ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

GENERAL. Directors and officers of the Corporation may be entitled to indemnification provisions contained in the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (the "NCBCA") and the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, as amended. The general effect of these provisions is summarized below:

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION. The Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation provides that in addition to and apart from the indemnification provided for in the North Carolina Business Corporation Act or a successor statute, the Corporation shall provide indemnification to its directors as follows:

(a) Indemnity. Any person who at any time serves or has served as a ----- director of the Corporation shall have a right to be indemnified by the Corporation to the full extent allowed by applicable law against liability and litigation expense arising out of or connected with such status or activities in such capacity. "Liability and litigation expense" shall include costs and expenses of litigation (including reasonable attorneys fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement which are actually and reasonably incurred in connection with or as a consequence of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including appeals. In no circumstances, however, shall the Corporation indemnify any such person against any liability or litigation expense incurred on account of activities which were at the time taken known or believed by such person to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the Corporation.

(b) Determination of Right to Indemnity. Promptly after the final ----- disposition or termination of any matter which involves liability or litigation expense as described in Section A above or at such earlier time as it sees fit, the Corporation shall determine whether any person described in Section A of this Article is entitled to indemnification thereunder. Such determination shall be limited to the following issues: (i) whether the persons to be indemnified are persons described in Section A above, (ii) whether the liability or litigation expense incurred arose out of the status or activities of such persons as described in Section A, (iii) whether the liability was actually incurred and litigation expense was actually and reasonably incurred, and (iv) whether the liability and litigation expense were incurred on account of activities which were at the time taken known or believed by such person to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the Corporation. Such determination shall be made by a majority vote of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding (or, in connection with "threatened" actions, suits or proceedings, who were not "threatened parties"). If at least two such disinterested directors are not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if at least half of the number of disinterested directors so direct, such determination shall be made by independent legal counsel in written opinion.

(c) Advance Expenses. (i) Litigation expense incurred by a person described in Section A of this Article in connection with a matter described in Section A shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of the matter, if the Corporation receives an undertaking, dated, in writing and signed by the person to be indemnified, to repay all such sums unless such person is ultimately determined as provided in Section B above to be entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. Requests for payments in advance of final disposition or termination shall be submitted in writing to the Corporation unless this requirement is waived by the Corporation. Before the first such payment is made, the Corporation shall have received the written undertaking referred to herein and notice of the request for advance payment shall have been given to the members of the board of directors.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing subsection (i), no advance payment shall be made as to any payment or portion of a payment for which the determination is made that the person requesting payment will not be entitled to indemnification. Such determination may be made only by a majority vote of disinterested directors or by independent legal counsel as next provided. If there are not at least two disinterested directors, then notice of all requests for advance payment shall be delivered for review to independent legal counsel for the Corporation. Such counsel shall have the authority to disapprove any advance payment or portion of a payment for which it plainly and unavoidably appears that the person requesting payment will not be entitled to indemnification.

(d) Settlements. The Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify persons described in Section A of this Article for any amounts paid in settlement unless the Corporation consents in writing to the settlement. The Corporation shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to proposed settlements. The Corporation's consent to a proposed settlement shall not constitute an agreement by the Corporation that any person is entitled to indemnification hereunder; the Corporation shall waive the requirement of this Section for its written consent as fairness and equity may require.

(e) Application for Indemnity or Advances. (i) A person described in Section A above may apply to the Corporation in writing for indemnification or to advance expenses. Such application shall be addressed to the secretary, or, in the absence of the secretary, to any officer of the Corporation. The Corporation shall respond in writing to such applications as follows: to a request for indemnity under Section B, within ninety days after receipt of the application; to a request for advance expenses under Section C, within fifteen days after receipt of the application.

(ii) The right to indemnification or advance expenses provided herein shall be enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction. A legal action may be commenced if a claim for indemnity or advance expenses is denied in whole or in part, or upon the expiration of the time periods provided in the preceding subsection (i). In any such action, the claimant shall be entitled to prevail upon establishing that he or she is entitled to indemnification or advance expenses but the Corporation shall have the burden of establishing, as a defense, that the liability or expense was incurred on account of activities which were, at the time taken, known or believed by the claimant to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the Corporation. In any such action, if the claimant establishes the right to indemnification, he or she shall also have the right to be indemnified against the litigation expense (including a reasonable attorney's fee) of such action.

(f) Incidents of Right of Indemnification. The right of indemnification provided herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any persons seeking indemnity may be entitled apart from the provisions of this Article, except there shall be no right to indemnification as to any liability or litigation expense for which such person is entitled to receive payment under any insurance policy other than a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy maintained by the Corporation. Such right shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and legal representatives of any persons entitled to such right. Any person who at any time after the adoption of this Article serves or has served in any status or capacity described in Section A of this Article, shall be deemed to be doing or to have done so in reliance upon, and as consideration for, the right of indemnification provided herein. Any repeal or modification of this Article shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing. The right provided herein shall not apply as to persons serving corporations that are hereafter merged into or combined with the Corporation, except after the effective date of such merger or combination and only as to status and activities after such date.

(g) Savings Clause. If this Article or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction, then the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each person described in Section A of this Article to the full extent permitted by the portion of this Article that is not invalidated and also to the full extent (not exceeding the benefits described herein) permitted or required by other applicable law.

NORTH CAROLINA BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT. Sections 55-8-50 through 55-8-58 of the NCBCA contain provisions prescribing the extent to which directors and officers shall or may be indemnified. Section 55-8-51 of the NCBCA permits a corporation, with certain exceptions, to indemnify a present or former director against liability if (i) the director conducted himself in good faith, (ii) the director reasonably believed (x) that the director's conduct in the director's official capacity with the corporation was in its best interests and (y) in all other cases the director's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests, and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director had no reasonable cause to believe the director's conduct was unlawful. A corporation may not indemnify a director in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation or in connection with a proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director. The above standard of conduct is determined by the board of directors, or a committee or special legal counsel or the shareholders as prescribed in Section 55-8-55.

Sections 55-8-52 and 55-8-56 of the NCBCA require a corporation to indemnify a director or officer in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party against reasonable expenses when the director or officer is wholly successful in the director's or officer's defense, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Upon application, the court may order indemnification of the director or officer if the director or officer is adjudged fairly and reasonably so entitled under Section 55-8-54.

In addition, Section 55-8-57 permits a corporation to provide for indemnification of directors, officers, employees or agents, in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by contract or resolution, against liability in various proceedings and to purchase and maintain insurance policies on behalf of these individuals.

The foregoing is only a general summary of certain aspects of North Carolina law dealing with indemnification of directors and officers and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the relevant statutes, which contain detailed specific provisions regarding the circumstances under which and the person for whose benefit indemnifications shall or may be made.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement unless the information or prospectus required by (i) and (ii) is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering; and

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in such Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in such Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
