Geneve Corporation Proposes to Acquire The Aristotle Corporation

Stamford, CT, May 22, 2006 - The Aristotle Corporation (NASDAQ: ARTL; ARTLP) announced today that it has received a proposal from Geneve Corporation, the holder of approximately 93% of Aristotle's Common Stock and 100% of Aristotle's Series J Preferred Stock, to acquire in a merger transaction (i) the balance of the outstanding shares of Aristotle's Common Stock for a cash purchase price of $8.06 per share and (ii) all of the outstanding shares of Aristotle's Series I Preferred Stock for a cash price of $8.25 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends to the closing date. All shares of Common Stock and Series I Preferred Stock issuable under outstanding employee stock options would also be acquired on the same basis, less the option exercise price. Geneve has requested that the Board of Directors of Aristotle establish a special committee comprised of Aristotle's four independent directors to consider Geneve's proposal.

Geneve's proposal is subject to certain conditions, including: (i) execution of a definitive merger agreement, (ii) approval of the proposed transaction by the special committee, (iii) receipt of required stockholder approval and (iv) receipt of required regulatory approvals. Geneve has indicated that its proposal is not subject to a financing contingency, and that it does not expect to entertain an offer for its ownership interests in Aristotle.

There are currently outstanding approximately 1,300,000 shares of Aristotle's Common Stock and 1,100,000 shares of Aristotle's Series I Preferred Stock, all of which shares are held by stockholders other than Geneve; the stated value of the Series I Preferred Stock is $6.6 million. Geneve informed the Aristotle Board of Directors that it has entered into an agreement with John J. Crawford, the former CEO and a former director of Aristotle, related to its proposal.

Pursuant to the agreement, among other things, Mr. Crawford has agreed to vote in favor of the Geneve proposal, if the proposal is recommended by a special committee of Aristotle's Board of Directors. Mr. Crawford currently holds 102,403 shares of Common Stock and 62,843 shares of Series I Preferred Stock.

Aristotle stockholders and others considering trading in Aristotle's securities are advised that (i) Aristotle's Board of Directors has just received Geneve's proposal, (ii) no decisions have yet been made in respect of Geneve's proposal, (iii) Aristotle's Board of Directors will proceed in an orderly and timely manner to consider Geneve's proposal and (v) there can be no assurance that the proposed transaction or any other transaction will be approved or completed.

Copies of (a) Geneve's proposal to Aristotle's Board of Directors and (b) the agreement between Geneve and John J. Crawford are exhibits to a Schedule 13D amendment to be filed by Geneve with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

About Aristotle
