Steel Partners Urges EnPro to Take Immediate Steps to Enhance Shareholder Value
Tuesday February 19, 10:08 am ET

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Steel Partners II, L.P. ("Steel") today sent a letter to the management and Board of Directors of EnPro Industries, Inc. (NYSE:NPO - News) ("EnPro" or the "Company") expressing concern that the Company is not taking the necessary steps to enhance shareholder value. Steel also stated disappointment at the Board's failure to provide a substantive response to Steel's earlier value enhancement proposals.

Today's letter follows a January 30th letter Steel sent to the Company in which it recommended EnPro pursue a beneficial and highly achievable recapitalization or retain an advisor to assess various strategic initiatives, including a sale of the Company.

"We believe that members of management and the Board need a sense of urgency in taking the necessary steps to immediately enhance stockholder value," Warren Lichtenstein of Steel wrote in today's letter. "Our concerns are heightened even more by the Company's earnings shortfall and margin deterioration in the fourth quarter."

Steel noted the 9.3% decline in the Company's share price since the earnings announcement as a clear indication the market shares its belief that EnPro's Board is not taking the necessary steps to maximize shareholder value.

Steel has nominated five candidates for election as directors at the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders of the Company. In today's letter, Steel expressed its hope that the Board would agree to add its representatives to the Board on a voluntary basis.

Steel is the largest single shareholder in EnPro, holding 11.3% of the outstanding shares as of February 15, 2008.

Attn: William R. Holland, Chairman of the Board
Ernest F. Schaub, President and Chief Executive Officer

CC: Board of Directors

Dear Sirs:

On January 30, 2008, we sent you a letter recommending EnPro Industries, Inc. (the "Company") pursue a beneficial and highly achievable recapitalization or retain an advisor to assess various strategic alternatives, including a sale of the Company. We are disappointed that you have not responded to our proposals other than to publicly state that the Company is evaluating our recommended strategic alternatives and will update the market at the appropriate time. Last Thursday's earnings call would have been an appropriate time for the Company to address these serious issues. We believe that members of management and the Board need a sense of urgency in taking the necessary steps to immediately enhance stockholder value. Our concerns are heightened even more by the Company's earnings shortfall and margin deterioration in the fourth quarter. The 9.3% decline in the Company's share price since the earnings announcement is a clear indication that the market shares our belief that the Board is not taking the necessary steps to maximize stockholder value.

We reiterate our recommendations which we outlined in our January 30, 2008 letter. The Company must appropriately and immediately assess its various strategic alternatives, with a focus on its short- and long-term capital allocation strategy. Management continues to refer to acquisitions as a potential use of capital. However, considering the current share price, we believe a share buyback represents the best and most efficient use of the Company's capital and believe it is highly unlikely that the Company will find acquisitions that are sufficiently large and inexpensive to match the absolute and relative return on investment which it will realize through the proposed recapitalization.

We would like to emphasize our belief that an election contest should be a last resort and hope that the Board would agree to add our representatives to the Board on a voluntary basis. In the interim, we will continue to seek representation on the Board. As always, we would welcome the opportunity to meet or have a telephonic conference with the members of the Board to discuss our proposals and any thoughts you may have on enhancing stockholder value.

Sincerely,

Warren Lichtenstein
