PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

Digital 4Sight and CGI announce partnership

Edgar Filing: CGI GROUP INC - Form 6-K

Toronto, September 10, 2001-Digital 4Sight and CGI Group Inc. (NYSE: GIB, TSE:GIB.A) are pleased to announce a joint investment that will accelerate Digital 4Sight's expansion as a leading strategy and research firm.

Founded in 1994 as the Alliance for Converging Technologies, Toronto-based Digital 4Sight, employing 40 professionals, has built a global reputation for thought leadership and foresight into the impact of emerging technologies on competitive strategies and high performance organizations. The firm has a successful record of delivering seminal strategic thinking through its research programs to clients such as Royal Dutch/Shell, IBM, EDS, General Motors, Procter & Gamble, World Bank, Siebel Systems, 724 Solutions, and national governments worldwide.

CGI and the Digital 4Sight management team will jointly own Digital 4Sight. Terms of the arrangement were not disclosed. In January 2001, Digital 4Sight, a financially healthy company, was acquired by itemus inc., which declared bankruptcy in July 2001. The Ontario court has approved the purchase of Digital 4Sight's assets by the combined group.

Digital 4Sight co-founders Don Tapscott, David Ticoll and Alex Lowy will continue in senior roles responsible for thought leadership and client relations. Tapscott, Ticoll and Lowy are authors of recent bestseller Digital Capital, a Harvard Business School Press book. Phil Hood has been named as chief executive officer of the venture, and Joe Sauer will be chief operating officer. Both are veteran employees of Digital 4Sight.

"We plan to continue serving our clients with the same standard of excellence and independence we have always delivered," said Mr. Tapscott. "This is also a new beginning, and we are excited about the many initiatives that we are beginning to plan."

"We are delighted to enter into this partnership with the management and employees of Digital 4Sight," said Michael Roach, president, Canada and Europe for CGI. "CGI's clients will benefit from this investment in the kind of thought leadership and groundbreaking research Digital 4Sight has undertaken on behalf of clients around the world."
