INCO OFFER STILL THE BEST VALUE ALTERNATIVE FOR FALCONBRIDGE SHAREHOLDERS

Toronto, July 11, 2006 The following comments were made today by Inco Chairman and CEO Scott Hand in response to the revised bid from Xstrata plc for Falconbridge Limited announced earlier today:

Inco's offer for Falconbridge remains the best alternative on the table for Falconbridge shareholders, both in terms of immediate and long-term value creation. The implied value of our offer for Falconbridge under our friendly three-way agreement with Falconbridge and Phelps Dodge is C$61.65 per share, based on today's mid-day share price for Phelps Dodge. This represents a premium of 4.5 per cent above the Xstrata offer.

Xstrata's offer also remains subject to a variety of conditions, including receipt of necessary regulatory approvals, and accordingly, Xstrata may not be able to close its offer on July 21 as they have stated. By contrast, Inco has obtained all of the regulatory clearances required to complete its transaction.

Only Inco's offer gives both current Inco and Falconbridge shareholders the opportunity to participate in the great earnings, cash flow and growth potential of Phelps Dodge Inco. Phelps Dodge Inco will be the world's number one producer of nickel, and the second largest producer of copper – the two metals with the best fundamentals going forward. It will also be one of the strongest super-majors in the global mining industry, with an impressive portfolio of greenfield and brownfield growth projects, and the financial firepower to pursue a wide range of future options.

Inco's offer, unlike Xstrata's, also provides the only opportunity to fully capture the outstanding synergies available in the Sudbury Basin and elsewhere. To date, the synergies identified through the Phelps Dodge Inco combination are estimated at $900 million annually, with a net present value of $5.8 billion. By bringing Inco and Falconbridge operations together in Sudbury, Phelps Dodge Inco is the only transaction that offers significant new opportunities for investment, growth and employment in the Sudbury Basin.

For these reasons and others we strongly encourage Falconbridge shareholders to tender their shares to the Inco offer.
