EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Registration Statement is being filed for the purpose of registering shares of the Registrant's common stock that may be issued to participants under the Registrant's 2008 Incentive Plan and the Registrant's 2008 Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

The maximum number of shares of common stock reserved and available for issuance under the 2008 Incentive Plan includes 3,650,000 shares plus shares available for issuance but not subject to outstanding awards under the Prior Plans as of May 23, 2008, the effective date of the 2008 Incentive Plan. As of May 23, 2008, 1,941,357 such shares remained available under the Prior Plans, all of which were previously registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") on Form S-8 Registration Statements. Such shares are now covered by this Registration Statement in connection with the 2008 Incentive Plan. Post-effective amendments to the Form S-8 Registration Statements for the Prior Plans are being filed contemporaneously with this Registration Statement to deregister such shares under those Registration Statements. Additional shares reserved for issuance under the Prior Plans may become available for issuance in the future under the 2008 Incentive Plan as the result of the forfeiture, cancellation or termination of awards outstanding under the Prior Plans (other than by exercise or settlement of the awards in vested and nonforfeitable shares), and any such additional shares will be included in the shares reserved for issuance under the 2008 Incentive Plan and will be registered on one or more future Form S-8 Registration Statements.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article XII of the Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, in accordance with Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL), provides that the Registrant will in accordance with its By-Laws indemnify, to the full extent permitted by the DGCL, its directors and officers, as well as anyone serving at the Registrant's request as a director, officer or employee of another entity. Article XII further permits the Registrant to indemnify other persons as provided in its By-Laws.

Article VI of the Registrant's By-Laws provides that directors and officers shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation a derivative action) if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. A similar standard of care is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification only extends to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such an action. Moreover, the DGCL requires court approval before there can be any indemnification where the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to the corporation.

Article VI of the Registrant's By-Laws further provides that directors and officers are entitled to be paid by the Registrant the expenses incurred in defending the proceedings specified above in advance of their final disposition, provided that, if the DGCL requires, such payment will only be made upon delivery to the Registrant by the indemnified party of an undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined that the person receiving such payments is not entitled to be indemnified.

Article VI of the Registrant's By-Laws provides that a person indemnified under Article VI of the By-Laws may bring suit against the Registrant if it fails to pay a claim for indemnification within the period of time prescribed in Article VI. The Registrant may defend such a suit by proving that the person indemnified has not met the standard of conduct which makes it permissible under the DGCL to indemnify such person for the amount of the claims.

Article VI of the Registrant's By-Laws provides that the right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in the By-Laws will not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or acquire under the Registrant's Certificate of Incorporation, By-Laws, or any statute or agreement, or otherwise.

Article VI of the Registrant's By-Laws provides that the Registrant may maintain insurance, at its expense, to reimburse itself and directors, officers, employees or agents of the Registrant or any person serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Registrant would have the power to indemnify such persons against such expense, liability or loss under the provisions of its Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws or the DGCL.

Finally, Article VI of the Registrant's By-Laws provides that the Registrant may, to the extent authorized from time to time by its Board of Directors, indemnify and advance expenses to any of its employees or agents to the same extent permitted under Article VI with respect to its directors and officers.

Article XIII of the Registrant's Restated Certificate of Incorporation eliminates the personal liability of the Registrant's directors to the Registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duties as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit.

The Registrant also maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance under which the Registrant's directors and officers are insured against loss (as defined in the policy) as a result of claims brought against them for their wrongful acts in such capacities.

A. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(a) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
