ITEM 1.01. Conflict Minerals Disclosure and Report

Conflict Minerals Disclosure:

(a) The Buckle, Inc. ("Buckle") is a retailer of medium to better-priced casual apparel, footwear, and accessories for fashion-conscious young men and women. As of May 31, 2016, Buckle operated 467 retail stores in 44 states throughout the United States under the names "Buckle" and "The Buckle." Buckle markets a wide selection of mostly brand name casual apparel including denims, other casual bottoms, tops, sportswear, outerwear, accessories, and footwear. Buckle emphasizes personalized attention to its customers and provides customer services such as free hemming, free gift-wrapping, easy layaways, the Buckle private label credit card, and a frequent shopper program. Most stores are located in regional, high-traffic shopping malls and lifestyle centers, and this is Buckle's strategy for future expansion. The majority of Buckle's central office functions, including purchasing, pricing, accounting, advertising, and distribution, are controlled from its headquarters and distribution center in Kearney, Nebraska. Buckle's men's buying team and a portion of its marketing team are located in Overland Park, Kansas.

All references herein to "Buckle" refer to The Buckle, Inc. and its subsidiary, Buckle Brands, Inc.

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, Buckle makes the following disclosures regarding its due diligence efforts and their results:

Buckle has conducted in good faith a reasonable country of origin inquiry ("RCOI") regarding any conflict minerals that are necessary to the functionality or production of a product manufactured or contracted to be manufactured by Buckle ("Conflict Minerals") to determine whether any of those Conflict Minerals originated in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country or are from recycled or scrap sources. In accordance with Buckle's Conflict Minerals Policy, and in efforts to determine the mine or location of origin of its Conflict Minerals, Buckle's suppliers were required to complete, based on the information each supplier was able to obtain from its own suppliers and factories, the Conflict Free Sourcing Initiative's Conflict Minerals Reporting Template that was created by the Electronic Industry Citizenship Coalition and the Global e-Sustainability Initiative (EICC-GeSI Template).

Based on the results of Buckle's RCOI conducted for calendar year 2015, Buckle has no reason to believe that its necessary Conflict Minerals, tin and gold, originated in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country or may not be from scrap or recycled sources. As such, a Conflict Minerals Report and independent private sector audit was not required.

(b) The disclosure provided in this Form SD is publicly available on Buckle's website at www.buckle.com. The information on Buckle's website is not, and will not be, deemed to be a part of this Form SD or any other filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission unless Buckle expressly incorporates such information.
