Item 8.01 Other Events.

In its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015, Humana Inc. (the “Company”) disclosed that all material contracts between Humana and CMS relating to the company’s Medicare products had been renewed for 2016. The Company is now reporting that all of its 2016 Medicare Advantage (“MA”) and Prescription Drug Plan (“PDP”) offerings filed with The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (“CMS”) in June 2015 have been approved by CMS and the related contracts have been executed (referred to as the “CMS Contracts”).

Humana will offer the following plans for its Medicare members effective beginning January 1, 2016:

- Medicare Advantage Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) plans in 848 counties across 39 states and Puerto Rico;
- Local Medicare Advantage Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) plans in 1,595 counties across 40 states and Puerto Rico;
  - Regional Medicare Advantage PPO plans in 23 states across 14 Medicare Advantage regions;
- The following Medicare Advantage Private Fee-for-Service (PFFS) plans, the network arrangements for which are mutually exclusive and are not offered in overlapping service areas:
  - o Full network in 968 counties in 32 states. All services are available in and out of network, taking full advantage of any Humana contracted discounts when the member uses in network providers.
    - o Partial network (for certain services such as lab, DME and/or home health) in 273 counties in 8 states.
  - Medicare Prescription Drug Plans (PDP) statewide in 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

The marketing process for the Company’s 2015 Medicare offerings begins on October 1, 2015, with enrollment beginning October 15, 2015.

Each of the CMS Contracts was effective when signed, has a termination date of December 31, 2016 and may be renewed for successive one-year terms subject to the consent of the parties and their agreement on a bid as submitted by Humana or its subsidiaries. Each of the CMS Contracts may be terminated by either party in the event of the failure by the other to substantially carry out its obligations under the CMS Contracts, and by CMS in the event of a violation by Humana of relevant CMS regulations.
