Each year, we hold a meeting of our shareholders to vote on various matters, including the election of directors to our board. The 2007 meeting is scheduled for 7 May. If you were a shareholder of record as of 8 March 2007, you are eligible to vote, and I encourage you to do so.

Because it is impractical for most shareholders to attend in person, in advance of the annual meeting we contact shareholders to solicit votes, which are submitted on proxy cards, by phone or through the Internet. We are assisted in this effort by our proxy solicitor, a company called D.F. King. D.F. King is contacting many shareholders on Motorola's behalf to ensure that votes are cast and recorded accurately. If you are contacted by D.F. King, please know that the company represents Motorola.

As you may know, a Motorola shareholder, Carl C. Icahn, has notified Motorola that he intends to nominate himself for election to the Motorola board of directors at this year's meeting. As a result, you may also be contacted by Innisfree, a proxy solicitation firm representing Mr. Icahn.

Motorola does not support Mr. Icahn's candidacy and has proposed its own slate of board nominees. Motorola recommends its shareholders vote FOR the Motorola board nominees, NOT Mr. Icahn, by voting on the WHITE proxy card or for the Motorola board nominees by phone or through the Internet.

If you have any questions about the solicitation process, please call D.F. King at +1-212-269-5550.

As the annual meeting approaches, you may see more media coverage regarding this proxy contest. As always, do not talk to the media, analysts or others on your own. Please forward any inquiries on this subject to Dean Lindroth, corporate vice president of investor relations, at +1-847-576-6899 or dean.lindroth@motorola.com.
