RAMI DORON APPOINTED AS CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER OF SAPIENS

Doron, a founder of TTI Telecom and recently a leader of a large Business Unit at Comverse, will be responsible for worldwide development and projects

Cary, NC February 6, 2007 - Sapiens International Corporation N.V. (NASDAQ and TASE: SPNS) a member of the Formula Group (NASDAQ: FORTY and TASE: FORT), today announced the appointment of Mr. Rami Doron to serve as Chief Operating Officer of the Company. The decision to appoint Mr. Doron is a product of the Company's turn-around plan implemented by President and CEO, Mr. Roni Al-Dor.

The Company's turn-around plan focuses on efficiency and cost-cutting. In addition, the Company has moved to a model of centralized control and management in order to maximize cooperation between the Company's worldwide subsidiaries and to enable the Company to provide complex software solutions for the Company's insurance customers.

Until recently, Mr. Doron led a large Business Unit at Comverse. Prior to that, Mr. Doron served for 12 years as a senior vice president at TTI Telecom, where he was responsible for Professional Services, Research and Development, and sales to existing customers.

Mr. Al-Dor, President and CEO of Sapiens International, commented, "I have known Rami Doron for many years, and I have personally observed his leadership abilities and his successes in project management. He has over 20 years of international experience in the software world. I wish Rami much success in his new position and am confident that he will contribute a lot to Sapiens and that he will be a central figure in the achievement of the Company's goals and its continued penetration into the worldwide market of software solutions for the insurance industry."
