FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OBSIDIAN ENTERPRISES PROPOSES STRATEGIC TRANSACTION WITH NET PERCEPTIONS

Open Letter to the Net Perceptions Board of Directors Proposes Attractive Alternative to Net Perceptions Recently Announced Proposed Plan of Liquidation

November 13, 2003, Indianapolis, Indiana -- Obsidian Enterprises, Inc. (OTC: OBSD), a holding company headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana, that has historically invested in and acquired small and mid cap companies in basic industries, announced today that it has delivered an open letter to the Board of Directors of Net Perceptions, Inc. (Nasdaq: NETP) proposing a strategic transaction with Net Perceptions. The text of the letter follows:

Re: Strategic Transaction

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Obsidian Enterprises, Inc. ("Obsidian") is pleased to advise the Board of Directors of Net Perceptions, Inc. ("NETP" or the "Company") that, subject to completing confirmatory due diligence, Obsidian is prepared to offer NETP shareholders the opportunity to receive $0.20 per share in cash and 0.6 of a share of Obsidian common stock per share of NETP common stock. We believe that this proposal offers your shareholders the ability, based on recent closing prices of Obsidian common stock, to realize a value of approximately $0.38 per share and the opportunity to participate in the future upside that may be associated with ownership in the combined entity. We are confident that relative to the uncertain amount and uncertain timing of the payout under the Company's recently announced proposed plan of liquidation, that the NETP shareholders will find this to be a very attractive opportunity. Assuming that we are able to successfully complete confirmatory due diligence and negotiation and execution of mutually acceptable definitive documentation in a timely manner, Obsidian remains open to the potential of providing additional value to the NETP shareholders.

Obsidian is a publicly traded (OTC: OBSD) holding company headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana, that has historically invested in and acquired small and mid cap companies in basic industries such as manufacturing and transportation. Obsidian Enterprises currently conducts business through six subsidiaries: Danzer Industries, Inc., a manufacturer of service and utility truck bodies and accessories; Pyramid Coach, Inc., a leading provider of corporate and celebrity entertainer coach leases; United Trailers and Southwest Trailers manufacturers of steel-framed cargo, racing, ATV and specialty trailers; and U.S. Rubber Reclaiming, Inc., a butyl rubber reclaiming operation. In our most recently completed fiscal quarter, revenues exceeded $16.7 million.

Obsidian does not anticipate any material delay in our ability to complete this transaction, which we would propose be structured as a voted on merger transaction. With respect to the cash component of this proposal, Obsidian has adequate capacity and availability under its existing lines of credit to compete this transaction without the need to obtain any additional financing.

In submitting this proposal, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy of the information contained in NETP's preliminary proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 4, 2003, and the other public information available with respect to the Company.

We have engaged Acclaim Financial Group Venture III, LLC as our strategic advisor to assist us with this transaction and to expedite the transaction process. Obsidian is prepared to provide NETP with any additional information that NETP may reasonably request (including access to Obsidian's books and records) to evaluate our proposal. Our review of the information contained in the Company's most recent proxy filings regarding the Company's sale process that has been conducted over the past 12 months, indicate that in the interest of the NETP shareholders and completing a transaction that offers far superior value to your shareholders, NETP Board of Directors should to take an active role in working with Obsidian to complete this transaction. The confirmatory diligence and documentation required to complete this transaction, assuming the cooperation of NETP management and legal advisors, can be completed in less than five business days. We do not anticipate any material hurdles to completing a transaction and, if any are identified by you, we are prepared to discuss these matters with you.

Obsidian's strong preference is to complete this transaction with the support of the Board of Directors of NETP. We encourage you to contact our representatives at AFGIII or the undersigned to move this process forward.

Regards,

OBSIDIAN ENTERPRISES, INC.

Timothy S. Durham, Chairman and CEO of Obsidian, stated, "We are prepared to deliver what we believe is a far superior alternative to the Net Perceptions shareholders relative to the uncertain pay out recently announced by Net Perceptions under its proposed plan of liquidation. We believe that Net Perception shareholders will find attractive the opportunity to receive a much more certain and timely cash payout and the opportunity to participate in the future growth of the combined companies. Net Perceptions shareholders have endured massive disappointment and this proposal provides the Net Perception Board of Directors the opportunity to permit their shareholders to move forward with an attractive alternative to liquidation."

Obsidian is a holding company headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. It conducts business through six subsidiaries: Pyramid Coach, Inc., a leading provider of corporate and celebrity entertainer coach leases; United Trailers, Inc., and its sister company, Southwest Trailers, manufacturers of steel-framed cargo, racing ATV and specialty trailers; U.S. Rubber Reclaiming, Inc., a butyl-rubber reclaiming operation; John Evans Trailers, manufacturer of open bed utility trailers; and Danzer Industries, Inc., a manufacturer of service and utility truck bodies and accessories.
