RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the company recommends the common shareholders vote FOR Philip S. Payne and Stephen R. Blank as directors to hold office for the three-year terms, expiring at the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

The Board of Directors of the company recommends the holders of Series B Preferred stock vote FOR Peter J. Weidhorn as the Series B director for a one-year term until the next annual meeting, or until his successor is elected and qualified.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Board of Directors met eight times during the year ended December 31, 2003, including five meetings held by telephone. The independent members of the Board met in executive session during each in-person meeting of the Board.

The rules of the American Stock Exchange require that at least a majority of the members of the Board must be independent as defined in such rules. With the exception of Philip S. Payne, our Chairman, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, and D. Scott Wilkerson, our President and Chief Executive Officer, our Board has affirmatively determined that the remaining members of our Board are independent as required by the rules of the American Stock Exchange and that a majority of the Board is therefore comprised of independent directors.

BOARD COMMITTEES AND MEETINGS

The Board of Directors has three standing committees - the Audit Committee, the Management Compensation Committee and the Nominating Committee. Each of these committees has a written charter approved by the Board. A copy of each charter may be found on our website at www.bnp-residential.com (select Corporate Information, then Corporate Governance, then Board Committees). In addition, a copy of the charter for the Audit Committee is included in Exhibit A to this proxy statement.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee currently consists of Messrs. Blank (Chairman), Gilley and Weidhorn. The committee recommends to the Board of Directors the engagement of the independent public accountants of the company and reviews with the independent public accountants the scope and results of the company's audits and the company's internal accounting controls. During 2003, the Audit Committee held seven meetings, including four meetings held by telephone.

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Our Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Blank and Weidhorn qualify as "audit committee financial experts" as defined by SEC regulations. All three members are considered "independent" and "financially literate" under the rules of the American Stock Exchange. Messrs. Blank's and Weidhorn's relevant experience is described above in the biographical information for each.

Management Compensation Committee

The Management Compensation Committee currently consists of Messrs. Chrysson (Chairman), Blank and Weidhorn. All three members are considered "independent" under the rules of the American Stock Exchange. The committee is responsible for ensuring that a proper system of short- and long-term compensation is in place to provide performance-oriented incentives to management. During 2003, the Management Compensation Committee held one meeting.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee currently consists of Messrs. Weidhorn (Chairman), Blank and Chrysson. All three members are considered "independent" under the rules of the American Stock Exchange. The committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors as to changes in size, composition, organization and operational structure of the Board and its committees; makes recommendations to the Board with respect to director nominees and nominees for appointment as members of the respective committees of the Board; and on an annual basis reports to the Board with an assessment of the Board's performance. The Nominating Committee was constituted in November 2003, and the Committee held no meetings during 2003. Prior to this time, the entire Board fulfilled the nominating committee function for the company.

In identifying potential candidates for nomination as a director, the Nominating Committee may use a variety of resources--recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer, current Board members and contacts in the communities served by the company. The Nominating Committee also has the sole authority to retain and terminate any outside search firm it may deem appropriate. The Nominating Committee has not yet adopted specific criteria or qualifications for being named as a director of the company.

The Nominating Committee does not currently have a policy for the consideration of director candidates recommended by shareholders. While the Board will continue to evaluate the necessity of such a policy, the Board does not currently feel such a policy is appropriate because shareholders may name nominees for election to the Board in accordance with our by-laws.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

During 2003, we paid directors' fees to each director who is not an executive officer of the company. During the year ended December 31, 2003, Messrs. Blank, Boddie, Chrysson, Gilley, and Weidhorn were each paid annual retainers of $10,000 plus fees totaling $3,400 each for participation in board meetings. In addition, Messrs. Blank, Gilley and Weidhorn each received approximately $200 for participation in Audit Committee meetings. Messrs. Wilkerson and Payne did not receive any compensation for their service as directors.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Our Management Compensation Committee consists of Messrs. Blank, Weidhorn and Chrysson. We sold 454,545 shares of preferred stock to an affiliate of Mr. Weidhorn in 2003. The description of this transaction is set forth under "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions - BNP Residential Properties, Inc. and Preferred Investment I, LLC," which is included here by incorporation by reference to that section in this proxy statement. We earned property management fees from affiliates of Messrs. Chrysson and Gilley in 2003. This relationship is described under "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions - BNP Residential Properties, Inc. and the Chrysson Parties," which is included here by incorporation by reference to that section in this proxy statement.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH DIRECTORS

Shareholders who wish to contact any of our directors, either individually or as a group, may do so by writing to them c/o Corporate Secretary, BNP Residential Properties, Inc., 301 S. College Street, Suite 3850, Charlotte, North Carolina 28202. Shareholder letters are screened by company personnel to filter out improper or irrelevant topics, such as solicitations. Correspondence involving an ordinary business matter will be forwarded to the company's management for handling to allow timely response to such matters. All other correspondence will be forwarded to the director to whom it was addressed. If no particular director is named, the communication will be forwarded to the appropriate committee chair depending on the subject matter. Any communication to the Board may be sent to management to enable the company to research and assist in responding to the concern as appropriate.

CODE OF ETHICS

Our Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Conduct and Business Ethics that is applicable to all directors, officers and employees of the company. EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS AND TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE-IN-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

In July 1997, we entered into substantially identical employment agreements with D. Scott Wilkerson (Director, President and Chief Executive Officer) and Philip S. Payne (Chairman, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer). The term of the agreements is four years, subject to automatic annual renewal for additional one-year periods extending the term to a maximum of ten years. The agreements provide for initial annual base salaries of $139,920, annual discretionary bonuses as determined by the Board of Directors and participation in an incentive compensation plan, along with specified death and disability benefits. The agreements provide for severance payments equal to the then-current base salary for the remaining term of the contract (excluding any unexercised renewal periods) in the event of termination without cause. In the event of a change in control of the company, the agreements provide for payments of three times base salary then in effect and three times average discretionary bonus and annual bonus over the prior three fiscal years. In addition, the agreements provide for a lump-sum cash payment of the benefit the executive would otherwise have received had all stock options and other stock-based compensation been fully vested, been exercised and become due and payable.

In July 1997, we entered into an employment agreement with Pamela B. Bruno

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

(Vice President, Chief Accounting Officer). The two-year agreement (with automatic annual renewal periods) is substantially identical to the agreements signed by Messrs. Wilkerson and Payne, except that this agreement provides for an initial annual base salary of $90,000 and limits severance payments to no more than the greater of the then-remaining term of the agreement or one year's total compensation.

In December 2002, we entered into an employment agreement with Eric S. Rohm (Vice President, General Counsel). The two-year agreement (with automatic annual renewal periods) is substantially identical to the agreement signed by Ms. Bruno, except that this agreement provides for an initial annual base salary of $140,000.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES, INC. AND PREFERRED INVESTMENT I, LLC

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

In December 2001, we issued 227,273 shares of Series B Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock to Preferred Investment I, LLC for net proceeds of approximately $2.3 million. In September 2002, we issued 227,272 shares of this preferred stock for net proceeds of approximately $2.4 million; and in September 2003, we issued 454,545 shares of this preferred stock for net proceeds of approximately $4.9 million.

In connection with this investment, Peter J. Weidhorn, the managing member of Preferred Investment I, LLC serves on our Board of Directors as the Series B Director.

The preferred shares have a purchase price and liquidation preference of $11.00 per share. The agreement provides for an initial dividend yield of 10% through December 2009, then 12% for two years, and thereafter the greater of 14% or 900 basis points over the 5-year Treasury rate. Preferred Investment I, LLC will have the right to convert each Series B share into one share of the company's common stock after three years or in certain circumstances, such as a change of control or if the company calls the Series B stock for redemption. We have the right to call the Series B Preferred Stock for redemption at any time at a price determined by a formula set forth in the certificate of designation that sets forth the rights and preferences of the Series B Preferred Stock. The holders of preferred shares are generally not entitled to vote on matters submitted to common shareholders. Dividends on preferred shares are subject to declaration by the Board of Directors. But if we fail to pay dividends on the Series B Preferred stock for two consecutive quarters, the holders of the Series B Preferred stock will be entitled to elect at least one-third of our directors, and certain company actions will require at least a two-thirds majority.

BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES, INC. AND BODDIE-NOELL ENTERPRISES, INC.

We lease 40 restaurant properties to Boddie-Noell Enterprises, Inc. ("Enterprises") under a master lease on a triple-net basis.

B. Mayo Boddie, Chairman Emeritus of our Board of Directors, is Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Enterprises. Mr. Boddie and certain of his family members are the sole owners of Enterprises.

Douglas E. Anderson has served as Vice President and Secretary of our company since our inception in 1987. He has been with Enterprises since 1977 and is currently a director, executive vice president and secretary of Enterprises. Mr. Anderson is also president of BNE Land and Development Company, the real estate development division of Enterprises.

The lease agreement with Enterprises has a primary term expiring in December 2007, but grants Enterprises three five-year renewal options. Enterprises pays annual rent equal to the greater of the specified minimum rent or 9.875% of food sales from the restaurants. Under certain conditions as defined in the agreement, both Enterprises and the company have the right to substitute another restaurant property for a property covered by the lease. Assuming renewal of the lease, after December 31, 2007, Enterprises has the right to terminate the lease on up to five restaurant properties per year by offering to purchase them under specified terms.

In addition, we entered into a separate agreement with Enterprises that, after December 31, 1997, allowed Enterprises to purchase, under specified terms, up to seven restaurant properties deemed non-economic. During 2003 we sold two restaurants to Enterprises under this agreement for their net carrying values, totaling approximately $1.2 million. We previously sold one restaurant in 2001 and four restaurants in previous years to Enterprises under this clause.

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

The lease requires Enterprises to pay monthly installments of minimum rent and quarterly payments calculated based on the percentage rent, subject to an annual calculation of the greater of minimum or percentage rent. We received the minimum rent in 2003, 2002 and 2001. We expect annual minimum rent will be approximately $3.8 million in years 2004 through 2007.

BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES, INC. AND BODDIE INVESTMENT COMPANY

We provide fee management for three limited partnerships, of which Boddie Investment Company is the general partner, and the apartment communities owned by those partnerships. We recorded fee revenues totaling $407,000 from these limited partnerships in 2003.

In February 1997, we entered into a participating loan agreement with The Villages of Chapel Hill Limited Partnership, a limited partnership whose general partner is Boddie Investment Company. We advanced The Villages $2.5 million, of which $1.9 million was repaid in February 1999, and $500,000 was repaid in February 2000. We also provided, until July 2001, a guarantee of $1.5 million on a note payable by The Villages to a bank. In July 2001, we modified the participating loan agreement to establish a $950,000 "fixed portion" of our participation. Required payment of the fixed portion is subject to cash flow from The Villages property, as defined in the agreement. During 2003, we earned $59,000 in interest and fees related to this participating loan agreement.

Mr. Boddie is a shareholder and director of Boddie Investment Company. Mr. Anderson is vice president and secretary of Boddie Investment Company.

BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES, INC. AND THE CHRYSSEY PARTIES

In previous years, we have acquired eight apartment communities and have issued approximately 1.5 million Operating Partnership common units to members of a group that we refer to as the Chrysson Parties. In addition, we provide fee management of several apartment communities owned by the Chrysson Parties. We recorded fee revenues totaling $144,000 from these communities in 2003.

Paul G. Chrysson and W. Michael Gilley serve on our Board of Directors.

NOTES RECEIVABLE FROM MANAGEMENT

In 1996 through 1999, Messrs. Wilkerson and Payne each borrowed $70,000 on an interest-free basis from the company. The loans are secured by shares of the company's common stock and are payable in full six months after termination of employment.

APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Board of Directors of the company, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, has reappointed Ernst & Young LLP to serve as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004. We have procedures in place to ensure that our Audit Committee pre-approves all engagements of Ernst & Young LLP for audit-related, tax and other services. Ernst & Young has served as our independent auditors since October 1996 and is considered by the Audit Committee and management to be well qualified.

Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be available at the annual meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire, and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Ernst & Young has advised us that neither it nor any member thereof has any financial interest, direct or indirect, in the company or any of its subsidiaries in any capacity.

The following table reflects fees billed by Ernst & Young LLP for services rendered to the company and its subsidiaries in 2003 and 2002. The Audit Committee approved 100% of such fees.

OTHER MATTERS

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Based solely on a review of the copies of the forms in its possession, and on written representations from certain reporting persons, the company believes that during 2003 all of its executive officers and directors filed the reports required under Section 16(a) on a timely basis, except that B. Mayo Boddie failed to file timely one Form 4 covering one transaction.

Delivery of Proxy Materials

Only one annual report for 2003 and proxy statement for the 2004 annual meeting is being delivered to multiple shareholders of record who share the same address and last name unless the company received contrary instructions from the affected shareholder. This practice is known as "householding." The company has been notified that certain brokers and banks that hold stock for their customers will also household annual reports and proxy statements. Each shareholder who resides at a householded address will be mailed a separate proxy card. The company will promptly deliver a separate paper copy of the annual report and proxy statement to a shareholder at a shared address to which to single copy of these documents was delivered upon receiving oral or written request from the shareholder. Oral notice should be made to our Investor Relations officer at 704/944-0100; written notice should be sent to BNP Residential Properties, Inc., Attn: Investor Relations, 301 S. College Street, Suite 3850, Charlotte, North Carolina 28202. Any shareholders of record sharing an address who now receive multiple copies of the company's annual report and proxy statement and who wish to receive only one copy of these materials per household in the future should likewise contact the company by telephone or mail as instructed above.

PROPOSALS OF SHAREHOLDERS FOR 2005 ANNUAL MEETING

Any proposals by holders of common shares for inclusion in proxy solicitation material for the next annual meeting must be received at the BNP Residential Properties, Inc. executive offices no later than December 15, 2004. However, if we hold our 2005 annual meeting before April 20 or after June 19, shareholders must submit proposals for inclusion in our 2005 proxy statement within a reasonable time before we begin to print our proxy materials.

If a common shareholder wishes to present a proposal at the 2005 annual meeting, whether or not the proposal is intended to be included in the 2005 proxy material, our bylaws require that the shareholder give advance written notice to the secretary of the company by February 18, 2005.

If a shareholder is permitted to present a proposal at the 2005 annual meeting but the proposal was not included in the 2005 proxy material, we believe that our proxy holder would have the discretionary authority expected to be granted by the proxy card (and as permitted under SEC rules) to vote on the proposal if the proposal was received after March 1, 2005, which is 45 calendar days prior to the anniversary of the mailing of this proxy statement.

PROXY SOLICITATION

We may also solicit proxies by personal interview or telephone. In addition to directors or officers of the company, certain independent solicitation agents may solicit proxies. We have retained Corporate Communications, Inc. and Wachovia Bank, N.A. to assist in identifying and contacting shareholders for soliciting proxies. We expect the cost of these services to be approximately $7,500, exclusive of certain other fees we pay to Wachovia Bank and Corporate Communications, Inc. related to the meeting. BNP Residential Properties, Inc. will bear the costs of this solicitation.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. The activities of the Audit Committee are governed by a written charter. The Board of Directors amended its charter for the Audit Committee in May 2003, a copy of which is included as Exhibit A to this proxy statement.

Management has the primary responsibility for BNP's financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling our oversight responsibilities, we reviewed with management each of the unaudited quarterly financial statements and the audited financial statements included in our Annual Report. As part of each review, we discussed with management the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. We reviewed with the independent auditors their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the company's accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements, and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, we have discussed with the independent auditors their independence from management and the company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," and we considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

We discussed with the company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for the audit. We met with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the company's financial reporting. The committee held seven meetings during fiscal 2003.

We relied on the reviews and discussions referred to above. Based on this reliance, we recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board has approved, that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We recommended, and the Board approved, the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004.

The Audit Committee consists entirely of non-employee directors who are independent, as defined in Section 121(A) of the American Stock Exchange's listing standards.

Management Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Management Compensation Committee is providing this report to assist shareholders in understanding our objectives in establishing the compensation of our executive officers. The Management Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing and administering the company's executive compensation plan.

We believe that the executive officers' compensation should:

- o Link rewards to business results and shareholder returns;
- o Encourage creation of shareholder value and achievement of strategic objectives;
- o Maintain an appropriate balance between base salary and short- and long-term incentive opportunity;
- o Attract and retain, on a long-term basis, high-caliber personnel; and
- o Provide total compensation opportunity that is competitive with other REITs, taking into account relative company size and performance, as well as individual responsibilities and performances.

Edgar Filing: BNP RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

There are three key components to the executive compensation program: base pay, short-term incentives and long-term incentives.

Base pay for the executive officers is designed to be competitive with that paid by other REITs, considering the size of the company and individual responsibilities and performance. We review base pay for the executive officers annually.

We base short-term incentives, generally cash payments, on the attainment of certain targeted performance results. These targets include measures such as total shareholder return, operating earnings, funds from operations, cash flow and increasing the size and diversity of our portfolio. Individual awards depend on our assessments of individual performance and the company's success in meeting the specified targets.

Long-term incentives may include a variety of incentives, including stock options, stock appreciation rights, phantom stock and direct grants of the company's stock. The company has reserved 570,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the Stock Option and Incentive Plan that was adopted in 1994. As of December 31, 2003, options for 477,500 shares of common stock were outstanding.

2003 Compensation of the CEO

D. Scott Wilkerson became president of the company on October 1, 1994, and was named chief executive officer in April 1995. Mr. Wilkerson's employment contract, effective July 1997, provides for an initial base salary of $139,920, annual discretionary bonuses, and participation in an incentive compensation plan. The Management Compensation Committee determined Mr. Wilkerson's 2003 base salary of $225,000 in the same manner as described above for other executive officers.

STOCK PRICE PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following stock price performance graph compares the company's performance to the S&P 500 and the index of equity REITs prepared by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts ("NAREIT") for the last five years. The stock price performance graph assumes an initial investment on December 31, 1998, of $100 in the company and the two indexes, and further assumes the reinvestment of all dividends.

Equity REITs are defined as those that derive more than 75% of their income from equity investments in real estate assets. The NAREIT equity index includes all tax qualified real estate investment trusts listed on the New York Stock Exchange, American Stock Exchange and NASDAQ National Market System. Stock
