ITEM 2.01 COMPLETION OF ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

As previously disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 13, 2009, Navistar International Corporation (“Navistar”) issued a press release announcing that it and Ford Motor Company (“Ford”) reached an agreement to restructure their ongoing business relationship and settle all existing litigation between the companies.

As part of the settlement agreement, both companies agreed to terminate their respective lawsuits and release each other from various actual and potential claims, including those brought in the lawsuits. Navistar also received a cash payment from Ford and will increase its equity interest in its Blue Diamond Truck (“BDT”) and Blue Diamond Parts (“BDP”) joint ventures with Ford to 75%. Finally, Navistar and Ford will end their current diesel engine supply agreement effective December 31, 2009.

On June 9, 2009, pursuant to the provisions of the settlement agreement, Navistar entered into the Fifth Amendment to the Blue Diamond Joint Venture Agreement with Ford whereby Navistar increased its equity interest in BDP from 49% to 75% as well as increased its equity interest in BDT from 51% to 75%. The receipt of additional equity interest from Ford was among the various components of the settlement agreement, and no additional consideration was paid to Ford in connection with the increase in equity interest in BDT or BDP. The acquisition of the additional equity interest in BDP was considered significant pursuant to the quantitative tests in Rule 11-01(b) of Regulation S-X under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Forward Looking Statements

Information provided and statements contained in this report that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements only speak as of the date of this report and the Company assumes no obligation to update the information included in this report. Such forward-looking statements include information concerning our possible or assumed future results of operations, including descriptions of our business strategy. These statements often include words such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “estimate,” or similar expressions. These statements are not guarantees of performance or results and they involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. For a further description of these factors, see Item 1A, Risk Factors, of our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2008, which was filed on December 30, 2008, and Item 1A, Risk Factors, included within our Form 10-Q for the period ended April 30, 2009, which was filed on June 8, 2009. Although we believe that these forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, there are many factors that could affect our actual financial results or results of operations and could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. All future written and oral forward-looking statements by us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to above. Except for our ongoing obligations to disclose material information as required by the federal securities laws, we do not have any obligations or intention to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances in the future or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
