other than the subsidiaries' functional currency. The Company may also use foreign exchange agreements to offset the foreign currency risk for receivables and payables, including intercompany receivables, payables, and loans, not denominated in, or indexed to, their functional currencies. The Company records these short-term foreign exchange agreements on the balance sheet at fair value and changes in the fair value are recognized in current earnings.

At June 30, 2017 and 2016, the Company had outstanding foreign exchange and option agreements denominated in various currencies covering the equivalent of approximately $340 million and $524 million, respectively, related primarily to intercompany transactions and loans.

The effect of the foreign exchange derivative contracts on the results of operations for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 is as follows:

Location of Gain (Loss)	Amount of Gain (Loss) Recognized in Income on Foreign Exchange Contracts
	2017	2016
Recognized in Income on Foreign Exchange Contracts
Other expense	$ 4	$ (1)

The effect of the foreign exchange derivative contracts on the results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 is as follows:

Location of Gain	Amount of Gain Recognized in Income on Foreign Exchange Contracts
	2017	2016
Recognized in Income on Foreign Exchange Contracts
Other expense	$ 6	$ 4

Hedges of Multiple Risks

The Company has variable-interest rate borrowings denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the borrowing subsidiaries. As a result, the Company is exposed to fluctuations in both the underlying variable interest rate and the currency of the borrowing against the subsidiaries' functional currency. The Company uses derivatives to manage these exposures and designates these derivatives as cash flow hedges of both interest rate and foreign exchange risks. The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives designated and that qualify as cash flow hedges of both interest rate risk and foreign exchange risk is recorded in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income and is subsequently reclassified into earnings in the period for which the hedged forecasted transaction affects earnings. The ineffective portion of the change in fair value of the derivative is recognized directly in earnings.

During the second quarter of 2017, one of the Company's Euro-functional subsidiaries entered into a cross-currency interest rate swap to manage its exposure to fluctuations in the variable interest rate and the U.S. dollar-Euro exchange rate arising from a U.S. dollar denominated borrowing. This swap involves exchanging fixed rate Euro interest payments for floating rate U.S. dollar interest receipts both of which will occur at the forward exchange rates in effect upon entering into the instrument. This instrument, expected to settle in the third quarter of 2017, has a pay fixed notional amount of €81 million and a receive notional amount of $90 million.

Balance Sheet Classification

The Company records the fair values of derivative financial instruments on the balance sheet as follows:

(a) receivables if the instrument has a positive fair value and maturity within one year, (b) deposits, receivables, and other assets if the instrument has a positive fair value and maturity after one year, and (c) other accrued liabilities or other liabilities (current) if the instrument has a negative fair value and maturity within one year.

The Company's decisions to curtail selected production capacity have resulted in write downs of certain long-lived assets to the extent their carrying amounts exceeded fair value or fair value less cost to sell. The Company classified the significant assumptions used to determine the fair value of the impaired assets, which was not material, as Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy as set forth in the general accounting principles for fair value measurements.

When a decision is made to take these actions, the Company manages and accounts for them separately from the on-going operations of the business. Information related to major programs (as in the case of the Asia Pacific Restructuring program above) are presented separately. Minor initiatives and discrete restructuring actions are presented on a combined basis as Other Restructuring Actions. When charges related to major programs are completed, remaining accrual balances are classified within Other Restructuring Actions.

Asia Pacific Restructuring

During the six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company recorded charges of $1 million. These charges primarily represented other exit costs as part of the Company's Asia Pacific Restructuring program. The Company recorded total cumulative charges of $224 million and does not expect to execute any further actions under this program. The Company expects that the majority of the remaining cash expenditures related to the above charges will be paid out by the end of 2018. Beginning in 2017, the Asia Pacific Restructuring program was considered substantially complete and the remaining accrual balance was reclassified into Other Restructuring Actions.

Other Restructuring Actions

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company recorded restructuring, asset impairment and other charges of $10 million and $48 million, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, these charges primarily consist of employee costs, write-down of assets, and other exit costs in the following regions: Latin America ($33 million), Europe ($13 million) and North America ($2 million). Except for the charges recorded in Europe, the other discrete restructuring charges recorded in 2017 are expected to approximate the total cumulative costs for those actions as no significant additional costs are expected to be incurred. The Company has recorded total cumulative charges of $54 million related to a plant closure in Europe and does not expect to execute any further significant actions related to this facility. The restructuring charges recorded in 2017 in the Latin American and European regions primarily relate to capacity curtailments and products produced at those facilities have, in large part, been reallocated to others in their respective regions. The Company expects that the majority of the remaining cash expenditures related to the above charges will be paid out by the end of 2018.

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company recorded restructuring, asset impairment and other charges of $0 and $18 million, respectively. These charges were primarily related to restructuring in the Latin America region. These charges primarily represented employee costs, write-down of assets, and other exit costs of $14 million for a plant closure in the first quarter of 2016 in Latin America, $3 million related to a previous plant closure in North America and $1 million related to other restructuring actions. The discrete restructuring charges recorded in the first quarter of 2016 are expected to approximate the total cumulative costs for those actions as no significant additional costs are expected to be incurred. The restructuring charges recorded in the first quarter of 2016 in the Latin American region primarily relate to a capacity curtailment. The Company reallocated the products produced at this facility to others in the region. The Company expects that the majority of the remaining cash expenditures related to the above charges will be paid out by the end of 2017.

6. Pension Benefit Plans

The components of the net periodic pension cost for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 are as follows:

	U.S.		Non-U.S.

7. Income Taxes

The Company performs a quarterly review of the annual effective tax rate and makes changes if necessary based on new information or events. The estimated annual effective tax rate is forecasted quarterly using actual historical information and forward-looking estimates. The estimated annual effective tax rate may fluctuate due to changes in forecasted annual operating income; changes in the forecasted mix of earnings by country; changes to the valuation allowance for deferred tax assets (such changes would be recorded discretely in the quarter in which they occur); changes to actual or forecasted permanent book to tax differences (non-deductible expenses); impacts from future tax settlements with state, federal or foreign tax authorities (such changes would be recorded discretely in the quarter in which they occur); or impacts from tax law changes. To the extent such changes impact deferred tax assets/liabilities, these changes would generally be recorded discretely in the quarter in which they occur. Additionally, the annual effective tax rate differs from the statutory U.S. Federal tax rate of 35% primarily because of valuation allowances in some jurisdictions and varying non-U.S. tax rates, as well as the tax accruals reversed in the second quarter of 2017 due to the resolution of a previous tax matter with a foreign tax authority.

The Company is currently under examination in various tax jurisdictions in which it operates, including Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, China, Canada, Colombia, Czech, Ecuador, France, Germany, and Indonesia. The years under examination range from 2006 through 2015. The Company has received income tax assessments in excess of established reserves. The Company believes that adequate provisions for all income tax uncertainties have been made. However, if income tax assessments are settled against the Company at amounts in excess of established reserves, it could have a material impact to the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

On April 22, 2015, the Company entered into a Senior Secured Credit Facility, which subsequently has been amended several times with the most recent amendment being entered into on February 3, 2016 (the “Amended Agreement”).

At June 30, 2017, the Amended Agreement includes a $300 million revolving credit facility, a $600 million multicurrency revolving credit facility, a $1,575 million term loan A facility ($1,370 million net of debt issuance costs), and a €279 million term loan A facility ($303 million net of debt issuance costs), each of which has a final maturity date of April 22, 2020. At June 30, 2017, the Company had unused credit of $675 million available under the Amended Agreement. The weighted average interest rate on borrowings outstanding under the Amended Agreement at June 30, 2017 was 2.64%.

The Amended Agreement contains various covenants that restrict, among other things and subject to certain exceptions, the ability of the Company to incur certain liens, make certain investments, become liable under contingent obligations in certain defined instances only, make restricted payments, make certain asset sales within guidelines and limits, engage in certain affiliate transactions, participate in sale and leaseback financing arrangements, alter its fundamental business, and amend certain subordinated debt obligations.

The Amended Agreement also contains one financial covenant, a Total Leverage Ratio that requires the Company not to exceed a ratio calculated by dividing consolidated total debt, less cash and cash equivalents, by consolidated

EBITDA, as defined in the Amended Agreement. The Total Leverage Ratio could restrict the ability of the Company to undertake additional financing or acquisitions to the extent that such financing or acquisitions would cause the Total Leverage Ratio to exceed the specified maximum of (i) 4.5x for the two fiscal quarters ending June 30, 2017 and September 30, 2017, and (ii) 4.0x for the fourth fiscal quarter ending December 31, 2017 and each fiscal quarter thereafter.

Failure to comply with these covenants and restrictions could result in an event of default under the Amended Agreement. In such an event, the Company would be unable to request borrowings under the revolving facility, and all amounts outstanding under the Amended Agreement, together with accrued interest, could then be declared immediately due and payable. If an event of default occurs under the Amended Agreement and the lenders cause all of the outstanding debt obligations under the Amended Agreement to become due and payable, this would result in a default under a number of other outstanding debt securities and could lead to an acceleration of obligations related to these debt securities. As of June 30, 2017, the Company was in compliance with all covenants and restrictions in the Amended Agreement. In addition, the Company believes that it will remain in compliance and that its ability to borrow funds under the Amended Agreement will not be adversely affected by the covenants and restrictions.

The interest rates on borrowings under the Amended Agreement are, at the Company's option, the Base Rate or the Eurocurrency Rate, as defined in the Amended Agreement, plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin for the term loan A facility and the revolving credit facility is linked to the Company's Total Leverage Ratio and ranges from 1.25% to 1.75% for Eurocurrency Rate loans and from 0.25% to 0.75% for Base Rate loans. In addition, a facility fee is payable on the revolving credit facility commitments ranging from 0.20% to 0.30% per annum linked to the Total Leverage Ratio.

Borrowings under the Amended Agreement are secured by substantially all of the assets, excluding real estate and certain other excluded assets, of certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries and certain foreign subsidiaries. Borrowings are also secured by a pledge of intercompany debt and equity investments in certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries and, in the case of foreign borrowings, of stock of certain foreign subsidiaries. All borrowings under the Amended Agreement are guaranteed by certain domestic subsidiaries of the Company.

During August 2015, the Company issued senior notes with a face value of $700 million that bear interest at 5.875% and are due August 15, 2023 (the "Senior Notes due 2023") and senior notes with a face value of $300 million that bear interest at 6.375% and are due August 15, 2025 (together with the Senior Notes due 2023, the "2015 Senior Notes"). The 2015 Senior Notes were issued via a private placement and are guaranteed by certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries. The net proceeds from the 2015 Senior Notes, after deducting the debt discount and debt issuance costs, totaled approximately $972 million.

During November 2016, the Company issued senior notes with a face value of €500 million that bear interest at 3.125% and are due November 15, 2024 (the "Senior Notes due 2024"). The notes were issued via a private placement and are guaranteed by certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries. The net proceeds, after deducting debt issuance costs, totaled approximately $520 million and were used to repay the term loan B facility under the Amended Agreement. In March 2017, the Company expanded its borrowings under the Senior Notes due 2024 by issuing €225 million of additional notes that bear interest at 3.125% and are due November 15, 2024. The notes were issued via a private placement and are guaranteed by certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries. The net proceeds, after deducting debt issuance costs, totaled approximately $237 million and were used to repay a portion of the Company's revolving credit facility.

In March 2017, the Company purchased in a tender offer approximately $228 million aggregate principal amount of its 7.80% Senior Debentures due in 2018. Approximately $22 million of the Senior Debentures remain outstanding as of June 30, 2017. As part of the tender offer, the Company recorded $17 million of additional interest charges for note repurchase premiums and the related write-off of unamortized finance fees in the first quarter of 2017.

The Company assesses its capital raising and refinancing needs on an ongoing basis and may enter into additional credit facilities and seek to issue equity and/or debt securities in the domestic and international capital markets if market conditions are favorable. Also, depending on market conditions, the Company may elect to repurchase portions of its debt securities in the open market.

The Company has a €185 million European accounts receivable securitization program, which extends through March 2019, subject to periodic renewal of backup credit lines.

Information related to the Company's accounts receivable securitization program is as follows:

	June 30, 2017	December 31, 2016	June 30, 2016
Balance (included in short-term loans)	$ 182	$ 152	$ 173
Weighted average interest rate	0.74 %	0.74 %	0.70 %

The carrying amounts reported for the accounts receivable securitization program, and certain long-term debt obligations subject to frequently redetermined interest rates, approximate fair value. Fair values for the Company's significant fixed rate debt obligations are based on published market quotations, and are classified as Level 1 in the fair value hierarchy.

Fair values at June 30, 2017 of the Company's significant fixed rate debt obligations are as follows:

9. Contingencies

Asbestos

The Company is a defendant in numerous lawsuits alleging bodily injury and death as a result of exposure to asbestos. From 1948 to 1958, one of the Company's former business units commercially produced and sold approximately $40 million of a high-temperature, calcium-silicate based insulation material containing asbestos. The Company sold its insulation business unit at the end of April 1958. The typical asbestos personal injury lawsuit alleges various theories of liability, including negligence, gross negligence and strict liability and seeks compensatory and, in some cases, punitive damages in various amounts (herein referred to as "asbestos claims").

As of June 30, 2017, the Company has determined that it is a named defendant in asbestos lawsuits and claims involving approximately 1,400 plaintiffs and claimants. Based on an analysis of the lawsuits pending as of December 31, 2016, approximately 88% of plaintiffs either do not specify the monetary damages sought, or in the case of court filings, claim an amount sufficient to invoke the jurisdictional minimum of the trial court. Approximately 9% of plaintiffs specifically plead damages above the jurisdictional minimum up to, and including, $15 million or less, and 3% of plaintiffs specifically plead damages greater than $15 million but less than or equal to $100 million.

As indicated by the foregoing summary, current pleading practice permits considerable variation in the assertion of monetary damages. The Company's experience resolving hundreds of thousands of asbestos claims and lawsuits over an extended period demonstrates that the monetary relief alleged in a complaint bears little relevance to a claim's merits or disposition value. Rather, the amount potentially recoverable is determined by such factors as the type and severity of the plaintiff's asbestos disease, the plaintiff's medical history and exposure to other disease-causing agents, the product identification evidence against the Company and other co-defendants, the defenses available to the Company and other co-defendants, the specific jurisdiction in which the claim is made, and the plaintiff's firm representing the claimant.

In addition to the pending claims set forth above, the Company has claims-handling agreements in place with many plaintiffs' counsel throughout the country. These agreements require evaluation and negotiation regarding whether particular claimants qualify under the criteria established by such agreements. The criteria for such claims include verification of a compensable illness and a reasonable probability of exposure to a product manufactured by the Company's former business unit during its manufacturing period ending in 1958.

The Company has also been a defendant in other asbestos-related lawsuits or claims involving maritime workers, medical monitoring claimants, co-defendants and property damage claimants. Based upon its past experience, the Company believes that these categories of lawsuits and claims will not involve any material liability and they are not included in the above description of pending matters or in the following description of disposed matters.

Since receiving its first asbestos claim, the Company as of June 30, 2017, has disposed of asbestos claims of approximately 398,000 plaintiffs and claimants at an average indemnity payment per claim of approximately $9,500. The Company's asbestos indemnity payments have varied on a per claim basis, and are expected to continue to vary considerably over time. Asbestos-related cash payments for 2016, 2015 and 2014 were $125 million, $138 million, and $148 million, respectively. The Company's cash payments per claim disposed (inclusive of legal costs) were approximately $71,000, $95,000, and $81,000 for the years ended December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

As discussed above, the Company's objective is to achieve, where possible, resolution of asbestos claims pursuant to claims-handling agreements. Failure of claimants to meet certain medical and product exposure criteria in the Company's administrative claims handling agreements has generally reduced the number of claims that would otherwise have been received by the Company in the tort system. In addition, certain court orders and legislative acts have reduced or eliminated the number of claims that the Company otherwise would have received by the Company in the tort system. These developments generally have had the effect of increasing the Company's per-claim average indemnity payment over time.

Beginning with the initial liability of $975 million established in 1993, the Company has accrued a total of approximately $4.9 billion through June 30, 2017, before insurance recoveries, for its asbestos-related liability. The Company's estimates of its liability have been significantly affected by, among other factors, the volatility of asbestos-related litigation in the United States, the significant number of co-defendants that have filed for bankruptcy, the inherent uncertainty of future disease incidence and claiming patterns against the Company, the significant expansion of the defendants that are now sued in this litigation, and the continuing changes in the extent to which these defendants participate in the resolution of cases in which the Company is also a defendant.

The Company continues to monitor trends that may affect its ultimate liability and analyze the developments and variables likely to affect the resolution of pending and future asbestos claims against the Company. The material components of the Company's total accrued liability are determined by the Company in connection with its annual comprehensive legal review and consist of the following estimates, to the extent it is probable that such liabilities have been incurred and can be reasonably estimated: (i) the liability for asbestos claims already asserted against the Company; (ii) the liability for asbestos claims not yet asserted against the Company; and (iii) the legal defense costs estimated to be incurred in connection with the claims already asserted and those claims the Company believes will be asserted.

As noted above, the Company conducts a comprehensive legal review of its asbestos-related liabilities and costs annually in connection with finalizing and reporting its annual results of operations, unless significant changes in trends or new developments warrant an earlier review. As part of its annual comprehensive legal review, the Company provides historical claims filing data to a third party with expertise in determining the impact of disease incidence and mortality on future filing trends to develop information to assist the Company in estimating the total number of future claims to be filed. The Company uses this estimate of total future claims, along with an estimation of disposition costs and related legal costs as inputs to develop its best estimate of total probable liability. If the results of the annual comprehensive legal review indicate that the existing amount of the accrued liability is lower (higher) than its reasonably estimable asbestos-related costs, then the Company will record an appropriate charge (credit) to the Company's results of operations to increase (decrease) the accrued liability.

The significant assumptions underlying the material components of the Company's accrual are:

- a) settlements will continue to be limited almost exclusively to claimants who were exposed to the Company's asbestos containing insulation prior to its exit from that business in 1958;
- b) claims will continue to be resolved primarily under the Company's administrative claims agreements or on terms comparable to those set forth in those agreements;
- c) the incidence of serious asbestos related disease cases and claiming patterns against the Company for such cases do not change materially;
- d) the Company is substantially able to defend itself successfully at trial and on appeal;
- e) the number and timing of additional co-defendant bankruptcies do not change significantly the assets available to participate in the resolution of cases in which the Company is a defendant; and
- f) co-defendants with substantial resources and assets continue to participate significantly in the resolution of future asbestos lawsuits and claims.

For the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Company concluded that accruals in the amount of $692 million and $817 million, respectively, were required. These amounts have not been discounted for the time value of money. The Company's comprehensive legal reviews resulted in charges of $0 million, $16 million and $46 million for the years ending December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The Company believes it is reasonably possible that it will incur a loss for its asbestos-related liabilities in excess of the amount currently recognized, which is $692 million as of December 31, 2016. The Company estimates that reasonably possible losses could be as high as $825 million. This estimate of additional reasonably possible loss reflects a legal judgment about the number and cost of potential future claims and legal costs. The Company believes this estimate is consistent with the level of variability it has experienced when comparing actual results to recent near-term projections. However, it is also possible that the ultimate asbestos-related liability could be above this estimate.

The Company expects a significant majority of the total number of claims to be received in the next ten years. This timeframe appropriately reflects the mortality of current and expected claimants in light of the Company's sale of its insulation business unit in 1958.

As noted above, the Company's asbestos-related liability is based on a projection of new claims that will eventually be filed against the Company and the estimated average disposition cost of these claims and related legal costs. Changes in the significant assumptions noted above have the potential to impact these key factors, which are critical to the estimation of the Company's asbestos-related liability significantly.

Other Matters

On July 5, 2016, the Company learned that the Enforcement Division of the SEC is conducting an investigation into certain accounting and control matters pertaining to the Company's determination of its asbestos-related liabilities. On May 13, 2016, the Company restated its consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2015, 2014 and 2013 in order to correct an error related to the Company's method for estimating its future asbestos-related liabilities. The Company is cooperating with the SEC's investigation. At this time, the Company is unable to predict the outcome of this matter or provide meaningful quantification of how the final resolution of this matter may impact its future consolidated financial statements, results of operations, or cash flows.

Other litigation is pending against the Company, in many cases involving ordinary and routine claims incidental to the business of the Company and in others presenting allegations that are non-routine and involve compensatory, punitive or treble damage claims as well as other types of relief. The Company records a liability for such matters when it is both probable that the liability has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be reasonably estimated. Recorded amounts are reviewed and adjusted to reflect changes in the factors upon which the estimates are based, including additional information, negotiations, settlements and other events.

14. Supplemental Cash Flow Information

Financial information regarding the Company's supplemental cash flow information is as follows:

	Six months ended
	June 30,
	2017	2016
Interest paid in cash	$ 145	$ 136
Income taxes paid in cash (all non-U.S.)	89	75

Cash interest for the six months ended June 30, 2017 includes $16 million of note repurchase premiums related to debt that was repaid prior to its maturity.

The Company uses various factoring programs to sell certain receivables to financial institutions as part of managing its cash flows. At June 30, 2017 and June 30, 2016, the amount of receivables sold by the Company was $205 million and $300 million, respectively. Any continuing involvement with the sold receivables is immaterial.

15. Discontinued Operations

On April 4, 2016, the annulment committee formed by the World Bank's International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ("ICSID") ruled that OI European Group B.V. ("OIEG"), a subsidiary of the Company, is free to pursue the enforcement of a prior arbitration award (the "Award") against Venezuela. As of June 30, 2017, that Award amounts to more than $500 million, including reimbursement of expenses and accrued interest. Venezuela's application to annul the Award is still pending before an ad hoc committee of the ICSID and a hearing with respect to such application is currently scheduled for September 26-27, 2017.

On July 31, 2017, OIEG sold its right, title and interest in amounts due under the Award to an Ireland-domiciled investment fund. Under the terms of the sale, OIEG received a payment, in cash, at closing equal to $115 million (the "Cash Payment"). OIEG may also receive additional payments in the future ("Deferred Amounts") calculated based on the total compensation that is received from Venezuela as a result of collection efforts or as settlement of the Award with Venezuela. In the event that the Award is partially or completely annulled by the ICSID ad hoc annulment committee, OIEG may be required to repay to the purchaser up to the entire amount of the Cash Payment based on a formula tied to the amount of the Award (if any) that is annulled. In addition, OIEG's right to receive any Deferred Amounts is subject to the limitations described below.

OIEG's interest in any amounts received in the future from Venezuela in respect of the Award is limited to a percentage of such recovery after taking into account reimbursement of the Cash Payment to the purchaser and reimbursement of legal fees and expenses incurred by the Company and the purchaser. OIEG's percentage of such recovery will also be reduced over time. Because the Award has yet to be satisfied, the annulment proceeding is pending, and the ability to successfully enforce the Award in countries that are party to the ICSID Convention is subject to significant challenges, the Company is unable to reasonably predict the amount of recoveries from the Award, if any, to which the Company may be entitled in the future. Any future amounts that the Company may receive from the Award are highly speculative and the timing of any such future payments, if any, is highly uncertain. As such, there can be no assurance that the Company will receive any future payments under the Award beyond the Cash Payment. Except as noted above in connection with the annulment proceeding that is pending before the ICSID ad hoc committee, the Cash Payment is not subject to any forfeiture or future adjustment.

A separate arbitration involving other subsidiaries of the Company is pending before ICSID to obtain compensation primarily for third-party minority shareholders' lost interests in the two expropriated plants.

For the three and six month periods ending June 30, 2017, the Company has not given recognition to the transaction above in its financial statements. The loss from discontinued operations of less than $1 million and $3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and June 30, 2016, respectively, relates to ongoing costs for the Venezuelan expropriation.

16. New Accounting Pronouncement

Revenue from Contracts with Customers - In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers," which requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. In August 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-14, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers", which delayed by one year the effective date of the new revenue recognition standard, which will be effective for the Company on January 1, 2018. The Company has started an implementation process, including a review of customer contracts, to evaluate the effect this standard will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. At this time, the Company does not expect that the implementation of this standard in 2018 will have a significant impact on the timing in which it recognizes revenue. While the Company continues to assess the potential impacts of the new standard, the Company does not currently expect the adoption of the new standard to have a material impact on consolidated net income or the consolidated balance sheet. The standard requires new substantial disclosures and the Company continues to evaluate these requirements. The Company plans to select the modified retrospective transition method upon adoption effective January 1, 2018.

Leases - In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, "Leases". Under this guidance, lessees will be required to recognize on the balance sheet a lease liability and a right-of-use asset for all leases, with the exception of short-term leases. The lease liability represents the lessee's obligation to make lease payments arising from a lease, and will be measured as the present value of the lease payments. The right-of-use asset represents the lessee's right to use a specified asset for the lease term, and will be measured at the lease liability amount, adjusted for lease prepayment, lease incentives received and the lessee's initial direct costs. The standard also requires a lessee to recognize a single lease cost allocated over the lease term, generally on a straight-line basis. The new guidance is effective for the Company on January 1, 2019. ASU No. 2016-02 is required to be applied using the modified retrospective approach for all leases existing as of the effective date and provides for certain practical expedients. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the effects that the adoption of ASU No. 2016-02 will have on the Company's consolidated financial statements, and anticipates the new guidance will significantly impact its consolidated financial statements as the Company has a significant number of leases. As further described in Note 16 in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company had minimum lease commitments under non-cancellable operating leases totaling $205 million as of December 31, 2016.

Compensation – Retirement Benefits - In March 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-07, “Improving the Presentation of Net Periodic Pension Cost and Net Periodic Postretirement Benefit Cost” which requires the service cost component to be presented with other employee compensation costs in operating income within the income statement while the other components will be reported separately outside of operations. Application of the standard is required for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017. The adoption of this standard is not expected to have a material impact on the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

The Company's measure of profit for its reportable segments is segment operating profit, which consists of consolidated earnings from continuing operations before interest income, interest expense, and provision for income taxes and excludes amounts related to certain items that management considers not representative of ongoing operations as well as certain retained corporate costs. The segment data presented below is prepared in accordance with general accounting principles for segment reporting. The lines titled "reportable segment totals" in both net sales and segment operating profit, however, are non-GAAP measures when presented outside of the financial statement footnotes. Management has included reportable segment totals below to facilitate the discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations and believes this information allows the board of directors, management, investors and analysts to better understand the Company's financial performance. The Company's management uses segment operating profit, in combination with net sales and selected cash flow information, to evaluate performance and to allocate resources.

Executive Overview — Quarters ended June 30, 2017 and 2016

Second Quarter 2017 Highlights

- Net sales in the second quarter of 2017 were down slightly compared to the prior year quarter. Higher year-over-year net sales in Latin America were offset by lower sales in the other regions.
- Earnings from continuing operations before income taxes were up 8% in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the second quarter of 2016, driven by higher segment operating profit in the Latin American and European regions.
- The provision for income taxes was lower than the prior year primarily due to the resolution of a tax matter that resulted in approximately $26 million of tax accruals to be reversed in the second quarter of 2017.

Net sales for the second quarter of 2017 were $9 million lower than the second quarter of the prior year primarily due to lower shipments in the North American and Asia Pacific regions and the unfavorable effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, partially offset by slightly higher prices and higher shipments in Latin America.

Earnings from continuing operations before income taxes were $11 million higher in the second quarter of 2017 than the prior year quarter, primarily due to higher segment operating profit. Segment operating profit for reportable segments for the second quarter of 2017 was $19 million higher than the second quarter of the prior year. The increase was largely attributable to lower operating costs and slightly higher selling prices, partially offset by slightly lower sales volumes. All regions posted flat or higher segment operating profit in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the same period in the prior year.

Net interest expense for the second quarter of 2017 decreased $5 million compared to the second quarter of 2016. The decrease was primarily due to deleveraging and refinancing actions taken since the second quarter of 2016.

For the second quarter of 2017, the Company recorded earnings from continuing operations attributable to the Company of $140 million, or $0.85 per share (diluted), compared to $107 million, or $0.65 per share (diluted), in the second quarter of 2016. Earnings in the second quarter of 2017 included items that management considered not representative of ongoing operations. These items increased net earnings attributable to the Company by $17 million, or $0.10 per share in the second quarter of 2017 as set forth in the following table (dollars in millions).

Description	Net Earnings
	Increase (Decrease) 2017

Results of Operations — Second Quarter of 2017 compared with Second Quarter of 2016

Net Sales

The Company's net sales in the second quarter of 2017 were $1,751 million compared with $1,760 million for the second quarter of 2016, a decrease of $9 million, or less than 1%. Total glass container shipments, in tonnes, were down approximately 1% in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the prior year quarter and were largely driven by the North American and Asia Pacific regions, partially offset by higher shipments in the Latin American region. The second quarter of 2017 had several fewer shipping days than the prior year quarter and this contributed to approximately $28 million of lower sales for the Company. Unfavorable foreign currency exchange rates, primarily due to a weaker Mexican Peso and British pound, impacted sales by $5 million in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the second quarter of 2016. Slightly higher selling prices increased net sales by $17 million in the quarter.

The change in net sales of reportable segments can be summarized as follows (dollars in millions):

Reportable segment net sales - 2016		$ 1,748
Price	$ 17
Sales volume and mix	(28)
Effects of changing foreign currency rates	(5)
Total effect on reportable segment net sales	(16)
Reportable segment net sales - 2017		$ 1,732

Europe: Net sales in Europe in the second quarter of 2017 were $635 million compared with $646 million for the second quarter of 2016, a decrease of $11 million, or 2%. Unfavorable foreign currency exchange rates impacted the region by approximately $4 million in the second quarter of 2017 as the British pound weakened in relation to the U.S. dollar. Glass container shipments in the second quarter of 2017 were flat compared to the second quarter of 2016 with strong shipments to beer customers offset by lower shipments to wine, spirits and food customers. However, an unfavorable sales mix resulted in $4 million of lower sales. As a result of the pass through of 2016 cost deflation to customers under contractual price adjustment formulas, selling prices in Europe were $3 million lower in the second quarter compared to the same period in the prior year.

North America: Net sales in North America in the second quarter of 2017 were $572 million compared with $599 million for the second quarter of 2016, a decrease of $27 million, or 5%. Total glass container shipments in the region were down nearly 4% in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the second quarter of 2016, driven primarily by lower sales to beer customers, fewer number of shipping days and lower sales of returnable bottles in Canada. These lower shipments and an unfavorable sales mix resulted in $32 million of lower sales in the second quarter of 2017. The unfavorable effects of foreign currency exchange rate changes decreased net sales $2 million in the second quarter of 2017 compared to 2016. Slightly higher selling prices increased net sales by $7 million in the second quarter of 2017.

Latin America: Net sales in Latin America in the second quarter of 2017 were $370 million compared with $345 million for the second quarter of 2016, an increase of $25 million, or 7%. Strong shipments to beer and spirits customers, especially in Mexico, and a slight increase in year-over-year shipments in Brazil offset slightly lower shipments in the Andean countries. Total glass container shipments in the region were up 3% in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the same quarter in the prior year and this increased sales by $17 million. Higher pricing increased net sales by $9 million in the current quarter. The unfavorable effects of foreign currency exchange rate changes decreased net sales by $1 million in the second quarter of 2017 compared to 2016, principally due to the weakening of the Mexican peso in relation to the U.S. dollar.

Asia Pacific: Net sales in Asia Pacific in the second quarter of 2017 were $155 million compared with $158 million for the second quarter of 2016, a decrease of $3 million, or 2%. Glass container shipments were down 9% in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the same period in the prior year, primarily due to lower domestic shipments in China, and this contributed to $9 million of lower sales in the quarter. The region continues to export production in China to support higher sales in the mature markets, which in turn, led to lower domestic sales in China. Slightly higher selling prices increased net sales by $4 million in the current quarter. The favorable effects of foreign currency exchange rate changes in the current year quarter increased net sales by $2 million.

Earnings from Continuing Operations before Income Taxes and Segment Operating Profit

Earnings from continuing operations before income taxes were $152 million in the second quarter of 2017 compared to $141 million in the second quarter of 2016, an increase of $11 million, or 8%. This increase was primarily related to higher segment operating profit.

Operating profit of the reportable segments includes an allocation of some corporate expenses based on a percentage of sales and direct billings based on the costs of specific services provided. Unallocated corporate expenses and certain other expenses not directly related to the reportable segments' operations are included in Retained corporate costs and other. For further information, see Segment Information included in Note 1 to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Segment operating profit of reportable segments in the second quarter of 2017 was $252 million compared to $233 million for the second quarter of 2016, an increase of $19 million, or 8%. The increase was largely attributable to lower operating costs and slightly higher selling prices, partially offset by lower sales volumes.

The change in segment operating profit of reportable segments can be summarized as follows (dollars in millions):

Reportable segment operating profit - 2016		$ 233
Price	$ 17
Sales volume and mix	(7)

Operating costs	9
Effects of changing foreign currency rates	—
Total net effect on reportable segment operating profit		19
Reportable segment operating profit - 2017		$ 252

Europe: Segment operating profit in Europe in the second quarter of 2017 was $80 million compared with $73 million in the second quarter of 2016, an increase of $7 million, or 10%. Operating costs were $10 million lower in the second quarter of 2017 than the prior year quarter due to cost savings initiatives and higher production volumes. Lower selling prices decreased segment operating profit in the second quarter of 2017 by $3 million and was comparable to the change in cost inflation in the quarter. The net impact of sales volume and mix discussed above decreased segment operating profit by $1 million. The effects of foreign currency exchange rates increased segment operating profit by $1 million in the current year quarter.

North America: Segment operating profit in North America in the second quarter of 2017 was $92 million compared with $92 million in the second quarter of 2016. The decrease in sales volume discussed above decreased segment operating profit in the current year quarter by $7 million. Selling prices were $7 million higher in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter. Operating costs in the second quarter of 2017 were $5 million higher than the same quarter in the prior year and this reduced segment operating profit. Higher cost inflation in the quarter was partially offset by logistics cost reductions, as well as higher equity earnings from the Company's joint venture with Constellation Brands in Mexico. Beginning in the first quarter of 2017, equity earnings from this joint-venture were recorded in the North American region. In prior years, equity earnings from this joint venture were recorded in retained corporate costs and other as the joint venture was mostly in construction mode. In addition, approximately $5 million in gains related to non-strategic asset sales were recognized by the region in the second quarter of 2017.

Latin America: Segment operating profit in Latin America in the second quarter of 2017 was $69 million compared with $57 million in the second quarter of 2016, an increase of $12 million, or 21%. Higher selling prices increased segment operating profit in the current year quarter $9 million. The increase in sales volume discussed above increased segment operating profit by $3 million. The impact of higher cost inflation in the region was fully offset by cost savings achieved in the quarter.

Asia Pacific: Segment operating profit in Asia Pacific in the second quarter of 2017 was $11 million compared with $11 million in the second quarter of 2016. Higher selling prices increased segment operating profit in the second quarter of 2017 by $4 million. The decrease in sales volume discussed above impacted segment operating profit by $2 million. Despite higher production levels and cost containment efforts, cost inflation in the region drove operating costs slightly higher and decreased segment operating profit by $1 million in the quarter. The effects of foreign currency exchange rate changes decreased segment operating profit by $1 million.

Interest Expense, Net

Net interest expense for the second quarter of 2017 was $62 million compared with $67 million for the second quarter of 2016. Net interest expense decreased $5 million in the second quarter of 2017 compared to the same quarter in the prior year due to deleveraging and refinancing actions taken since the second quarter of 2016.

Provision for Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate from continuing operations for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was 5.9% compared with 21.3% for the three months ended June 30, 2016. The effective tax rate for the second quarter of 2017 was lower than the same period in the prior year primarily due to the resolution of a tax matter that resulted in approximately $26 million of tax accruals reversed in the second quarter of 2017.

Earnings from Continuing Operations Attributable to the Company

Edgar Filing: OWENS ILLINOIS INC /DE/ - Form 10-Q

For the second quarter of 2017, the Company recorded earnings from continuing operations attributable to the Company of $140 million, or $0.85 per share (diluted), compared to $107 million, or $0.65 per share (diluted), in the second quarter of 2016. Earnings in the second quarter of 2017 included items that management considered not representative of ongoing operations. These items increased net earnings attributable to the Company by $17 million, or $0.10 per share in the second quarter of 2017 as set forth in the following table (dollars in millions).

Description	Net Earnings Increase (Decrease) 2017

Net sales for the first six months of 2017 were $18 million higher than the same period in the prior year primarily due to higher pricing and sales volumes, partially offset by the unfavorable effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

Earnings from continuing operations decreased $18 million than the same period in the prior year primarily due to higher restructuring, asset impairment and other charges, as well as higher charges related to debt redeemed, partially offset by higher segment operating profit. Segment operating profit for reportable segments for the first six months of 2017 was $26 million higher than the same period in the prior year. In the first six months of 2017, all four regions' segment operating profit exceeded their prior year amounts.

Net interest expense for the first six months of 2017 was $141 million compared with $133 million for the first six months of 2016. Interest expense for 2017 included $17 million due to note repurchase premiums and the write-off of finance fees related to debt redeemed in the first quarter of 2017. Exclusive of these items, net interest expense decreased $9 million in the current year period primarily due to deleveraging and refinancing actions.

Net earnings from continuing operations attributable to the Company for the first six months of 2017 was $188 million, or $1.15 per share (diluted), compared with $175 million, or $1.07 per share (diluted), for the first six months of 2016. #### Net Sales

The Company's net sales in the first six months of 2017 were $3,366 million compared with $3,348 million for the first six months of 2016, an increase of $18 million. Total glass container shipments, in tonnes, were up approximately 1% in the first six months of 2017 compared to the same period in the prior year. However, an unfavorable mix resulted in approximately $2 million of lower sales. Unfavorable foreign currency exchange rates, primarily due to a weaker Euro, Mexican peso, and British pound, impacted sales by $11 million in the first half of 2017 compared to the same period in 2016. Slightly higher selling prices benefited net sales by $27 million in 2017.

The change in net sales of reportable segments can be summarized as follows (dollars in millions):

Reportable segment net sales - 2016		$ 3,314
Price	$ 27
Sales volume and mix	(2)
Effects of changing foreign currency rates	(11)
Total effect on reportable segment net sales	14
Reportable segment net sales - 2017		$ 3,328

Europe: Net sales in Europe in the first six months of 2017 were $1,189 million compared with $1,209 million for the first six months of 2016, a decrease of $20 million, or 2%. Unfavorable foreign currency exchange rate decreased net sales by $28 million, as the Euro and British pound weakened in relation to the U.S. dollar. Net sales were benefited in the first six months of 2017 by a 2% increase in glass container shipments driven by higher shipments to beer customers. This increased net sales by $19 million compared to the prior year period. As a result of the pass through of 2016 cost deflation to customers under contractual price adjustment formulas, selling prices in Europe were $11 million lower in the first six months of 2017 compared to the same period in the prior year.

North America: Net sales in North America in the first six months of 2017 were $1,100 million compared with $1,131 million for the first six months of 2016, a decrease of $31 million, or 3%. Slightly higher selling prices increased net sales by $15 million in the first six months of 2017. However, lower shipments and an unfavorable sales mix resulted in $45 million of lower sales. This impact to sales mix was due to several customers converting a portion of their glass shipments from carton packaging to bulk shipments. Total glass container shipments in the region were 2% lower in the first six months of 2017 compared to the same period in 2016, driven by lower shipments to beer customers. The effects of foreign currency exchange rate changes decreased net sales $1 million in the first six months of 2017 compared to the same period in 2016.

Latin America: Net sales in Latin America in the first six months of 2017 were $711 million compared with $657 million for the first six months of 2016, an increase of $54 million, or 8%. Strong shipments in Mexico offset lower shipments in the other countries in the region. Total glass container shipments in the region were up 4% in the first six months of 2017 compared to the same period in the prior year and this increased sales by $26 million. The favorable effects of foreign currency exchange rate changes increased net sales $10 million in the first half of 2017, principally due to a strengthening of the Brazilian real and Colombian peso in relation to the U.S. dollar. Higher pricing increased net sales by $18 million in the first six months of 2017.

Asia Pacific: Net sales in Asia Pacific in the first six months of 2017 were $328 million compared with $317 million for the first six months of 2016, an increase of $11 million, or 3%. The favorable effects of foreign currency exchange rate changes during the first six months of 2017, primarily due to the strengthening of the Australian dollar and New Zealand dollar in relation to the U.S. dollar, increased net sales by $8 million. Glass container shipments were down 4% in the first half of 2017, primarily due to lower shipments in China, and this contributed to $2 million of lower sales in 2017. The region continues to export production in China to support higher sales in the mature markets, which in turn, led to lower domestic sales in China. Slightly higher selling prices also increased net sales by $5 million in the first six months 2017.

Earnings from Continuing Operations before Income Taxes and Segment Operating Profit

Earnings from continuing operations were $224 million in the first six months of 2017 compared with $242 million for the same period in 2016, a decrease of $18 million, or 7%. This decrease was primarily related to higher restructuring, asset impairment and other charges, as well as higher charges related to debt redeemed in the first quarter of 2017, partially offset by higher segment operating profit.

Operating profit of the reportable segments includes an allocation of some corporate expenses based on both a percentage of sales and direct billings based on the costs of specific services provided. Unallocated corporate expenses and certain other expenses not directly related to the reportable segments' operations are included in Retained corporate costs and other. For further information, see Segment Information included in Note 1 to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Segment operating profit of reportable segments in the first six months of 2017 was $470 million compared with $444 million for the first six months of 2016, an increase of $26 million, or 6%. The increase was largely attributable to higher selling prices, partially offset by the unfavorable effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

The change in segment operating profit of reportable segments can be summarized as follows (dollars in millions):

Reportable segment operating profit - 2016		$ 444
Price	$ 27
Sales volume and mix	1
Operating costs	—
Effects of changing foreign currency rates	(2)
Total net effect on reportable segment operating profit		26
Reportable segment operating profit - 2017		$ 470

Europe: Segment operating profit in Europe in the first six months of 2017 was $139 million compared with $128 million in the first six months of 2016, an increase of $11 million, or 9%. The increase in sales volume discussed above improved segment operating profit by $4 million. Operating costs were $20 million lower in the first six months of 2017 than the prior year period due to logistics savings and other cost reductions. Lower selling prices decreased segment operating profit in the first six months of 2017 by $11 million. The unfavorable effects of foreign currency exchange rates decreased segment operating profit by $2 million in 2017.

North America: Segment operating profit in North America in the first six months of 2017 was $177 million compared with $168 million in the first six months of 2016, an increase of $9 million, or 5%. Selling prices were $15 million higher in the first six months of 2017 compared to the same period in the prior year. In addition, approximately $5 million in gains related to non-strategic asset sales were recognized by the region in the second quarter of 2017. The unfavorable sales mix and lower shipments discussed above decreased segment operating profit by $9 million. Operating costs in the first six months of 2017 were slightly higher than the same period in the prior year and this reduced segment operating profit by $2 million. Higher cost inflation during this period was partially offset by logistics cost reductions, as well as higher equity earnings from the Company's joint venture with Constellation Brands in Mexico. Beginning in the first quarter of 2017, equity earnings from this joint-venture were recorded in the North American region. In prior years, equity earnings from this joint venture were recorded in retained corporate costs and other as the joint venture was mostly in construction mode.

Latin America: Segment operating profit in Latin America in the first six months of 2017 was $123 million compared with $120 million in the first six months of 2016, an increase of $3 million, or 3%. Segment operating profit was impacted by $22 million of higher operating costs, primarily due to substantial cost inflation throughout the region. Partially offsetting these declines were higher selling prices that increased segment operating profit in the first six months of 2017 by $18 million. The increase in sales volume discussed above increased segment operating profit by $7 million.

Asia Pacific: Segment operating profit in Asia Pacific in the first six months of 2017 was $31 million compared with $28 million in the first six months of 2016, an increase of $3 million, or 11%. Higher selling prices increased segment operating profit in the first six months of 2017 by $5 million. The decrease in sales volume discussed above reduced segment operating profit by $1 million. Slightly higher operating costs also reduced segment operating profit by $1 million.

Interest Expense, Net

Net interest expense for the first six months of 2017 was $141 million compared with $133 million for the first six months of 2016. Interest expense for 2017 included $17 million due to note repurchase premiums and the write-off of finance fees related to debt redeemed in the first quarter of 2017. Exclusive of these items, net interest expense decreased $9 million in the current year period primarily due to deleveraging and refinancing actions.

Provision for Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate from continuing operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was 12.5% compared with 23.6% for the six months ended June 30, 2016. The effective tax rate for the first half of 2017 was lower than the same period in the prior year primarily due to the resolution of a tax matter that resulted in approximately $26 million of tax accruals reversed in the second quarter of 2017.

The Company expects that the full year effective tax rate for 2017 will be approximately 23% (excluding items that management considers not representative of ongoing operations).

Earnings from Continuing Operations Attributable to the Company

For the first six months of 2017, the Company recorded earnings from continuing operations attributable to the Company of $188 million, or $1.15 per share (diluted), compared $175 million, or $1.07 per share (diluted), in the first six months of 2016. Earnings in 2017 and 2016 included items that management considered not representative of ongoing operations as set forth in the following table (dollars in millions).

Description	Net Earnings
	Increase (Decrease)
	2017	2016
Restructuring, asset impairment and other charges	$ (49)	$ (19)

Net tax benefit for income tax on items above	12	4
Net impact of noncontrolling interests on items above	4	(2)
Total	$ (30)	$ (10)

Items Excluded from Reportable Segment Totals

Retained Corporate Costs and Other

Retained corporate costs and other for the second quarter of 2017 were $28 million and modestly higher compared with the $25 million recorded in the second quarter of 2016 due to lower equity earnings. For the first six months of 2017, retained corporate costs and other were $56 million compared with $57 million for the same period in 2016.

Restructuring, Asset Impairments and Other Charges

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company recorded restructuring, asset impairment and other charges of $10 million and $49 million, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, these charges primarily consist of employee costs, write-down of assets, and other exit costs in the following regions: Latin America ($33 million), Europe ($13 million) and North America ($3 million). Except for the charges recorded in Europe, the other discrete restructuring charges recorded in 2017 are expected to approximate the total cumulative costs for those actions as no significant additional costs are expected to be incurred. The Company has recorded total cumulative charges of $54 million related to a plant closure in Europe and does not expect to execute any further significant actions related to this facility. The restructuring charges recorded in 2017 in the Latin American and European regions primarily relate to capacity curtailments and products produced at those facilities have, in large part, been reallocated to others in their respective regions. The Company expects that the majority of the remaining cash expenditures related to the above charges will be paid out by the end of 2018.

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company recorded restructuring, asset impairment and other charges of $0 and $19 million, respectively. These charges primarily represented employee costs, write-down of assets, and other exit costs of $14 million for a plant closure in the first quarter of 2016 in Latin America, $3 million related to a previous plant closure in North America, $1 million in Asia Pacific and $1 million related to other restructuring actions. The discrete restructuring charges recorded in the first quarter of 2016 are expected to approximate the total cumulative costs for those actions as no significant additional costs are expected to be incurred. The restructuring charges recorded in the first quarter of 2016 in the Latin American region primarily relate to a capacity curtailment. The Company reallocated the products produced at this facility to others in the region. The Company expects that the majority of the remaining cash expenditures related to the above charges will be paid out by the end of 2017. Partially offsetting the restructuring charges in the first quarter of 2016 was a $7 million gain related to compensation received for land that the Company was required to return to the Chinese government.

See Note 5 to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Discontinued Operations

On April 4, 2016, the annulment committee formed by the World Bank's International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ("ICSID") ruled that OI European Group B.V. ("OIEG"), a subsidiary of the Company, is free to pursue the enforcement of a prior arbitration award (the "Award") against Venezuela. As of June 30, 2017, that Award amounts to more than $500 million, including reimbursement of expenses and accrued interest. Venezuela's application to annul the Award is still pending before an ad hoc committee of the ICSID and a hearing with respect to such application is currently scheduled for September 26-27, 2017.

On July 31, 2017, OIEG sold its right, title and interest in amounts due under the Award to an Ireland-domiciled investment fund. Under the terms of the sale, OIEG received a payment, in cash, at closing equal to $115 million (the "Cash Payment"). OIEG may also receive additional payments in the future ("Deferred Amounts") calculated based on the total compensation that is received from Venezuela as a result of collection efforts or as settlement of the Award with Venezuela. In the event that the Award is partially or completely annulled by the ICSID ad hoc annulment committee, OIEG may be required to repay to the purchaser up to the entire amount of the Cash Payment based on a formula tied to the amount of the Award (if any) that is annulled. In addition, OIEG's right to receive any Deferred Amounts is subject to the limitations described below.

OIEG's interest in any amounts received in the future from Venezuela in respect of the Award is limited to a percentage of such recovery after taking into account reimbursement of the Cash Payment to the purchaser and reimbursement of legal fees and expenses incurred by the Company and the purchaser. OIEG's percentage of such recovery will also be reduced over time. Because the Award has yet to be satisfied, the annulment proceeding is pending, and the ability to successfully enforce the Award in countries that are party to the ICSID Convention is subject to significant challenges, the Company is unable to reasonably predict the amount of recoveries from the Award, if any, to which the Company may be entitled in the future. Any future amounts that the Company may receive from the Award are highly speculative and the timing of any such future payments, if any, is highly uncertain. As such, there can be no assurance that the Company will receive any future payments under the Award beyond the Cash Payment. Except as noted above in connection with the annulment proceeding that is pending before the ICSID ad hoc committee, the Cash Payment is not subject to any forfeiture or future adjustment.

A separate arbitration involving other subsidiaries of the Company is pending before ICSID to obtain compensation primarily for third-party minority shareholders' lost interests in the two expropriated plants.

For the three and six month periods ending June 30, 2017, the Company has not given recognition to the transaction above in its financial statements. The loss from discontinued operations of less than $1 million and $3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and June 30, 2016, respectively, relates to ongoing costs for the Venezuelan expropriation.

Capital Resources and Liquidity

On April 22, 2015, the Company entered into a Senior Secured Credit Facility, which subsequently has been amended several times with the most recent amendment being entered into on February 3, 2016 (the “Amended Agreement”).

At June 30, 2017, the Amended Agreement includes a $300 million revolving credit facility, a $600 million multicurrency revolving credit facility, a $1,575 million term loan A facility ($1,370 million net of debt issuance costs), and a €279 million term loan A facility ($303 million net of debt issuance costs), each of which has a final maturity date of April 22, 2020. At June 30, 2017, the Company had unused credit of $675 million available under the Amended Agreement. The weighted average interest rate on borrowings outstanding under the Amended Agreement at June 30, 2017 was 2.64%.

The Amended Agreement contains various covenants that restrict, among other things and subject to certain exceptions, the ability of the Company to incur certain liens, make certain investments, become liable under contingent obligations in certain defined instances only, make restricted payments, make certain asset sales within guidelines and limits, engage in certain affiliate transactions, participate in sale and leaseback financing arrangements, alter its fundamental business, and amend certain subordinated debt obligations.

The Amended Agreement also contains one financial covenant, a Total Leverage Ratio that requires the Company not to exceed a ratio calculated by dividing consolidated total debt, less cash and cash equivalents, by consolidated EBITDA, as defined in the Amended Agreement. The Total Leverage Ratio could restrict the ability of the Company to undertake additional financing or acquisitions to the extent that such financing or acquisitions would cause the Total Leverage Ratio to exceed the specified maximum of (i) 4.5x for the two fiscal quarters ending June 30, 2017 and September 30, 2017, and (ii) 4.0x for the fourth fiscal quarter ending December 31, 2017 and each fiscal quarter thereafter.

Failure to comply with these covenants and restrictions could result in an event of default under the Amended Agreement. In such an event, the Company would be unable to request borrowings under the revolving facility, and all amounts outstanding under the Amended Agreement, together with accrued interest, could then be declared immediately due and payable. If an event of default occurs under the Amended Agreement and the lenders cause all of the outstanding debt obligations under the Amended Agreement to become due and payable, this would result in a default under a number of other outstanding debt securities and could lead to an acceleration of obligations related to these debt securities. As of June 30, 2017, the Company was in compliance with all covenants and restrictions in the Amended Agreement. In addition, the Company believes that it will remain in compliance and that its ability to borrow funds under the Amended Agreement will not be adversely affected by the covenants and restrictions.

The interest rates on borrowings under the Amended Agreement are, at the Company’s option, the Base Rate or the Eurocurrency Rate, as defined in the Amended Agreement, plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin for the term loan A facility and the revolving credit facility is linked to the Company’s Total Leverage Ratio and ranges from 1.25% to 1.75% for Eurocurrency Rate loans and from 0.25% to 0.75% for Base Rate loans. In addition, a facility fee is payable on the revolving credit facility commitments ranging from 0.20% to 0.30% per annum linked to the Total Leverage Ratio.

Borrowings under the Amended Agreement are secured by substantially all of the assets, excluding real estate and certain other excluded assets, of certain of the Company’s domestic subsidiaries and certain foreign subsidiaries. Borrowings are also secured by a pledge of intercompany debt and equity investments in certain of the Company’s domestic subsidiaries and, in the case of foreign borrowings, of stock of certain foreign subsidiaries. All borrowings under the Amended Agreement are guaranteed by certain domestic subsidiaries of the Company.

During August 2015, the Company issued senior notes with a face value of $700 million that bear interest at 5.875% and are due August 15, 2023 (the “Senior Notes due 2023”) and senior notes with a face value of $300 million that bear interest at 6.375% and are due August 15, 2025 (together with the Senior Notes due 2023, the “2015 Senior Notes”). The 2015 Senior Notes were issued via a private placement and are guaranteed by certain of the Company’s domestic subsidiaries. The net proceeds from the 2015 Senior Notes, after deducting the debt discount and debt issuance costs, totaled approximately $972 million.

During November 2016, the Company issued senior notes with a face value of €500 million that bear interest at 3.125% and are due November 15, 2024 (the “Senior Notes due 2024”). The notes were issued via a private placement and are guaranteed by certain of the Company’s domestic subsidiaries. The net proceeds, after deducting debt issuance costs, totaled approximately $520 million and were used to repay the term loan B facility under the Amended Agreement. In March 2017, the Company expanded its borrowings under the Senior Notes due 2024 by issuing €225 million of additional notes that bear interest at 3.125% and are due November 15, 2024. The notes were issued via a private placement and are guaranteed by certain of the Company's domestic subsidiaries. The net proceeds, after deducting debt issuance costs, totaled approximately $237 million and were used to repay a portion of the Company's revolving credit facility.

In March 2017, the Company purchased in a tender offer approximately $228 million aggregate principal amount of its 7.80% Senior Debentures due in 2018. Approximately $22 million of the Senior Debentures remain outstanding as of June 30, 2017. As part of the tender offer, the Company recorded $17 million of additional interest charges for note repurchase premiums and the related write-off of unamortized finance fees in the first quarter of 2017.

The Company assesses its capital raising and refinancing needs on an ongoing basis and may enter into additional credit facilities and seek to issue equity and/or debt securities in the domestic and international capital markets if market conditions are favorable. Also, depending on market conditions, the Company may elect to repurchase portions of its debt securities in the open market.

The Company has a €185 million European accounts receivable securitization program, which extends through March 2019, subject to periodic renewal of backup credit lines.

Information related to the Company's accounts receivable securitization program is as follows:

	December
	June 30,	31,	June 30,
	2017	2016	2016
Balance (included in short-term loans)	$ 182	$ 152	$ 173
Weighted average interest rate	0.74 %	0.74 %	0.70 %

Cash Flows

Operating activities: Cash utilized in continuing operating activities was $156 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017, compared to $107 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016. The increase in cash utilized in continuing operating activities in the first half of 2017 was primarily due to an increase in working capital of $585 million compared to an increase in working capital of $491 million in the same period in 2016. The increase in working capital was mainly due to higher accounts receivable during the first six months of 2017. Partially offsetting this were higher net earnings and higher non-cash charges, such as restructuring, asset impairment and related charges, in the first six months of 2017.

Investing activities: Cash utilized in investing activities was $205 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017, compared to $190 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016. Capital spending for property, plant and equipment was $186 million during the first six months of 2017 and $207 million in the same period in 2016. Acquisition activities were $27 million and $31 million in the first six months of 2017 and 2016, respectively, and were primarily related to contributions made to the Company's investment in a joint venture in Nava, Mexico.

Financing activities: Cash provided by financing activities was $185 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017, compared to $238 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016. The decrease in cash provided by financing activities was primarily due to lower net borrowings and the payment of $21 million of finance fees in the first six months of 2017, principally related to note repurchase premiums associated with the tender offer to purchase the 2018 Senior Debentures.

The Company anticipates that cash flows from its operations and from utilization of credit available under the Agreement will be sufficient to fund its operating and seasonal working capital needs, debt service and other obligations on a short-term (twelve-months) and long-term basis. Based on the Company's expectations regarding future payments for lawsuits and claims and also based on the Company's expected operating cash flow, the Company believes that the payment of any deferred amounts of previously settled or otherwise determined lawsuits and claims, and the resolution of presently pending and anticipated future lawsuits and claims associated with asbestos, will not have a material adverse effect upon the Company's liquidity on a short-term or long-term basis.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The Company's analysis and discussion of its financial condition and results of operations are based upon its consolidated financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("U.S. GAAP"). The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. The Company evaluates these estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis. Estimates and assumptions are based on historical and other factors believed to be reasonable under the circumstances at the time the financial statements are issued. The results of these estimates may form the basis of the carrying value of certain assets and liabilities and may not be readily apparent from other sources. Actual results, under conditions and circumstances different from those assumed, may differ from estimates.

The impact of, and any associated risks related to, estimates and assumptions are discussed within Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, as well as in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements, if applicable, where estimates and assumptions affect the Company's reported and expected financial results.

There have been no other material changes in critical accounting estimates at June 30, 2017 from those described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains "forward-looking" statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933. Forward-looking statements reflect the Company's current expectations and projections about future events at the time, and thus involve uncertainty and risk. The words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "will," "could," "would," "should," "may," "plan," "estimate," "predict," "potential," "continue," and the negatives of these words and other similar expressions generally identify forward-looking statements. It is possible the Company's future financial performance may differ from expectations due to a variety of factors including, but not limited to the following: (1) the Company's ability to realize expected growth opportunities, cost savings and synergies from the Vitro Acquisition, (2) foreign currency fluctuations relative to the U.S. dollar, (3) changes in capital availability or cost, including interest rate fluctuations and the ability of the Company to refinance debt at favorable terms, (4) the general political, economic and competitive conditions in markets and countries where the Company has operations, including uncertainties related to economic and social conditions, disruptions in capital markets, disruptions in the supply chain, competitive pricing pressures, inflation or deflation, and changes in tax rates and laws, (5) the Company's ability to generate sufficient future cash flows to ensure the Company's goodwill is not impaired, (6) consumer preferences for alternative forms of packaging, (7) cost and availability of raw materials, labor, energy and transportation, (8) the Company's ability to manage its cost structure, including its success in implementing restructuring plans and achieving cost savings, (9) consolidation among competitors and customers, (10) the Company's ability to acquire businesses and expand plants, integrate operations of acquired businesses and achieve expected synergies, (11) unanticipated expenditures with respect to environmental, safety and health laws, (12) the Company's ability to further develop its sales, marketing and product development capabilities, (13) the Company's ability to prevent and detect cybersecurity threats against its information technology systems, (14) the Company's ability to accurately estimate its total asbestos-related liability or to control the timing and occurrence of events related to asbestos-related claims, (15) changes in U.S. trade policies, (16) the Company's ability to achieve its strategic plan, and the other risk factors discussed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and any subsequently filed Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. It is not possible to foresee or identify all such factors. Any forward-looking statements in this document are based on certain assumptions and analyses made by the Company in light of its experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions, expected future developments, and other factors it believes are appropriate in the circumstances. Forward-looking statements are not a guarantee of future performance and actual results or developments may differ materially from expectations. While the Company continually reviews trends and uncertainties affecting the Company's results of operations and financial condition, the Company does not assume any obligation to update or supplement any particular forward-looking statements contained in this document.

In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management is required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures. Also, the Company has investments in certain unconsolidated entities. As the Company does not control or manage these entities, its disclosure controls and procedures with respect to such entities are necessarily substantially more limited than those maintained with respect to its consolidated subsidiaries.

As required by Rule 13a-15(b) of the Exchange Act, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. As required by Rule 13a-15(d) of the Exchange Act, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of any change in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.
