

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 9, 2016 the Board of Directors (the "Board") of HealthWarehouse.com, Inc. (the "Company") received a letter from Daniel J. Seliga notifying the Board of Mr. Seliga's intention to resign as Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company effective in 30 days from the date of his letter. Mr. Seliga's letter states that the reason for his resignation is due to the change of members of the Board and references Section 5(a) of his employment agreement with the Company which provides that he may voluntarily terminate employment for "Good Reason."

On September 13, 2016 the Board received a letter from Lalit Dhadphale notifying the Board of Mr. Dhadphale's intention to resign as Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective in 30 days from the date of his letter. Mr. Dhadphale's letter states that the reason for his resignation is due to the change of members of the Board and references Section 5(a) of his employment agreement with the Company which provides that he may voluntarily terminate employment for "Good Reason."

The Company is still evaluating its options and obligations under the employment agreements, and the succession plan for the departing officers.
