WHIRLPOOL CORPORATION AMENDS PROPOSAL TO ACQUIRE MAYTAG

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., July 22, 2005--Whirlpool Corporation (NYSE: WHR) today announced that the company has increased the value of its proposal to acquire Maytag to $18 per Maytag share from $17 per share.

"By delaying a prompt response and failing to recognize the clearly superior value of our July 17 proposal, the Maytag Board of Directors has jeopardized this important opportunity for consumers, trade customers and shareholders of both Maytag and Whirlpool," said Jeff M. Fettig, Whirlpool's chairman, president and CEO. "This amended proposal includes additional terms that we believe should fully address any concerns of the Maytag Directors."

The amended proposal of $18 per Maytag share is a 29 percent premium to Maytag shareholders compared to the Triton offer. The details of the amended proposal are contained in a letter (attached to this release) that has been delivered to the Maytag Board. The letter reinforces the Company's continuing strong belief that the proposed transaction will receive antitrust clearance and has overwhelming support from trade customers.

Fettig added: "This proposal is the best solution with clearly superior value compared to the Triton offer. I expect the Maytag Board of Directors to do what's best for Maytag shareholders and immediately and fully support this proposal."
