At August 31, 2012, the cost and related gross unrealized appreciation and depreciation on investments for tax purposes are as follows:

Cost of Investments for Tax Purposes	Gross Tax Unrealized Appreciation	Gross Tax Unrealized Depreciation	Net Tax Unrealized Appreciation on Investments
$ 451,774,582	$ 472,437,686	$ (7,454,436)	$ 464,983,250

Securities listed on an exchange are valued at the last reported sale price on the principal exchange or on the principal over-the-counter market on which such securities are traded, as of the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) on the day the securities are being valued or, if there are no sales, at the mean of the most recent bid and asked prices. Equity securities that are traded primarily on the NASDAQ Stock Market are valued at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price. Debt securities are valued at the mean of the last available bid and ask prices for such securities or, if such prices are not available, at prices for securities of comparable maturity, quality and type. If sufficient market activity is limited or does not exist, the pricing providers or broker-dealers may utilize proprietary valuation models which consider market characteristics such as benchmark yield curves, option-adjusted spreads, credit spreads, estimated default rates, coupon rates, anticipated timing of principal repayments, underlying collateral, or other unique security features in order to estimate relevant cash flows, which are then discounted to calculate a security’s fair value. Short-term securities with maturities of 60 days or less at time of purchase are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Money market funds are valued at net asset value.

For those securities where quotations or prices are not available, the valuations are determined in accordance with procedures established in good faith by management and approved by the Board of Trustees of the Trust (“Board of Trustees”). Valuations in accordance with these procedures are intended to reflect each security’s (or asset’s) “fair value.” Fair value is defined as the price that the Fund would receive to sell an investment or pay to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction with an independent buyer in the principal market, or in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market for the investment or liability. Each such determination is based on a consideration of all relevant factors, which are likely to vary from one pricing context to another. Examples of such factors may include, but are not limited to: (i) the type of security, (ii) the initial cost of the security, (iii) the existence of any contractual restrictions on the security’s disposition, (iv) the price and extent of public trading in similar securities of the issuer or of comparable companies, (v) quotations or evaluated prices from broker-dealers and/or pricing services, (vi) information obtained from the issuer, analysts, and/or the appropriate stock exchange (for exchange-traded securities), (vii) an analysis of the company’s financial statements, and (viii) an evaluation of the forces that influence the issuer and the market(s) in which the security is purchased and sold (e.g. the existence of pending merger activity, public offerings or tender offers that might affect the value of the security).

There are three different categories for valuations. Level 1 valuations are those based upon quoted prices in active markets. Level 2 valuations are those based upon quoted prices in inactive markets or based upon significant observable inputs (e.g. yield curves; benchmark interest rates; indices). Level 3 valuations are those based upon unobservable inputs (e.g. discounted cash flow analysis; non-market based methods used to determine fair valuation).

The Fund values Level 1 securities using readily available market quotations in active markets. The Fund values Level 2 equity using various observable market inputs. Money market funds are valued at net asset value. The Fund values Level 2 derivatives using independent pricing providers who employ matrix pricing models utilizing market prices, broker quotes and interest rate fluctuations.

The Level 3 fair value estimate for Clearwater Subordinated Note was determined by the Pricing Committee pursuant to the Valuation Procedures established in good faith by management and approved by the Board of Trustees. There were various factors considered in reaching a fair value determination including, but not limited to, the following: the type of security, the Bankruptcy Court approved terms of the bankruptcy settlement, non-public information from the Creditor's Trust Oversight Committee and the present value of potential future earnings of the investment.

The valuation process for Clearwater Subordinated Note is completed on a monthly basis and is designed to subject the Level 3 valuation to an appropriate level of oversight and review. For Level 3 securities, the Fund utilizes a Pricing Committee which is comprised of employees responsible for implementing the valuation procedures established by the Fund. Investment professionals prepare preliminary valuations based on their evaluation of financial data, company specific developments, terms of the bankruptcy settlement and other factors. The preliminary valuations are reviewed by the Pricing Committee with subsequent deliberations until an appropriate price is determined for the Level 3 security.

Clearwater Natural Resources LP was formed to acquire the interests in Miller Bros. Coal, an owner and producer of coal reserves in Kentucky. Since its formation, Clearwater acquired additional reserves and operations near its existing operations. Clearwater filed for bankruptcy in January 2009. The Fund is an unsecured creditor of Clearwater.

Given the absence of an active market for Clearwater, the Fund has adopted a valuation model which values the investment based on the terms of the bankruptcy settlement for unsecured creditors. The terms include a 1% royalty payable to unsecured creditors on all tons of coal produced. After considering these factors, the Fund priced Clearwater Subordinated Note at $0.33 per dollar of par. Unobservable inputs that could result in a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement include the potential sale of coal royalties to a third party, significant changes in coal production, or significant changes in the value of coal in the market.

The following table presents the activity of the Fund's investments measured at fair value using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 valuations) for the period ended August 31, 2012.
