Magic Software Announces Alliance with BigMachines

Application and Integration Platform Provider Offers Integration Services for Leader in Sales Configuration, Pricing and Quoting, and Proposal Generation

Or-Yehuda, Israel May 5, 2011 Magic Software Enterprises Ltd. (NASDAQ: MGIC), a global provider of cloud and on-premise application platform and business integration solutions and BigMachines, the leader in product configuration, pricing and quoting, proposal generation and B2B ecommerce, today announced an alliance focused on integration services for the BigMachines Selling Platform. BigMachines provides a web-based platform that empowers sales teams and channels to sell more and sell faster with solutions that simplify the configuration of products and services, generating 100 percent accurate quotes and branded proposals, and eliminating pricing errors. By integrating seamlessly with CRM, ERP, and other enterprise systems, BigMachines ensures accurate data flow throughout the enterprise. Magic Software's integration platform offers BigMachines' customers an integration path to ERP, CRM, and other enterprise systems in real time.

"Using iBOLT, we can offer a new option for our customers to integrate the BigMachines Selling Platform with business systems such as SAP, Salesforce CRM, Oracle JD Edwards, Lotus, Microsoft Dynamics CRM, SharePoint, and others. Customers are demanding simplified integration and optimized business processes, and the alliance between BigMachines and Magic Software delivers that," said Matt Gorniak, Senior Vice President of Sales and Alliances at BigMachines.

Guy Bernstein, Chief Executive Officer of Magic Software, added: Working together, BigMachines and Magic Software can help customers optimize business processes to help them sell more and sell faster with BigMachine's pricing and configuration options, expanded mobile approval capabilities, updated CRM information, and additional administration controls. We are excited to be adding a leading ISV in the United States to our large and growing list of partners around the world.

iBOLT simplifies integration of business applications used for enterprise resource planning (ERP), customer relationship management (CRM), logistics, supply chain management, and other enterprise systems.
