Biglari Holdings is seeking to acquire up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock in the offer for investment purposes. Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings intends to evaluate its investment in the Advance common stock on a continual basis and may, from time to time, communicate with, make proposals to, or otherwise attempt to influence, Advance management, members of Advance's board of directors and other stockholders of Advance regarding the capitalization, business, operations and future plans of Advance.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE TRANSACTION

The following are some of the questions that you as a holder of shares of Advance Auto Parts, Inc., or “Advance,” common stock may have regarding the offer and answers to those questions. The answers to these questions do not contain all information relevant to your decision whether to tender your shares of Advance common stock, and Biglari Holdings Inc., or “Biglari Holdings,” urges you to read carefully the remainder of this prospectus and accompanying letter of transmittal.

What is Biglari Holdings’ Proposed Transaction?

Pursuant to the filing of the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus is a part, with the SEC, Biglari Holdings is offering to acquire up to 1,409,367 outstanding shares of Advance common stock, in exchange for shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. According to Advance’s proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the SEC on April 9, 2010, there were 87,853,453 shares of Advance common stock outstanding as of the close of business on March 26, 2010. As of the date of this prospectus, Biglari Holdings owned 6,000 shares of Advance common stock, representing less than one percent of the outstanding shares. If Biglari Holdings acquires the maximum 1,409,367 shares in the offer, it would own 1,415,367 shares of Advance common stock, representing approximately 1.6 % of the outstanding shares. The Lion Fund, L.P., an affiliate of Biglari Holdings, owns 10,500 shares of Advance common stock. The Lion Fund is not making this offer.

How Many Shares Will Biglari Holdings Purchase in the Offer?

Biglari Holdings will purchase up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock in the offer, or such lesser number of shares as are validly tendered and not properly withdrawn. If more than 1,409,367 shares that would have otherwise been accepted are tendered pursuant to the offer, tendered shares will be purchased on a pro rata basis.

What Will I Receive in Exchange for My Shares of Advance Common Stock?

In exchange for each share of Advance common stock that is purchased pursuant to the offer, you will receive 0.1179 shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. In addition, you will receive cash instead of any fractional shares of Biglari Holdings common stock to which you may be entitled. The number of shares of Biglari Holdings common stock into which one share of Advance common stock will be exchanged in the offer is sometimes referred to in this prospectus as the “exchange ratio.” Accordingly, a stockholder tendering 9 shares would receive one share of Biglari Holdings common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares.

What is the Per Share Value of the Offer?

Biglari Holdings’ common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “BH.” Advance’s common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “AAP.” On April 30, 2010, the last full trading day before Biglari Holdings announced the commencement of this offer and filed the original prospectus, the closing price of a share of Biglari Holdings common stock was $391.25 and the closing price of a share of Advance common stock was $45.13. Based on these closing prices and the exchange ratio in the offer of one share of Advance common stock for 0.1179 shares of Biglari Holdings common stock, the Biglari Holdings offer had a value of $46.13 per share of Advance common stock, representing a 2.2% premium over Advance’s closing share price on April 30, 2010. On May 28, 2010, based on the closing price of a share of Biglari Holdings common stock of $304.10 and the closing price of a share of Advance common stock of $51.76, the Biglari Holdings offer had a value of $35.85 per Advance share, representing a 30.7% discount to Advance’s closing share price on that date.

The value of the offer will change as the market prices of Biglari Holdings common stock and Advance common stock fluctuate during the offer period and thereafter, and may therefore be different from the prices set forth above at the expiration of the offer period and at the time you receive your shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. Shareholders are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for shares of Biglari Holdings and Advance common stock prior to making any decision with respect to the offer. See “Risk Factors” and “Comparative Market Price Data.”

Table of Contents

What does the Board of Directors of Advance Think of the Offer?

Advance has recommended that its stockholders not tender their Advance shares in the offer. Biglari Holdings has not discussed the offer with the board of directors of Advance.

What are the Conditions of the Offer?

Biglari Holdings' obligation to exchange shares of Biglari Holdings common stock for shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer is subject to several conditions referred to below under "The Offer—Conditions of the Offer," including the following:

- the "registration statement condition" — the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part shall have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, referred to in this prospectus as the "Securities Act," no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC, and Biglari Holdings shall have received all necessary state securities law or "blue sky" authorizations; and
- the "listing condition"— the shares of Biglari Holdings common stock to be issued pursuant to the offer shall have been authorized for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance.

The satisfaction or existence of any of the conditions to the offer, including the registration statement condition and the listing condition, will be determined by Biglari Holdings in its reasonable discretion. Any and all conditions to the offer, including the registration statement condition and the listing condition, may be waived (to the extent legally permissible) by Biglari Holdings in its reasonable discretion.

Will I Be Taxed on the Biglari Holdings Common Stock I Receive?

The receipt of Biglari Holdings common stock by a U.S. holder in exchange for its shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer is expected to be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For a discussion of material U.S. federal tax consequences of the offer, see the section captioned "The Offer—Taxation."

BECAUSE TAX MATTERS ARE COMPLICATED, BIGLARI HOLDINGS URGES YOU TO CONTACT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU OF THE OFFER.

Is Biglari Holdings' Financial Condition Relevant to My Decision to Tender in the Offer?

Yes. Biglari Holdings' financial condition is relevant to your decision to tender your shares because shares of Advance common stock accepted in the offer will be exchanged for shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. You should therefore consider Biglari Holdings' financial condition before you decide to become one of Biglari Holdings' shareholders through the offer. This prospectus incorporates by reference financial information regarding Biglari Holdings and Advance, which we encourage you to review.

What Percentage of Biglari Holdings' Shares Will Former Holders of Shares of Advance Common Stock Own After the Offer?

Based on the exchange ratio for the offer, Biglari Holdings estimates that if the maximum 1,409,367 Advance shares are exchanged pursuant to the offer, former Advance stockholders would own, in the aggregate, approximately 10.4% of the outstanding shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. For a detailed discussion of the assumptions on which this estimate is based, see "The Offer—Ownership of Biglari Holdings After the Offer."

How Long Do I Have to Decide Whether to Tender in the Offer?

You have until 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Friday, June 4, 2010 to decide whether to tender your shares in the offer unless Biglari Holdings extends the period of time during which the offer is open. If you cannot deliver everything required to make a valid tender to Computershare Trust Company, N.A. the exchange agent for the offer, prior to such time, you may be able to use a guaranteed delivery procedure to tender your shares in the offer, which is described in “The Offer—Guaranteed Delivery.” When Biglari Holdings makes reference to the “expiration of the offer” or the “expiration date” anywhere in this prospectus, this is the time to which Biglari Holdings is referring, including, when applicable, any extension period that may apply.

Can the Offer Be Extended and Under What Circumstances?

Biglari Holdings may, in its sole discretion, extend the offer at any time or from time to time. For instance, the offer may be extended if any of the conditions specified in “The Offer—Conditions of the Offer” are not satisfied prior to the scheduled expiration date of the offer. Because the offer is for less than all of the outstanding Advance common stock, Biglari Holdings may not elect to provide a “subsequent offering period” for the offer.

How Will I Be Notified if the Offer is Extended?

If Biglari Holdings decides to extend the offer, it will inform the exchange agent of that fact and will make a public announcement of the extension, not later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the business day after the day on which the offer was scheduled to expire.

How Do I Tender My Shares?

To tender shares, you must deliver the certificates representing your shares, together with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, to the exchange agent not later than the time the offer expires. If your shares are held in street name by your broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, such nominee can tender your shares through The Depository Trust Company. If you cannot deliver everything required to make a valid tender to the exchange agent for the offer prior to the expiration of the offer, you may have a limited amount of additional time by having a broker, a bank or other fiduciary that is a member of the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program or other eligible institution guarantee that the missing items will be received by the exchange agent within three business days after the expiration of the offer by using the enclosed notice of guaranteed delivery. However, the exchange agent must receive the missing items within that three business day period. For a complete discussion on the procedures for tendering your shares, see “The Offer—Procedure for Tendering” and “The Offer—Guaranteed Delivery.”

Will I Have to Pay any Fee or Commission to Exchange Shares of Advance Common Stock?

If you are the record owner of your shares and you tender your shares in the offer, you will not have to pay any brokerage fees, commissions or similar expenses. If you own your shares through a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee and your broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee tenders your shares on your behalf, they may charge a fee for doing so. You should consult your broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee to determine whether any charges will apply.

Until What Time Can I Withdraw Tendered Shares?

You can withdraw tendered shares at any time until the offer has expired and, if Biglari Holdings has not agreed to accept your shares for exchange by the expiration date, you can withdraw them at any time after that date until it accepts shares for exchange. For a complete discussion on the procedures for withdrawing your shares, see “The Offer—Withdrawal Rights.”

How Do I Withdraw Tendered Shares?

To withdraw shares, you must deliver a written notice of withdrawal, or a facsimile of one, with the required information to the exchange agent for the offer, while you have the right to withdraw the shares. If you tendered shares by giving instructions to a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, you must instruct the broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee to arrange for the withdrawal of your shares. For a complete discussion on the procedures for withdrawing your shares, see “The Offer—Withdrawal Rights.”

When and How Will I Receive the Biglari Holdings Shares for My Tendered Shares?

Biglari Holdings will exchange up to 1,409,367 validly tendered and not properly withdrawn Advance shares promptly after the expiration date of the offer, subject to the terms of the offer and the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the offer, as set forth in “The Offer—Conditions of the Offer.” Biglari Holdings will exchange your validly tendered and not properly withdrawn shares by depositing shares of Biglari Holdings common stock with the exchange agent, which will act as your agent for the purpose of receiving shares from Biglari Holdings and transmitting such shares to you. In all cases, exchange of tendered shares will be made only after timely receipt by the exchange agent of certificates for such shares (or of a confirmation of a book-entry transfer of such shares as described in “The Offer—Procedure for Tendering”) and a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents for such shares.

Are Dissenters’ Rights Available in the Offer?

Dissenters’ rights are the rights of stockholders, in certain cases, to receive “fair value” for their shares, plus accrued interest, as determined by a statutorily-prescribed process, which may include a judicial appraisal process. Dissenters’ rights are not available in the offer. See “The Offer—Purpose of the Offer; Dissenters’ Rights.”

What is the Market Value of My Shares of Advance Common Stock as of a Recent Date?

On April 30, 2010, the last full trading day before Biglari Holdings announced the commencement of this offer and filed the original prospectus, the closing price of a share of common stock of Advance as reported on the New York Stock Exchange was $45.13. Biglari Holdings advises you to obtain a recent quotation for the Advance common stock before deciding whether to tender your shares.

Why Does the Cover Page to this Prospectus State that the Offer is Subject to Change and that the Registration Statement Filed with the SEC is not yet Effective? Does this Mean that the Offer has not Commenced?

No. Completion of this preliminary prospectus and effectiveness of the registration statement are not necessary for the offer to commence. We cannot, however, accept for exchange any shares tendered in the offer or exchange any shares of Advance common stock until the registration statement is declared effective by the SEC and the other conditions to the offer have been satisfied or, to the extent legally permissible, waived.

As of the date of this prospectus, no such information has been received.

In addition, pursuant to Rule 437 under the Securities Act, Biglari Holdings has requested that (i) Advance cooperate in obtaining the consent of its independent registered public accounting firm and (ii) Advance's independent registered public accounting firm provide Biglari Holdings with their consent required for Biglari Holdings to incorporate by reference into this prospectus the audit report and internal control audit report included in Advance's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 2, 2010. Advance has declined to furnish this consent from its independent registered public accounting firm. On May 13, 2010, under Section 7(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 437 promulgated thereunder, Biglari Holdings submitted to the SEC a request for a waiver of the requirement to include the consent of Advance's independent registered public accounting firm in the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. On May 21, 2010, subject to specified conditions with which Biglari Holdings has complied or will comply, the SEC granted Biglari Holdings' waiver request, permitting the registration statement to be declared effective without the consent of Advance's independent registered public accounting firm, which consent would otherwise be required under Section 7(a) of the Securities Act. See "Risk Factors." If Biglari Holdings nonetheless receives this consent, Biglari Holdings will promptly file it as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

The value of the offer will change as the market prices of Biglari Holdings common stock and Advance common stock fluctuate during the offer period and thereafter, and may therefore be different from the prices set forth above at the expiration of the offer period and at the time you receive your shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. Stockholders are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for shares of Biglari Holdings and Advance common stock prior to making any decision with respect to the offer. See “Risk Factors” and “Comparative Market Price Data.”

Biglari Holdings estimates that it will incur approximately $500,000 of fees and expenses in connection with the offer, including cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares. See “Fees and Expenses.”

Reasons for the Offer

Biglari Holdings is seeking to acquire up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock in the offer for investment purposes. Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings intends to evaluate its investment in the Advance common stock on a continual basis and may, from time to time, communicate with, make proposals to, or otherwise attempt to influence, Advance management, members of Advance’s board of directors and other stockholders of Advance regarding the capitalization, business, operations and future plans of Advance.

Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings may, from time to time, acquire additional shares of Advance common stock, dispose of shares of Advance common stock or formulate other purposes, plans or proposals regarding Advance or the Advance common stock, to the extent deemed advisable in light of its general investment policies, market conditions or other factors.

Ownership of Biglari Holdings After the Offer

Based on the exchange ratio for the offer, Biglari Holdings estimates that if the maximum 1,409,367 Advance shares are exchanged pursuant to the offer, former Advance stockholders would own, in the aggregate, approximately 10.4% of the outstanding shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. For a detailed discussion of the assumptions on which this estimate is based, see “The Offer—Ownership of Biglari Holdings After the Offer.”

Conditions of the Offer

Biglari Holdings’ obligation to exchange shares of Biglari Holdings common stock for shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer is subject to several conditions referred to below under “The Offer—Conditions of the Offer,” including the registration statement condition and the listing condition. Biglari Holdings’ offer is not conditioned on any minimum number of shares being tendered.

Expiration Date of the Offer

The offer is scheduled to expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Friday, June 4, 2010, unless extended by Biglari Holdings. For more information, you should read the discussion below under the caption “The Offer—Extension, Termination and Amendment.”

Extension, Termination and Amendment

To the extent legally permissible, Biglari Holdings reserves the right, in its sole discretion, at any time or from time to time:

- to extend, for any reason, the period of time during which the offer is open;

- to delay acceptance for exchange of, or exchange of, any shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer in order to comply in whole or in part with applicable law;

Table of Contents

- to terminate the offer and not accept or exchange any shares of Advance common stock not previously accepted or exchanged, upon the failure of any of the conditions of the offer to be satisfied prior to the expiration date; and
 - to waive any condition or otherwise amend the offer in any respect.

In addition, even if Biglari Holdings has accepted for exchange, but not exchanged, shares in the offer, it may terminate the offer and not exchange shares of Advance common stock that were previously tendered if completion of the offer is illegal or if a governmental authority has commenced or threatened legal action related to the offer. However, Biglari Holdings may not assert a non-regulatory condition after the expiration of the offer.

Procedure for Tendering Shares

The procedure for tendering shares of Advance common stock varies depending on whether you possess physical certificates or a nominee holds your certificates for you and on whether or not you hold your securities in book-entry form. Biglari Holdings urges you to read the section captioned “The Offer—Procedure for Tendering” as well as the accompanying letter of transmittal.

Withdrawal Rights

You can withdraw tendered shares at any time until the offer has expired and, if Biglari Holdings has not agreed to accept your shares for exchange by the expiration date, you can withdraw them at any time after that date until it accepts shares for exchange.

Exchange of Shares of Advance Common Stock; Delivery of Shares of Biglari Holdings Common Stock

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the offer (including, if the offer is extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any such extension or amendment), Biglari Holdings will accept for exchange, and will exchange for Biglari Holdings common stock, up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock validly tendered and not properly withdrawn promptly after the expiration date.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares of Biglari Holdings Common Stock

Biglari Holdings will not issue certificates representing fractional shares of Biglari Holdings common stock pursuant to the offer. Instead, each tendering stockholder who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Biglari Holdings common stock will receive cash in an amount equal to such fraction (expressed as a decimal and rounded to the nearest 0.01 of a share) multiplied by the average of the closing prices, rounded to four decimal points, of Biglari Holdings common stock for the 15 consecutive trading day period ending on the third trading day before the expiration date.

Regulatory Approvals

Biglari Holdings does not believe that the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, is applicable to the proposed transaction, and is not aware of any other material filings that will be required or advisable with any regulatory authorities in connection with the proposed transaction.

Comparison of Shareholders' Rights

You will receive Biglari Holdings common stock if you tender your shares of Advance common stock in the offer. There are a number of differences between the rights of a stockholder of Advance and the rights of a

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On October 26, 2009, Biglari Holdings filed a Schedule 13D ownership statement with respect to its recent purchases for investment purposes of an aggregate of 172,500 shares of the Class A Common Stock, no par value per share, of Fremont Michigan InsuraCorp, Inc., or Fremont, (representing 9.9% of that corporation's outstanding Class A Common Stock) for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $3,541,000. Fremont's Class A Common Stock is quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board under the trading symbol FMMH.OB. On December 21, 2009, Biglari Holdings announced its intent to acquire all of the remaining issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Fremont through an appropriate acquisition entity for $24.50 per share, or an aggregate additional purchase price of approximately $39 million. Of this proposed purchase price, 50% would be paid in cash, and 50% would be paid in newly-issued shares of common stock of Biglari Holdings. The offer, when made, will not be subject to any financing contingency, but would be subject to approval of the Michigan Office of Financial and Insurance Regulation and the waiver by Fremont of certain of its anti-takeover defenses. Fremont issued a press release on December 23, 2009, rejecting Biglari Holdings' offer.

Effective at the close of business on Friday, December 18, 2009, Biglari Holdings announced a 1-for-20 reverse stock split, and Biglari Holdings' common stock began trading at the split-adjusted price on Monday, December 21, 2009. No fractional shares were issued in connection with the reverse stock split, and Biglari Holdings shareholders instead became entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu of fractional shares based upon the average of the high and low trading prices on December 18, 2009. Biglari Holdings has paid an aggregate of $711,422 to its shareholders or former shareholders in respect of the fractional interests created by the reverse stock split.

On March 30, 2010, Biglari Holdings, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Grill Acquisition Corporation ("Grill Acquisition"), acquired 100% of the outstanding equity interests of Western Sizzlin Corporation ("Western"), pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger between Biglari Holdings, Grill Acquisition and Western, dated as of October 22, 2009 (the "Merger Agreement"). Upon the consummation of the merger pursuant to the Agreement, Western merged with and into Grill Acquisition, with Western continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Biglari Holdings. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of Western's common stock was cancelled upon the completion of the merger and converted into the right to receive a pro rata portion of a new issue of 14% redeemable subordinated debentures due 2015 issued by Biglari Holdings (the "debentures") in the aggregate principal amount of $22,959,000 (approximately $8.07 principal amount of debentures per Western share), with cash paid in lieu of fractional debenture interests.

On April 8, 2010, Biglari Holdings filed Articles of Amendment to its Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Amendment") with the Secretary of State of Indiana, pursuant to which, among other things, the name of the Company was changed from "The Steak n Shake Company" to "Biglari Holdings Inc.", effective immediately. The Amendment was approved by the Company's shareholders at the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders held on April 8, 2010.

On April 30, 2010, Biglari Holdings acquired Biglari Capital Corp. pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated April 30, 2010, between Biglari Holdings and Sardar Biglari. Biglari Capital is the general partner of The Lion Fund, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership that operates as a private investment fund. In recognition of Mr. Biglari's increased responsibilities in overseeing the operations, investments and capital allocation of a diversified holding company, Biglari Holdings entered into the Incentive Bonus Agreement, dated April 30, 2010, with Mr. Biglari, subject to shareholder approval for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Incentive Bonus Agreement, the agreement provides Mr. Biglari the opportunity to receive annual incentive compensation payments based on Biglari Holdings' book value growth for each fiscal year, and requires him to use an amount equal to at least 30% of his annual pre-tax incentive compensation (or an approximate minimum of 50% of his after-tax incentive compensation) to purchase shares of Biglari Holdings' common stock on the open market and to hold such shares for a minimum of three years.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus contains “forward-looking statements.” Specific forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts and include, without limitation, words such as “may,” “will,” “expects,” “believes,” “anticipates,” “plans,” “estimates,” “projects,” “targets,” “forecasts,” “seeks,” “could” or the negative terms or other variations on such terms or comparable terminology. Similarly, statements that describe Biglari Holdings’ objectives, plans or goals are forward-looking. Biglari Holdings’ forward-looking statements are based on management’s current intent, belief, expectations, estimates and projections regarding Biglari Holdings and its industry. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that are difficult to predict, including those discussed below. Therefore, actual results may vary materially from what is expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements. Readers of this prospectus are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements since, while Biglari Holdings believes the assumptions on which the forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, there can be no assurance that these forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate. This cautionary statement is applicable to all forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus and the material accompanying this prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

Risk Factors Relating to the Offer

The exchange ratio for the offer is fixed and will not be adjusted. Because the market price of shares of Biglari Holdings common stock may fluctuate, Advance stockholders cannot be sure of the market value of the shares of Biglari Holdings common stock that they will receive in the offer.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the offer, each outstanding share of Advance common stock that is accepted for exchange pursuant to the offer will be exchanged for 0.1179 shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. This exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted in case of any increases or decreases in the price of Biglari Holdings common stock or Advance common stock. If the price of Biglari Holdings common stock declines (which may occur as a result of a number of reasons (many of which are out of Biglari Holdings’ control), including as a result of the risks described in this “Risk Factors” section), Advance stockholders will receive less value for their shares in the offer than the value calculated pursuant to the exchange ratio on the last full trading day before Biglari Holdings announced the commencement of this offer. Because the offer may not be completed until specified conditions have been satisfied or waived (please see the section of this prospectus entitled “The Offer — Conditions of the Offer”), a significant period of time may pass between the commencement of the offer and the time that Biglari Holdings accepts shares of Advance common stock for exchange. Therefore, at the time you tender your shares pursuant to the offer, you will not know the exact market value of the shares of Biglari Holdings common stock that will be issued to you if Biglari Holdings accepts your shares for exchange. Advance stockholders are urged to obtain current market quotations for Biglari Holdings and Advance common stock when they consider whether to tender their shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer.

Biglari Holdings has only conducted a review of Advance’s publicly available information and has not had access to Advance’s non-public information. Any unknown liabilities of Advance that cause a decrease in Advance’s share price in the future may have an adverse effect on Biglari Holdings’ profitability and results of operations.

To date, Biglari Holdings has only conducted a due diligence review of Advance’s publicly available information. Advance may be subject to liabilities that Biglari Holdings might have discovered if Biglari Holdings had been able to conduct a complete due diligence review of Advance’s non-public information. Any such currently unknown liabilities that come to light after the consummation of the offer may cause a decrease in Advance’s share price. Such a decline in Advance’s share price could, as a result of Biglari Holdings’ ownership of Advance shares, have an adverse effect on Biglari Holdings' profitability and results of operations.

Biglari Holdings' verification of the reliability of the Advance information included in, or omitted from, this prospectus pursuant to Biglari Holdings' due diligence review of Advance has been limited by the fact that Advance has not provided Biglari Holdings with the accounting and other records necessary for Biglari Holdings to fully assess the financial and operating condition of Advance. In addition, Advance's refusal to provide its independent registered public accounting firm's consent may impact your ability to assert or recover on certain claims.

In respect of all information relating to Advance presented in, incorporated by reference into or omitted from this prospectus, Biglari Holdings has relied upon publicly available information, including information publicly filed by Advance with the SEC. Although Biglari Holdings has no knowledge that would indicate that any statements contained or incorporated by reference herein regarding Advance's condition, including its financial or operating condition, based upon such publicly filed reports and documents, are inaccurate, incomplete or untrue, Biglari Holdings was not involved in the preparation of such reports and documents.

Advance has declined to furnish to Biglari Holdings the consent of Advance's independent registered public accounting firm, which is necessary for the incorporation by reference in the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus is a part, of that firm's audit report with respect to the consolidated financial statements of Advance as of January 2, 2010 and January 3, 2009 and for each of the three years in the period ended January 2, 2010, and the effectiveness of Advance's internal control over financial reporting as of January 2, 2010.

On May 13, 2010, under Section 7(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 437 promulgated thereunder, Biglari Holdings submitted to the SEC a request for a waiver of the requirement to include the consent of Advance's independent registered public accounting firm in the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. On May 21, 2010, subject to specified conditions with which Biglari Holdings has complied or will comply, the SEC granted Biglari Holdings' waiver request, permitting the registration statement to be declared effective without the consent of Advance's independent registered public accounting firm, which consent would otherwise be required under Section 7(a) of the Securities Act. The absence of this consent may limit recovery by investors on certain claims, and limit the ability of investors to assert claims against Advance's independent registered public accounting firm, under Section 11 of the Securities Act, for any untrue statements of a material fact contained, or any omissions to state a material fact required to be stated, in Advance's audited financial statements incorporated by reference in the registration statement. The sections of the prospectus containing Advance's financial information or information derived therefrom may, nonetheless, remain expertised under Section 11(b)(3)(c) of the Securities Act so as to provide a "due diligence" defense to third parties involved in the offer based on any claims asserted in connection with the offering of Biglari Holdings common stock as part of the offer.

The market price of Biglari Holdings common stock may decline as a result of the offer.

The market price of Biglari Holdings' common stock may decline as a result of the offer. In particular, Biglari Holdings may issue up to 166,164 shares of Biglari Holdings common stock pursuant to the offer. The increase in the number of shares of Biglari Holdings common stock issued may lead to sales of such shares or the perception that such sales may occur, either of which may adversely affect the market for, and the market price of, Biglari Holdings common stock.

Biglari Holdings will determine, in its reasonable discretion, whether or not the conditions to the offer have been satisfied, and the conditions to the offer are for Biglari Holdings' sole benefit.

The satisfaction or existence of any of the conditions to the offer will be determined by Biglari Holdings in its reasonable discretion. These conditions are for the sole benefit of Biglari Holdings and its affiliates and may be asserted by Biglari Holdings in its reasonable discretion regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any of these conditions or may be waived (to the extent legally permissible) by Biglari Holdings in its reasonable discretion in whole or in part at any time or from time to time before the expiration date, although all conditions to the offer must be satisfied or waived prior to the expiration of the offer. Biglari Holdings may terminate the offer if any of the conditions to the offer are not satisfied prior to the expiration date, as determined by Biglari Holdings in its reasonable discretion. Biglari Holdings also may amend the terms and conditions of the offer.

The receipt of Biglari Holdings common stock in exchange for Advance common stock in the offer is expected to be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A stockholder who exchanges Advance common stock for Biglari Holdings common stock pursuant to the offer will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the fair market value on the date of acceptance for exchange pursuant to the offer of the Biglari Holdings common stock received and the holder's adjusted tax basis in the Advance common stock exchanged pursuant to the offer. Stockholders who recognize gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes may need or desire to sell a portion of the Biglari Holdings common stock they receive in the offer to satisfy the associated tax liability. Because tax matters are complicated, Biglari Holdings urges you to contact your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to you of the offer.

Upon your receipt of shares of Biglari Holdings common stock in the offer, you will become a shareholder in Biglari Holdings, which may change some of the rights and privileges you hold as a stockholder of Advance.

Biglari Holdings is an Indiana corporation governed by the Indiana Business Corporation Law, or the "IBCL," and by its articles of incorporation and bylaws. Advance is a Delaware corporation governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the "DGCL," and by its certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Upon your receipt of shares of Biglari Holdings common stock in the offer, you will become a shareholder in Biglari Holdings, which may adversely affect some of the rights and privileges you hold as a stockholder of Advance. For a detailed discussion of the rights of Biglari Holdings shareholders versus the rights of Advance stockholders, see the section captioned "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights."

Risk Factors Relating to Biglari Holdings' Business

Biglari Holdings is dependent on its Chairman and CEO.

Biglari Holdings believes that its success depends in large part on the services of Sardar Biglari, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The loss of the services of Mr. Biglari could have a material adverse effect upon Biglari Holdings' business, financial condition and results of operations of Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries, including Steak n Shake Operations, Inc. and Western. Investment decisions and all major capital allocation decisions are made for Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries by Mr. Biglari. If for any reason the services of Mr. Biglari were to become unavailable, there could be a material adverse effect on Biglari Holdings' business, since he is singularly responsible for business and investment activities.

Biglari Holdings may not be able to successfully consolidate business operations and realize the anticipated benefits of the merger with Western.

Realization of the anticipated benefits of the merger with Western, including anticipated synergies and overhead savings, will depend, in large part, on Biglari Holdings' ability to successfully eliminate redundant corporate functions and to consolidate public company and shared service responsibilities. Biglari Holdings will be required to devote significant management attention and resources to the consolidation of business practices and support functions while maintaining the independence of Biglari Holdings' and Western's standalone brands. The challenges Biglari Holdings may encounter include the following:

- consolidating redundant operations, including corporate functions;
- realizing targeted margin improvements at company-owned restaurants; and
- addressing differences in business cultures between Biglari Holdings and Western, preserving employee morale and retaining key employees, maintaining focus on providing consistent, high quality customer service, meeting Biglari Holdings' operational and financial goals and maintaining the operational goals of each of the standalone brands.

In particular, Biglari Holdings' ability to realize the targeted margin improvements at company-owned restaurants is subject to a number of risks, including general economic conditions, increases in food and supply costs, increased labor costs and other factors outside of Biglari Holdings' control.

The process of consolidating corporate level operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, Biglari Holdings' business and financial performance. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the realization of corporate synergies and operational improvements could have an adverse effect on Biglari Holdings' business, financial results or financial condition. The consolidation and integration process may also result in additional and unforeseen expenses. There can be no assurance that the contemplated expense savings, improvements in store-level margins and synergies anticipated from the merger will be realized.

Results predicted in financial forecasts and projections considered by Biglari Holdings and Western may not be realized, which may adversely affect the market price or value of Biglari Holdings common stock.

Each of Biglari Holdings and Western reviewed and relied on, among other things, certain projected financial forecasts provided by the managements of Biglari Holdings and Western, respectively. A failure of the combined company to achieve those results could have a material adverse effect on Biglari Holdings' business, financial condition and operating results, as well as the market price and value of its common stock.

Biglari Holdings faces continually increasing competition in the restaurant industry for guests, staff, locations, and new products, which may negatively impact operating performance.

Biglari Holdings' restaurant business is subject to intense competition with respect to prices, services, locations, qualified management personnel, and quality of food. Biglari Holdings competes with other food service operations, with locally-owned restaurants, and with other national and regional restaurant chains that offer the same or similar types of services and products. Some of Biglari Holdings' competitors may be better established in the markets where Biglari Holdings' restaurants are located. Changes in consumer tastes, changes in national, regional, or local economic conditions, changes in demographic trends, and changes in the numbers of competing restaurants are all factors that impact the sales and profitability of the restaurant business. There is active competition for management personnel. In addition, such factors as inflation, increased food, labor, equipment, fixture, and benefit costs, as well as difficulty in attracting qualified management and hourly employees may adversely affect the restaurant industry in general and Biglari Holdings' restaurants in particular.

The recent disruptions in the overall economy and the financial markets may adversely impact Biglari Holdings' restaurant business.

The restaurant industry has been affected by current economic factors, including the deterioration of national, regional and local economic conditions, declines in employment levels, and shifts in consumer spending patterns. The recent disruptions in the overall economy and volatility in the financial markets have reduced, and may continue to reduce, consumer confidence in the economy, negatively affecting consumer restaurant spending, which could be harmful to Biglari Holdings' financial position and results of operations. As a result, decreased cash flow generated from Biglari Holdings' business may adversely affect Biglari Holdings' financial position and its ability to fund its operations. In addition, macroeconomic disruptions, as well as the restructuring of various commercial and investment banking organizations, could adversely affect Biglari Holdings' ability to access the credit markets. The disruption in the credit markets may also adversely affect the availability of financing for Biglari Holdings' franchisees' expansions and operations, and could impact its vendors' ability to meet supply requirements. There can be no assurance that government responses to the disruptions in the financial markets will restore consumer confidence, stabilize the markets, or increase liquidity and the availability of credit.

Biglari Holdings' financial position could be negatively impacted if a subsidiary of Biglari Holdings is unable to comply with the restrictions and covenants to its debt agreements.

A subsidiary of Biglari Holdings currently maintains a debt instrument which includes restrictions and covenants that require quarterly compliance. If this subsidiary fails to meet those restrictions and covenants its operations and business may be negatively impacted, which in turn could negatively impact the financial position of Biglari Holdings.

Biglari Holdings may be required to recognize additional impairment charges on its long-lived assets, which would adversely affect its results of operations and financial position.

Long-lived assets, including restaurant sites, leasehold improvements, other fixed assets, and amortized intangible assets are reviewed when indicators of impairment are present. Expected cash flows associated with an asset are the key factor in determining the recoverability of the asset. Identifiable cash flows are generally measured at the restaurant level. The estimate of cash flows is based upon, among other things, certain assumptions about expected future operating performance. Management's estimates of undiscounted cash flows may differ from actual cash flows due to, among other things, changes in economic conditions, changes to Biglari Holdings' business model or changes in operating performance. If the sum of the undiscounted cash flows is less than the carrying value of the asset, Biglari Holdings recognizes an impairment loss, measured as the amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value of the asset.

Judgments made by management related to the expected useful lives of long-lived assets and Biglari Holdings' ability to realize undiscounted cash flows in excess of the carrying amounts of such assets are affected by factors such as the ongoing maintenance and improvements of the assets, changes in economic conditions and changes in operating performance. As the ongoing expected cash flows and carrying amounts of long-lived assets are assessed, these factors could cause Biglari Holdings to realize a material impairment charge.

Table of Contents

Fluctuations in commodity and energy prices and the availability of commodities, including beef, fried products, poultry, and dairy, could affect Biglari Holdings' restaurant business.

A significant component of Biglari Holdings' costs is related to food commodities, including beef, fried products, poultry, and dairy products, which can be subject to significant price fluctuations due to seasonal shifts, climate conditions, industry demand, changes in international commodity markets, and other factors. If there is a substantial increase in prices for these food commodities, Biglari Holdings' results of operations may be negatively affected. In addition, Biglari Holdings' restaurants are dependent upon frequent deliveries of perishable food products that meet certain specifications. Shortages or interruptions in the supply of perishable food products caused by unanticipated demand, problems in production or distribution, disease or food-borne illnesses, inclement weather, or other conditions could adversely affect the availability, quality, and cost of ingredients, which would likely lower revenues, damage Biglari Holdings' reputation, or otherwise harm its business.

The inability of Biglari Holdings' franchisees to operate profitable restaurants may negatively impact its financial performance.

Biglari Holdings operates a franchise program and collects royalties, and marketing and service fees from the franchisees. The ability of franchisees to generate profits impacts its overall profitability.

Growth within the existing franchise base is dependent upon many of the same factors that apply to Biglari Holdings' company-owned restaurants, and sometimes the challenges of opening profitable restaurants prove to be more difficult for Biglari Holdings' franchisees. For example, franchisees may not have access to the financial or management resources that they need to open or continue operating the restaurants contemplated by their franchise agreements. In addition, Biglari Holdings' continued growth is also partially dependent upon our ability to find and retain qualified franchisees in new markets, which may include markets in which the Steak n Shake brand is less well known. Furthermore, the loss of any of Biglari Holdings' franchisees due to financial concerns and/or operational inefficiencies could impact Biglari Holdings' profitability and the Steak n Shake brand.

Franchisees are required to operate their restaurants according to Biglari Holdings' guidelines. Biglari Holdings provides training opportunities to franchise operators to fully integrate them into Biglari Holdings' operating strategy. However, since Biglari Holdings does not have control over these restaurants, it cannot give assurance that there will not be differences in product quality or that there will be adherence to all of its guidelines at these franchised restaurants. In order to mitigate these risks, Biglari Holdings requires that franchisees focus on the quality of their operations, and it expects full compliance with its standards.

Due to Biglari Holdings' smaller restaurant base and geographic concentration, its operating results could be materially and adversely affected by the negative performance of, or the decision to close, a small number of restaurants.

Biglari Holdings' restaurant base is smaller and less geographically diverse than many other restaurant chains. Accordingly, poor operating results in one or more markets or the decision to close even a relatively small number of underperforming restaurants could materially and adversely affect its business, financial conditions, results of operations, or cash flows.

Changes in guest preferences for casual dining styles or menu items could adversely affect Biglari Holdings' financial performance.

Changing guest preferences, tastes, and dietary habits can adversely impact Biglari Holdings' restaurant business and financial performance. Biglari Holdings' restaurants offer a large variety of entrees, side dishes, and desserts, and their continued success depends, in part, on the popularity of their product offerings and casual style of dining. A change in guest preferences away from this dining style or these offerings in favor of other dining styles or offerings may have an adverse effect on Biglari Holdings' business.

The inability to attract qualified associates, an increase in labor costs, or labor shortages could harm Biglari Holdings' business.

Table of Contents

Biglari Holdings' associates are essential to the operation of its restaurants and its ability to deliver an enjoyable dining experience to its guests. If Biglari Holdings is unable to attract and retain enough qualified restaurant personnel at a reasonable cost, or if they do not deliver an enjoyable dining experience to the guests, its results may be negatively affected. Many Biglari Holdings associates are paid wages that relate to federal and state minimum wage rates. Any increases in the minimum wage rates may significantly increase Biglari Holdings' restaurant operating costs. In addition, since Biglari Holdings' business is labor-intensive, shortages in the labor pool or other inflationary pressure could increase labor costs, which could harm Biglari Holdings' financial performance. Additionally, competition for qualified employees could require Biglari Holdings to pay higher wages or provide greater benefits, which could result in higher labor costs.

Adverse weather conditions or losses due to casualties could negatively impact Biglari Holdings' operating performance.

Although Biglari Holdings maintains, and requires franchisees to maintain, property and casualty insurance to protect against property damage caused by casualties and natural disasters, instances of inclement weather, flooding, hurricanes, fire, and other acts of nature can adversely impact sales in several ways. Many of Biglari Holdings' restaurants are located in the Midwest and Southeast portions of the United States. During the first and second fiscal quarters, restaurants in the Midwest may face harsh winter weather conditions. During the first and fourth fiscal quarters, restaurants in the Southeast may experience hurricanes or tropical storms. These harsh weather conditions may make it more difficult for guests to visit Biglari Holdings' restaurants, or may necessitate the closure of Biglari Holdings' restaurants for a period of time due to physical damage or a shortage of employees resulting from unsafe road conditions or an evacuation of the general population. If guests are unable to visit Biglari Holdings' restaurants, or if the restaurants are closed as the result of inclement weather, Biglari Holdings' sales and operating results may be negatively affected.

Unfavorable publicity could harm Biglari Holdings' business.

Restaurant chains such as those operated by Biglari Holdings can be adversely affected by publicity resulting from complaints or litigation alleging poor food quality, food-borne illness, personal injury caused by food tampering, adverse health effects (including obesity), or other concerns stemming from one or a limited number of restaurants. Regardless of whether the allegations or complaints are valid, given Biglari Holdings' restaurants' geographic concentration, unfavorable publicity relating to just one restaurant could adversely affect public perception of the entire brand, which could immediately and severely damage sales, and accordingly, profits. If guests become ill from food-borne illnesses, Biglari Holdings could also be forced to temporarily close some restaurants. In addition, instances of food-borne illnesses or food tampering, even those occurring solely at the restaurants of competitors, could, due to negative publicity about the restaurant industry, adversely affect sales.

Ownership and leasing of significant amounts of real estate exposes Biglari Holdings to possible liabilities.

Steak n Shake Operations, Inc. and SNS Investment Company, or "SIC", own the land and building or lease the land and/or the building for the Steak n Shake restaurants. Accordingly, they are subject to all of the risks associated with owning and leasing real estate. In particular, the value of their assets could decrease, and their costs could increase because of changes in the investment climate for real estate, demographic trends, supply or demand for the use of restaurants in an area, or liabilities for environmental conditions. Generally the leases cannot be canceled. If Biglari Holdings decides to close an underperforming existing store, or if it decides not to open a planned future store, they may, nonetheless, be committed to perform their obligations under the applicable lease including, among other things, paying the base rent for the remainder of the lease term. In addition, as their leases expire, they may fail to negotiate renewals, either on commercially acceptable terms or at all, which could cause them to close stores in desirable locations.

Biglari Holdings is subject to health, employment, environmental, and other government regulations, and failure to comply with existing or future government regulations could expose Biglari Holdings to litigation, damage Biglari Holdings' reputation, and lower profits.

Biglari Holdings is subject to various federal, state, and local laws and regulations affecting its business. Restaurant operations are also subject to licensing and regulation by state and local departments setting standards for health, food preparation, sanitation, and safety; federal and state labor laws (including applicable minimum wage requirements, overtime, working and safety conditions, child labor, tip credits, and citizenship requirements); federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination; and other laws regulating the design and operation of facilities, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If Biglari Holdings fails to comply with any of these laws, it may be subject to governmental action or litigation, and its reputation could be accordingly harmed. Injury to Biglari Holdings' reputation would, in turn, likely reduce revenues and profits.

The development and construction of restaurants is subject to compliance with applicable zoning, land use, and environmental regulations. Difficulties in obtaining, or failure to obtain, the required licenses or approvals could delay or prevent the development of a new restaurant in a particular area.

In recent years, there has been an increased legislative, regulatory, and consumer focus on nutrition and advertising practices in the food industry. As a result, Biglari Holdings may become subject to regulatory initiatives in the area of nutrition disclosure or advertising, such as requirements to provide information about the nutritional content of our food products, which could increase expenses. The operation of the Biglari Holdings franchise system is also subject to franchise laws and regulations enacted by a number of states, and to rules promulgated by the U.S. Federal Trade Commission. Any future legislation regulating franchise relationships may negatively affect Biglari Holdings' operations, particularly Biglari Holdings' relationship with franchisees. Failure to comply with new or existing franchise laws and regulations in any jurisdiction or to obtain required government approvals could result in a ban or temporary suspension on future franchise sales.

Biglari Holdings may not be able to adequately protect its intellectual property, which could decrease the value of its brand and products.

The success of Biglari Holdings' business depends on the continued ability to use the existing trademarks, service marks, and other components of its brands to increase brand awareness and further develop branded products. While Biglari Holdings takes steps to protect its intellectual property, its rights to its trademarks could be challenged by third parties or Biglari Holdings' use of these trademarks may result in liability for trademark infringement, trademark dilution, or unfair competition, adversely affecting our profitability.

Biglari Holdings' investment activities could require registration as an Investment Company.

Biglari Holdings has historically been principally engaged in the ownership, operation, and franchising of restaurants and recently transformed into a diversified holding company. In the future, Biglari Holdings may inadvertently fall within the definition of an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, in part if it owns investment securities having a value exceeding 40% of the value of its total assets (excluding government securities and cash items) on an unconsolidated basis. Although investment securities currently represent less than 40% of Biglari Holdings' total assets, determined based on its current market capitalization (excluding government securities and cash items), the value of the investment securities that it holds, and the total value of its assets, can change significantly from time to time. As a result, Biglari Holdings could fail to satisfy the 40% test in part if the value of its investment positions increases substantially, or if the value of its non-investment assets decreases substantially.

If Biglari Holdings decides to register as an investment company, then it would become subject to various provisions of the Investment Company Act and the regulations adopted under such Act, which are very extensive and could adversely affect its operations. For example, Biglari Holdings might be prohibited from entering into or continuing transactions with certain of its affiliates.

Risk Factors Relating to the Business of Biglari Holdings' Western Subsidiary

Western is dependent on key personnel.

Western believes that its success depends in part on the services of Sardar Biglari, its Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Robyn B. Mabe, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The loss of the services of Mr. Biglari or Mrs. Mabe could have a material adverse effect upon Western's business, financial condition and results of operations. Qualified replacements may not be available in a timely manner, if at all. Western's continued growth will also depend on its ability to attract and retain additional skilled management personnel.

Western's wholly-owned subsidiary, Western Properties, Inc. serves as the general partner of a private investment limited partnership, Western Real Estate, L.P., which had no limited partners in 2008 but intends to operate as a private real estate investment partnership.

In December 2007, Western formed Western Properties, Inc., a Delaware corporation, as a wholly-owned subsidiary. Western Properties is the general partner of Western Real Estate, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership also formed in December 2007. There were no limited partners in the partnership at December 31, 2008 and the sole activity of these entities has been the purchase in 2007 by the limited partnership of 23 acres of real property in Bexar County, Texas from an unaffiliated third party. It is the intention of Western Real Estate, L.P., to operate as a private limited partnership investing in real estate, however, this venture is in the formative stages and there is no guarantee that it will be successful.

Western's investments in marketable securities, including through Western Acquisitions L.P., are highly concentrated.

Western's investments in marketable securities, including through Western Acquisitions, L.P., are highly concentrated. A decline in the market value of these investments may result in a decrease in Biglari Holdings' stock price.

Western's investment activities, including through Western Acquisitions, L.P., may involve the purchase of securities on margin.

Western may purchase securities on margin in connection with its investment activities, including through Western Acquisitions, L.P. If Western does so, a significant decrease in the value of the securities that collateralize the margin line of credit could result in a margin call. If Western does not have sufficient cash available from other sources in the event of a margin call, it may be required to sell those securities at a time when it would prefer not to sell them.

Western's investment activities could require registration as an Investment Company.

Western has historically been principally engaged in franchising and operating restaurants and it does not presently intend to change its principal business. However, Western may inadvertently fall within the definition of an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, in part if it owns investment securities having a value exceeding 40% of the value of its total assets (excluding government securities and cash items) on an unconsolidated basis. Although investment securities currently represent less than 40% of its total assets, determined based on Western's current market capitalization (excluding government securities and cash items), the value of the investment securities that it holds, and the total value of its assets, can change significantly from time to time. As a result, Western could fail to satisfy the 40% test in part if the value of its investment positions increases substantially, or if the value of its non-investment assets decreases substantially. Failure to satisfy the 40% test does not automatically mean that Western would be required to register under the Investment Company Act, and Western's board of directors has not adopted any strict numerical limit on its investment activities.

If Western's investment activities inadvertently result in it being determined to be an investment company and it fails to register as an investment company, Western might be unable to enforce contracts with third parties, and third parties could seek rescission of transactions with it undertaken during the period that it was an unregistered investment company, subject to equitable considerations set forth in the Investment Company Act. In addition, Western might be subject to monetary penalties or injunctive relief, or both, in an action brought against it by the SEC.

If Western decides to register as an investment company, then it would become subject to various provisions of the Investment Company Act and the regulations adopted under such Act, which are very extensive and could adversely affect its operations. For example, Western might be prohibited from entering into or continuing transactions with certain of its affiliates.

Western is experiencing a decline in its franchise base.

Western has experienced steady declines in its existing franchise base for the past several years. Since January 1, 2005, Western had a total of 44 closures and currently has a total of 109 franchised restaurants. Of the 44 closed restaurants the majority were Western brand restaurants. The average annual sales of its franchised restaurants are approximately $1.6 million. The average annual sales of the closed restaurants were $1.0 million or less. The closures of franchised restaurants were caused by their operating at a competitive disadvantage which stemmed from such factors as location, facility, lack of reinvestment and mismanagement, among others factors. There is no guarantee that these reasons will be eliminated. Moreover, these closures occurred during generally favorable economic conditions and it is possible that this trend could accelerate given the present economic downturn. Western is striving to reverse this trend by revitalizing its franchise models. However, maintaining and growing Western's existing franchise base is dependent upon many of the same factors that apply to its Company-owned restaurants. Sometimes the challenges of operating profitable restaurants prove to be more difficult for Western's franchisees. For example, franchisees may not have access to the financial or management resources that they need to operate their restaurants. Accordingly, there is no assurance that Western will be successful in doing so and as a result its franchise base may continue to decline regardless of the economic environment.

Due to Western's smaller restaurant base and geographic concentration, its operating results could be materially and adversely affected by the negative performance of, or the decision to close, a small number of restaurants.

Western's restaurant base, both franchised and Company-owned, is smaller and less geographically diverse than many other restaurant chains. Accordingly, poor operating results in one or more of Western's markets or the decision to close even a relatively small number of underperforming restaurants could materially and adversely affect Western's business, financial condition, results of operation, or cash flows.

Western's restaurants operate in a highly competitive environment.

Western's restaurants, both franchised and Company-owned, operate in a highly competitive industry comprised of a large number of restaurants, including national and regional restaurant chains and franchised restaurant operations, as well as locally-owned, independent restaurants. Price, restaurant location, food quality, service and attractiveness of facilities are important aspects of competition. The competitive environment is often affected by factors beyond a particular restaurant management's control, including changes in the public's taste and eating habits, population and traffic patterns and economic conditions. New competitors may emerge at any time. Western may not be able to compete successfully against its competitors in the future. Competition may have a material adverse effect on Western's operations or earnings.

The inability of Western's franchisees to operate profitable restaurants may negatively impact its financial performance.

Under the agreements Western has with its franchisees, Western collects royalties and other fees from its franchisees. As a result, the ability of Western's franchisees to generate profits and pay royalties to Western impacts its overall profitability and brand recognition.

Western is highly dependent on attracting and retaining qualified employees while also controlling labor costs.

Western is extremely dependent upon the availability of qualified restaurant personnel. Availability of staff varies widely from location to location. If restaurant management and staff turnover trends increase, Western would suffer higher direct costs associated with recruiting and retaining replacement personnel. Western could suffer from significant indirect costs, including restaurant disruptions due to management changeover and potential delays in new store openings due to staff shortages. Competition for qualified employees exerts upward pressure on wages paid to attract personnel, resulting in higher labor costs, together with greater expense to recruit and train them. Many of Western's employees are hourly workers whose wages are likely to be impacted by an increase in the federal or state minimum wage. An increase in the minimum wage may require an increase or create pressure to increase the pay scale for Western's employees. A shortage in the labor pool or other general inflationary pressures or changes could also increase Western's labor costs.

Western is dependent upon the timely delivery of fresh ingredients.

Western's restaurant operations are dependent on timely deliveries of fresh ingredients, including fresh produce, dairy products and meat. The cost, availability and quality of the ingredients Western uses to prepare its food is subject to a range of factors, many of which are beyond its control. Fluctuations in weather, supply and demand and economic and political conditions could adversely affect the cost, availability and quality of Western's ingredients. Historically, when operating expenses increased due to inflation or increases in food costs, Western generally has been able to offset these higher costs by increasing its menu prices. Western may not be able to recover increased costs in the future because competition may limit or even prohibit such future increases. If the variety or quality of Western's food products declines due to the lack or lower quality of its ingredients or due to interruptions in the flow of fresh ingredients and similar factors, customer traffic may decline and negatively affect Western's sales.

Western may not be able to adequately protect its intellectual property, which could decrease the value of its brand and products.

The success of Western's business depends on its continued ability to use the existing trademarks, service marks, and other components of its brand to increase brand awareness and further develop branded products. While Western takes steps to protect its intellectual property, Western's rights to its trademarks could be challenged by third parties or its use of the trademarks may result in liability for trademark infringement, trademark dilution, or unfair competition, adversely affecting Western's profitability.

General economic factors may adversely affect Western's results of operations.

National, regional, and local economic conditions, such as recessionary economic cycles or a worsening economy, could adversely affect disposable consumer income and consumer confidence. Unfavorable changes in these factors or in other business and economic conditions affecting Western's customers could reduce customer traffic in some or all of its restaurants, impose practical limits on its pricing and increase its costs. Any of these factors could lower Western's profit margins and have a material adverse affect on its results of operations. The impact of inflation on food, beverages, labor, utilities and other aspects of Western's business can negatively affect its results of operations. Although Western attempts to offset inflation through periodic menu price increases, cost controls and incremental improvement in operating margins, it may not be able to completely do so. This may negatively affect Western's results of operations.

Western is vulnerable to changes in economic conditions and consumer spending patterns that could harm its business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flow.

The restaurant industry has been affected by the current economic factors, including the deterioration of national, regional and local economic conditions, rising unemployment and shifts in consumer spending patterns. The recent disruptions in the overall economy have reduced and may continue to reduce, consumer confidence in the economy, negatively affecting consumer restaurant spending, which could be harmful to Western's financial position and operating results. As a result, decreased cash flow generated by Western's business may adversely affect its financial position and its ability to fund its operations. In addition, macro economic disruptions, as well as the restructuring of various commercial and investment banking organizations, could adversely affect Western's ability to access the credit markets. The disruption in the credit markets may also adversely affect the availability of financing for its franchisees' operations, and could impact Western's vendors' ability to meet Western's supply requirements. There can be no assurances that government responses to the disruptions in the financial markets will restore consumer confidence, stabilize the markets, or increase liquidity and the availability of credit.

Furthermore, Western could experience reduced customer traffic or limitations on the prices it can charge for its products, either of which could reduce Western's sales and profit margins and have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations.

Changes in guest preferences for casual dining styles or menu items could adversely affect Western's financial performance.

Changing guest preferences, tastes, and dietary habits can adversely impact Western's business and financial performance. Western's restaurant models offer a varied entrees, side dishes, salads and desserts. Western's continued success depends, in part, on the popularity of its product offerings and casual style of dining. A change in guest preferences away from this style or Western's offerings in favor of other dining styles or offerings may have an adverse impact on its business.

Western faces the risk of adverse publicity and litigation relating to food-borne illness, employment and other matters that could have a material adverse affect on its business and financial performance.

Western may be the subject of complaints or litigation from customers alleging illness, injury or other food quality, health or operational concerns. While the risk of food-borne illness is real, whether it results from improper operations, new diseases or from chemicals in certain food products, the risk would generally only affect a limited number of Western's restaurants. As soon as any food issues became known to Western, those food items that were potentially at risk would be no longer served to customers.

While the risk of food-borne illness or injury would likely be localized, the risk of the adverse publicity that might result from such an incident is more generalized and accordingly much greater. The general public's response to adverse publicity relating to Western's restaurant brands could materially adversely affect a significant number of its restaurants. This could be true whether the allegations underlying the adverse publicity are valid or whether Western is liable.

Furthermore, more generalized health concerns about the consumption of beef or chicken due to reported incidents of diseases such as Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy ("mad cow disease") or Avian Influenza ("bird flu") could lead to changes in customer preferences, reduce consumption of Western's products and adversely affect its financial performance. These events could also reduce the available supply of beef or chicken or significantly raise the prices of beef or chicken.

In addition, Western is subject to employee claims alleging injuries, wage and hour violations, discrimination, harassment or wrongful termination. In recent years, a number of restaurant companies have been subject to lawsuits, including class action lawsuits, alleging violations of federal and state law regarding workplace, employment and similar matters. A number of these lawsuits have resulted in the payment of substantial damages by the defendants. Regardless of whether any claims against Western are valid or whether Western is ultimately determined to be liable, claims may be expensive to defend and may divert time and money away from its operations and hurt Western's financial performance. A significant judgment for any claim(s) could materially adversely affect Western's financial condition or results of operations.

Western is regulated by the federal and state government.

The restaurant industry is subject to extensive federal, state and local laws and regulations. The development and operation of restaurants depend to a significant extent on the selection and acquisition of suitable sites. Those are subject to zoning, land use, environmental, traffic and other regulations and requirements. Western is also subject to licensing and regulation by state and local authorities relating to health, sanitation, safety and fire standards and building codes. Federal and state laws govern Western's relationships with employees, including the Fair Labor Standards Act and applicable minimum wage requirements, overtime, employment tax rates, family leave, tip credits, working conditions, safety standards and citizenship requirements. Federal and state laws prohibit discrimination and other laws regulating the design and operation of facilities, such as the American with Disabilities Act of 1990. In addition, Western is subject to a variety of federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to the use, storage, discharge, emission and disposal of hazardous materials. The impact of current laws and regulations, the effect of future changes in laws or regulations that impose additional requirements and the consequences of litigation relating to current or future laws and regulations could increase Western's compliance and other costs of doing business. These could adversely affect Western's results of operations. Failure to comply with the laws and regulatory requirements of federal, state and local authorities could result in revocation of required licenses, administrative enforcement actions, fines and civil and criminal liability.

Adverse weather conditions or losses due to casualties such as fire could negatively impact Western's financial performance.

Although Western maintains, and requires its franchisees to maintain, property and casualty insurance to protect against property damage caused by casualties and natural disasters, inclement weather, flooding, hurricanes, fire and other acts of God can adversely impact Western's sales in several ways. For example, severe weather typically discourages potential customers from dining out. In addition, a restaurant that is damaged by a natural disaster can be inoperable for a significant amount of time due to either physical damage or to a shortage of employees resulting from a relocation of the general population.

Litigation could have a material adverse effect on Western's financial position, cash flows and results of operations.

In September 2006, Western was served with a lawsuit filed in the Circuit Court of Pulaski County, Arkansas, captioned Parks Land Company, LLP, et al. v. Western Corporation, et al. The plaintiffs are owners/landlords of four restaurant premises located in the Little Rock, Arkansas metropolitan area which had been leased pursuant to a single ten year lease agreement. Western occupied these locations for a period of time, but before the end of the lease, subleased each of these premises to various operators. The ten year lease agreement expired on June 30, 2006. In the lawsuit the plaintiffs sought recovery of alleged damages for certain repair and maintenance expenses on the premises, for the replacement of certain equipment, for diminution of property value, and for loss of rental income, as well as interest and costs. The case was tried to a 12 person jury in Little Rock, starting February 12, 2008. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiffs on February 20, 2008, in the amount of $689,526. On February 29, 2008, the Circuit Court of Pulaski County, Arkansas entered judgment on the jury's verdict in the case against Western in the amount of $689,666 plus plaintiff's legal costs. On appeal by Western, on May 14, 2009, the Arkansas Supreme Court reversed and remanded the case for a new trial. On June 25, 2009, the Arkansas Supreme Court issued a per curiam order denying Parks Land Company's petition for a rehearing. The new trial has been scheduled in the Pulaski County Circuit Court for the week of May 24, 2010. As previously reported, Western has accrued $900,000 related to this loss contingency. There has been no change in Western's loss contingency accrual of $900,000 since December 31, 2007.

Western is also from time to time a party to various other legal actions which are ordinary routine matters incidental to its business. While Western believes that the ultimate outcome of these matters individually and in the aggregate will not have a material impact on its financial position, Western cannot assure that an adverse outcome on any of these matters would not, in fact, materially impact its financial position, cash flows and results of operations.

BACKGROUND AND REASONS FOR THE OFFER

Background of the Offer

On April 29, 2010, Biglari Holdings' board of directors approved the offer.

On April 30, 2010, Biglari Holdings commenced the offer and issued a press release announcing the commencement of the offer.

Reasons for the Offer

Biglari Holdings is seeking to acquire up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock in the offer for investment purposes. Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings intends to evaluate its investment in the Advance common stock on a continual basis and may, from time to time, communicate with, make proposals to, or otherwise attempt to influence, Advance management, members of Advance's board of directors and other stockholders of Advance regarding the capitalization, business, operations and future plans of Advance.

Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings may, from time to time, acquire additional shares of Advance common stock, dispose of shares of Advance common stock or formulate other purposes, plans or proposals regarding Advance or the Advance common stock, to the extent deemed advisable in light of its general investment policies, market conditions or other factors.

THE OFFER

Biglari Holdings is offering to exchange up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock at an exchange ratio of one share of Advance common stock for 0.1179 shares of Biglari Holdings common stock, upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained in this prospectus and the accompanying letter of transmittal. In addition, you will receive cash instead of any fractional shares of Biglari Holdings common stock to which you may be entitled.

The term “expiration date” means 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 4, 2010, unless Biglari Holdings extends the period of time for which the offer is open, in which case the term “expiration date” means the latest time and date on which the offer, as so extended, expires.

If you are a registered stockholder and tender your shares of Advance common stock directly to the exchange agent, you will not be obligated to pay any charges or expenses of the exchange agent or any brokerage commissions. If you hold your shares through a broker or bank, you should consult your institution as to whether or not they will charge you any service fees. Except as set forth in the instructions to the letter of transmittal, transfer taxes on the exchange of shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer will be paid by Biglari Holdings.

Biglari Holdings is seeking to acquire up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock in the offer for investment purposes. Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings intends to evaluate its investment in the Advance common stock on a continual basis and may, from time to time, communicate with, make proposals to, or otherwise attempt to influence, Advance management, members of Advance’s board of directors and other stockholders of Advance regarding the capitalization, business, operations and future plans of Advance.

Based on the exchange ratio for the offer, Biglari Holdings estimates that if the maximum 1,409,367 Advance shares are exchanged pursuant to the offer, former Advance stockholders would own, in the aggregate, approximately 10.4% of the outstanding shares of Biglari Holdings common stock. For a detailed discussion of the assumptions on which this estimate is based, see “The Offer—Ownership of Biglari Holdings After the Offer.”

Biglari Holdings’ obligation to exchange shares of Biglari Holdings common stock for shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer is subject to several conditions referred to below under “Conditions of the Offer,” including the registration statement condition and the listing condition. Biglari Holdings’ offer is not conditioned on any minimum number of shares being tendered.

Pursuant to Section 220 of the DGCL, Biglari Holdings has asked Advance for its stockholder list and security position listings to communicate with you and to distribute Biglari Holdings’ offer to you. The original prospectus, the related letter of transmittal and other relevant materials were delivered to record holders of shares of Advance common stock and to brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies and similar persons whose names, or the names of whose nominees, appeared on Advance’s stockholder list or, if applicable, who were listed as participants in a clearing agency’s security position listing, so that they could in turn send these materials to beneficial owners of shares of Advance common stock.

Expiration Date of the Offer

The offer is scheduled to expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on June 4, 2010, unless extended by Biglari Holdings. For more information, you should read the discussion below under the caption “The Offer—Extension, Termination and Amendment.”

Extension, Termination and Amendment

Subject to the applicable rules of the SEC and the terms and conditions of the offer, Biglari Holdings expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion, at any time or from time to time, to extend, for any reason, the period of time during which the offer remains open, and Biglari Holdings can do so by giving oral or written notice of such extension to the exchange agent. If Biglari Holdings decides to so extend the offer, Biglari Holdings will make an announcement to that effect no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled expiration date. Biglari Holdings is not making any assurance that it will exercise its right to extend the offer, although it currently intends to do so until all conditions to the offer have been satisfied or waived. During any such extension, all shares of Advance common stock previously tendered and not withdrawn will remain subject to the offer, subject to your right to withdraw your shares of Advance common stock. You should read the discussion under “The Offer—Withdrawal Rights” for more details.

Table of Contents

To the extent legally permissible, Biglari Holdings also reserves the right, in its sole discretion, at any time or from time to time:

- to delay acceptance for exchange of, or exchange of, any shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer in order to comply in whole or in part with applicable law;
- to terminate the offer and not accept or exchange any shares of Advance common stock not previously accepted or exchanged, upon the failure of any of the conditions of the offer to be satisfied prior to the expiration date; and
 - to waive any condition or otherwise amend the offer in any respect.

In addition, even if Biglari Holdings has accepted for exchange, but not exchanged, shares in the offer, it may terminate the offer and not exchange shares of Advance common stock that were previously tendered if completion of the offer is illegal or if a governmental authority has commenced or threatened legal action related to the offer. However, Biglari Holdings may not assert a non-regulatory condition after the expiration of the offer.

Biglari Holdings will effect any extension, termination, amendment or delay by giving oral or written notice to the exchange agent and by making a public announcement as promptly as practicable thereafter. In the case of an extension, any such announcement will be issued no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled expiration date. Subject to applicable law and without limiting the manner in which Biglari Holdings may choose to make any public announcement, Biglari Holdings assumes no obligation to publish, advertise or otherwise communicate any such public announcement other than by making a press release.

Biglari Holdings acknowledges that Rule 14e-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the “Exchange Act,” requires Biglari Holdings to pay the consideration offered or return the shares of Advance common stock tendered promptly after the termination or withdrawal of the offer.

Biglari Holdings confirms to you that if it makes a material change in the terms of the offer or the information concerning the offer, or if it waives a material condition of the offer, it will extend the offer to the extent required under the Exchange Act and will comply with the provisions of Rule 14d-4(b) and (d) under the Exchange Act in disseminating information about the material change to Advance stockholders. If, prior to the expiration date, Biglari Holdings changes the percentage of shares of Advance common stock being sought or the consideration offered to you, that change will apply to all holders whose shares of Advance common stock are accepted for exchange pursuant to Biglari Holdings’ offer, regardless of whether the shares were tendered before or after the change. If at the time notice of that change is first published, sent or given to you, the offer is scheduled to expire at any time earlier than the tenth business day from and including the date that such notice is first so published, sent or given, Biglari Holdings will extend the offer until the expiration of that ten business day period. For purposes of the offer, a “business day” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or federal holiday and consists of the time period from 12:01 a.m. through 12:00 midnight, New York City time.

Because the offer is for less than all of the outstanding Advance common stock, Exchange Act Rule 14d-11 does not permit Biglari Holdings to provide a subsequent offering period after the expiration of the offer.

Exchange of Advance Shares; Delivery of Biglari Holdings Common Stock and Cash

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the offer (including, if the offer is extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any such extension or amendment), Biglari Holdings will accept for exchange, and will exchange, up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock validly tendered and not properly withdrawn promptly after the expiration date. In addition, subject to applicable rules of the SEC, Biglari Holdings expressly reserves the right to delay acceptance for exchange of, or the exchange of, shares of Advance common stock in order to comply with any applicable law. In all cases, exchange of shares of Advance common stock tendered and accepted for exchange pursuant to the offer will be made only after timely receipt by the exchange agent of certificates for those shares of Advance common stock (or a confirmation of a book-entry transfer of those shares of Advance common stock in the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company, referred to as "DTC"), a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents.

For purposes of the offer, Biglari Holdings will be deemed to have accepted for exchange shares of Advance common stock validly tendered and not properly withdrawn as, if and when it notifies the exchange agent of its acceptance of the tenders of those shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer. The exchange agent will deliver Biglari Holdings common stock in exchange for shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer and cash instead of fractional shares of Biglari Holdings common stock promptly after receipt of such notice. The exchange agent will act as your agent for the purpose of receiving Biglari Holdings common stock (and cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Biglari Holdings common stock) from Biglari Holdings and transmitting such stock and cash, as applicable, to you. You will not receive any interest on any cash that Biglari Holdings pays you, even if there is a delay in making the exchange.

If Biglari Holdings does not accept any tendered shares of Advance common stock for exchange pursuant to the terms and conditions of the offer for any reason (including shares not accepted because of proration), or if certificates are submitted for more shares of Advance common stock than are tendered, Biglari Holdings will return certificates for such unexchanged shares of Advance common stock without expense to the tendering stockholder or, in the case of shares of Advance common stock tendered by book-entry transfer of such shares of Advance common stock into the exchange agent's account at DTC pursuant to the procedures set forth below in the section entitled "The Offer—Procedure for Tendering," those shares of Advance common stock will be credited to an account maintained within DTC promptly following expiration or termination of the offer.

Biglari Holdings reserves the right to transfer or assign, in whole or from time to time in part, to one or more of its affiliates, the right to exchange all or any portion of the shares of Advance common stock tendered pursuant to the offer, but any such transfer or assignment will not relieve Biglari Holdings of its obligations under the offer or prejudice the rights of tendering stockholders to exchange shares of Advance common stock validly tendered and accepted for exchange pursuant to the offer.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares of Biglari Holdings Common Stock

Biglari Holdings will not issue certificates representing fractional shares of Biglari Holdings common stock pursuant to the offer. Instead, each tendering stockholder who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Biglari Holdings common stock will receive cash in an amount equal to such fraction (expressed as a decimal and rounded to the nearest 0.01 of a share) multiplied by the average of the closing prices, rounded to four decimal points, of Biglari Holdings common stock for the 15 consecutive trading day period ending on the third trading day before the expiration date.

Proration

If more than 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock are validly tendered and not properly withdrawn prior to the expiration date, Biglari Holdings will, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the offer, accept shares for exchange on a pro rata basis. If proration of tendered shares is required, Biglari Holdings will determine the proration factor promptly following the expiration date. Proration for each stockholder tendering shares will be based on the ratio of the number of shares validly tendered and not properly withdrawn by such stockholder to the total number of shares validly tendered and not properly withdrawn by all stockholders. Because of the difficulty in determining the number of shares validly tendered, including shares tendered by guaranteed delivery procedures as described below, and not properly withdrawn, Biglari Holdings does not expect that it will be able to announce the final proration factor until five to seven business days after the expiration date. The preliminary results of any proration will be announced by press release promptly after the expiration date. Advance stockholders may obtain preliminary proration information from the information agent or exchange agent for the offer and may be able to obtain this information from their brokers.

Procedure for Tendering

For you to validly tender shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer, either (a) a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, along with any required signature guarantees, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents, must be received by the exchange agent at one of its addresses set forth on the back cover of this prospectus, and certificates for tendered shares of Advance common stock must be received by the exchange agent at such address or those shares of Advance common stock must be tendered pursuant to the procedures for book-entry transfer set forth below (and a confirmation of receipt of such tender, referred to as a "book-entry confirmation," must be received), in each case before the expiration date, or (b) you must comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth below under "The Offer—Guaranteed Delivery."

The term "agent's message" means a message transmitted by DTC to, and received by, the exchange agent and forming a part of a book-entry confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the DTC participant tendering the shares of Advance common stock that are the subject of such book-entry confirmation, that such participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal and that Biglari Holdings may enforce that agreement against such participant.

The exchange agent has established accounts with respect to the shares of Advance common stock at DTC in connection with the offer, and any financial institution that is a participant in DTC may make book-entry delivery of shares of Advance common stock by causing DTC to transfer such shares into the exchange agent's account in accordance with DTC's procedure for such transfer. However, although delivery of shares of Advance common stock may be effected through book-entry transfer at DTC, the letter of transmittal with any required signature guarantees, or an agent's message, along with any other required documents, must, in any case, be received by the exchange agent at one of its addresses set forth on the back cover of this prospectus prior to the expiration date, or the guaranteed delivery procedures described below must be followed. Biglari Holdings cannot assure you that book-entry delivery of Advance shares will be available. If book-entry delivery is not available, you must tender Advance shares by means of delivery of Advance share certificates or pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth below under "The Offer—Guaranteed Delivery."

Signatures on all letters of transmittal must be guaranteed by an eligible institution (as defined below), except (1) in cases in which shares of Advance common stock are tendered by a registered holder of shares of Advance common stock who has not completed the box entitled "Special Issuance Instructions" or the box entitled "Special Delivery Instructions" on the letter of transmittal or (2) if shares of Advance common stock are tendered for the account of a financial institution that is a member of the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program or by any other "eligible guarantor institution," as that term is defined in Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act (each of the foregoing is referred to as an "eligible institution"). Most banks, savings and loan associations and brokerage houses are able to effect these signature guarantees for you.

If the certificates for shares of Advance common stock are registered in the name of a person other than the person who signs the letter of transmittal, or if the offer consideration is to be delivered, or certificates for unexchanged shares of Advance common stock are to be issued, to a person other than the registered holder(s), the Advance share certificates must be endorsed or accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name or names of the registered owner or owners appear on the certificates, with the signature(s) on the certificates or stock powers guaranteed by an eligible institution.

In all cases, Biglari Holdings will exchange shares of Advance common stock tendered and accepted for exchange pursuant to the offer only after timely receipt by the exchange agent of certificates for shares of Advance common stock (or timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer of such securities into the exchange agent's account at DTC as described above), properly completed and duly executed letter(s) of transmittal (or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer) and any other required documents.

By executing a letter of transmittal as set forth above, you irrevocably appoint Biglari Holdings' designees as your attorneys-in-fact and proxies, each with full power of substitution, to the full extent of your rights with respect to your shares of Advance common stock tendered and accepted for exchange by Biglari Holdings and with respect to any and all other shares of Advance common stock and other securities issued or issuable in respect of such shares of Advance common stock on or after the expiration date. That appointment is effective, and voting rights will be affected, when and only to the extent that Biglari Holdings deposits with the exchange agent the shares of its common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares in consideration for the shares of Advance common stock that you have tendered. All such proxies will be considered coupled with an interest in the tendered shares of Advance common stock and therefore will not be revocable. Upon the effectiveness of such appointment, all prior proxies that you have given will be revoked, and you may not give any subsequent proxies (and, if given, they will not be deemed effective). Biglari Holdings reserves the right to require that, in order for shares of Advance common stock to be deemed validly tendered, immediately upon the exchange of those shares, Biglari Holdings must be able to exercise full voting rights with respect to those shares.

THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF ADVANCE SHARE CERTIFICATES AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS, INCLUDING DELIVERY THROUGH DTC, IS AT YOUR OPTION AND RISK, AND THE DELIVERY WILL BE DEEMED MADE ONLY WHEN ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY THE EXCHANGE AGENT. SOME STOCKHOLDERS (INCLUDING, AMONG OTHERS, ALL CORPORATIONS AND SOME FOREIGN INDIVIDUALS) ARE NOT SUBJECT TO THESE BACKUP WITHHOLDING AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS. IN ORDER FOR A FOREIGN INDIVIDUAL TO QUALIFY AS AN EXEMPT RECIPIENT, THE STOCKHOLDER MUST SUBMIT A FORM W-8BEN, SIGNED UNDER PENALTIES OF PERJURY, ATTESTING TO THAT INDIVIDUAL'S EXEMPT STATUS.

Matters Concerning Validity and Eligibility

Biglari Holdings will determine all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt) and acceptance for exchange of any tender of shares of Advance common stock, in its sole discretion, and its determination will be final and binding to the fullest extent permitted by law. Biglari Holdings reserves the absolute right to reject any and all tenders of shares of Advance common stock that it determines are not in proper form or the acceptance of or exchange for which may, in the opinion of its counsel, be unlawful. Biglari Holdings also reserves the absolute right to waive any defect or irregularity in the tender of any shares of Advance common stock. No tender of shares of Advance common stock will be deemed to have been validly made until all defects and irregularities in tenders of shares of Advance common stock have been cured or waived. None of Biglari Holdings, the exchange agent, the information agent or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in the tender of any shares of Advance common stock or will incur any liability for failure to give any such notification. Biglari Holdings' interpretation of the terms and conditions of the offer (including the letter of transmittal and instructions thereto) will be final and binding to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Withdrawal Rights

You can withdraw tendered shares at any time until the offer has expired and, if Biglari Holdings has not agreed to accept your shares for exchange by the expiration date, you can withdraw them at any time after that date until it accepts shares for exchange. If Biglari Holdings elects to extend the offer, is delayed in its acceptance for exchange of shares of Advance common stock or is unable to accept shares of Advance common stock for exchange pursuant to the offer for any reason, then, without prejudice to Biglari Holdings' rights under the offer, the exchange agent may, on behalf of Biglari Holdings, retain tendered shares of Advance common stock, and such shares of Advance common stock may not be withdrawn except to the extent that tendering stockholders are entitled to withdrawal rights as described in this section. Any such delay will be by an extension of the offer to the extent required by law. Please see the section of this prospectus entitled "The Offer — Extension, Termination and Amendment."

For a withdrawal to be effective, a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal must be timely received by the exchange agent at one of its addresses set forth on the back cover page of this prospectus. Any such notice of withdrawal must specify the name of the person who tendered the shares of Advance common stock to be withdrawn, the number of shares of Advance common stock to be withdrawn and the name of the registered holder of such shares of Advance common stock, if different from that of the person who tendered such shares of Advance common stock. If certificates evidencing shares of Advance common stock to be withdrawn have been delivered or otherwise identified to the exchange agent, then, prior to the physical release of such certificates, the serial numbers shown on such certificates must be submitted to the exchange agent and, unless such shares of Advance common stock have been tendered by or for the account of an eligible institution, the signature(s) on the notice of withdrawal must be guaranteed by an eligible institution. If shares of Advance common stock have been tendered pursuant to the procedure for book-entry transfer as set forth in the section of this prospectus entitled "The Offer — Procedure for Tendering," any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn shares of Advance common stock.

Withdrawals of shares of Advance common stock may not be rescinded. Any shares of Advance common stock properly withdrawn will thereafter be deemed not to have been validly tendered for purposes of the offer. However, withdrawn shares of Advance common stock may be re-tendered at any time prior to the expiration date by following one of the procedures discussed under the sections entitled “The Offer—Procedure for Tendering” or “The Offer—Guaranteed Delivery.”

Table of Contents

Biglari Holdings will decide all questions as to the form and validity (including time of receipt) of any notice of withdrawal in its sole discretion, and its decision shall be final and binding to the fullest extent permitted by law. None of Biglari Holdings, the exchange agent, the information agent or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in any notice of withdrawal or will incur any liability for failure to give any such notification.

Announcement of Results of the Offer

Biglari Holdings will announce by press release the final results of the offer, including whether all of the conditions to the offer have been fulfilled or waived and whether Biglari Holdings will accept the tendered shares of Advance common stock for exchange, promptly after expiration of the offer, except as otherwise provided above under “Proration.”

Ownership of Biglari Holdings After the Offer

Based on the exchange ratio for the offer and assuming that:

- Biglari Holdings exchanges pursuant to the offer the maximum 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock; and
- 1,433,587 shares of Biglari Holdings common stock, which is the number of shares outstanding as of May 20, 2010, are outstanding;

former Advance stockholders would own, in the aggregate, approximately 10.4% of the outstanding shares of Biglari Holdings common stock.

Taxation

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the offer to holders of Advance common stock whose stock is exchanged for Biglari Holdings common stock pursuant to the offer. The discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, referred to in this prospectus as the “Code,” applicable Treasury Regulations and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, each as in effect as of the date of this offer, all of which may change, possibly with retroactive effect. The discussion applies only to stockholders who hold their Advance common stock as capital assets and may not apply to stockholders subject to special rules under the Code, including, without limitation, persons who acquired their Advance common stock upon the exercise of stock options or otherwise as compensation, financial institutions, brokers, dealers or traders in securities or commodities, insurance companies, partnerships or other entities treated as partnerships or flow-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes, tax-exempt organizations, persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax, persons who hold Advance common stock as a position in a “straddle” or as part of a “hedging” or “conversion” transaction or other integrated investment, or persons that have a functional currency other than the United States dollar. This discussion does not address the U.S. federal tax consequences to any stockholder of Advance who, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is a non-resident alien individual, foreign corporation, foreign partnership or foreign estate or trust, and does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the offer.

BECAUSE INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES MAY DIFFER, EACH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD CONSULT SUCH STOCKHOLDER’S TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE APPLICABILITY OF THE RULES DISCUSSED BELOW TO SUCH STOCKHOLDER AND THE PARTICULAR TAX EFFECTS TO SUCH STOCKHOLDER OF THE OFFER, INCLUDING THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF STATE, LOCAL, AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS.

The receipt of Biglari Holdings common stock in exchange for Advance common stock pursuant to the offer is expected to be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, a stockholder who exchanges Advance common stock pursuant to the offer will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the fair market value on the date of acceptance for exchange pursuant to the offer of the Biglari Holdings common stock received and the holder's adjusted tax basis in the Advance common stock exchanged pursuant to the offer. Gain or loss will be determined separately for each block of Advance common stock (i.e., Advance common stock acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) exchanged pursuant to the offer. Any such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the stockholder has held the Advance common stock for more than one year on the date of acceptance for exchange pursuant to the offer. Long-term capital gain of noncorporate stockholders is generally taxable at a maximum federal rate of 15%. Certain limitations apply to the use of capital losses.

A holder's tax basis in the Biglari Holdings common stock received pursuant to the offer will equal its fair market value on the date of acceptance for exchange pursuant to the offer. A holder's holding period in the Biglari Holdings common stock received will begin the day following the date of acceptance for exchange pursuant to the offer.

Purpose of the Offer; Dissenters' Rights

Purpose and Structure of the Offer

Biglari Holdings is seeking to acquire up to 1,409,367 shares of Advance common stock in the offer for investment purposes. Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings intends to evaluate its investment in the Advance common stock on a continual basis.

Dissenters' Rights

Dissenters' rights are the rights of stockholders, in certain cases, to receive "fair value" for their shares, plus accrued interest, as determined by a statutorily-prescribed process, which may include a judicial appraisal process. Dissenters' rights are not available in the offer.

Plans for Advance

Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings may, from time to time, communicate with, make proposals to, or otherwise attempt to influence, Advance management, members of Advance's board of directors and other stockholders of Advance regarding the capitalization, business, operations and future plans of Advance.

Following the consummation of the offer, Biglari Holdings may, from time to time, acquire additional shares of Advance common stock, dispose of shares of Advance common stock or formulate other purposes, plans or proposals regarding Advance or the Advance common stock, to the extent deemed advisable in light of its general investment policies, market conditions or other factors.

Effect of the Offer on the Market for Shares of Advance Common Stock; Registration Under the Exchange Act; Margin Regulations

Effect of the Offer on the Market for the Shares of Advance Common Stock

The exchange of shares of Advance common stock by Biglari Holdings pursuant to the offer will reduce the number of holders of Advance common stock and the number of shares of Advance common stock held by individual holders. Biglari Holdings does not expect the offer to adversely affect the liquidity of the shares of Advance common stock.

Registration Under the Exchange Act

Based upon Advance's public filings with the SEC, Biglari Holdings believes that Advance common stock is currently registered under the Exchange Act. Biglari Holdings does not expect the offer to result in the termination of the registration of the Advance common stock under the Exchange Act.

Margin Regulations

Advance common stock is currently a "margin security" under the regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which has the effect, among other things, of allowing brokers to extend credit on the collateral of the shares of Advance common stock. Biglari Holdings does not expect the offer to adversely affect the status of Advance common stock as a "margin security" for purposes of the margin regulations of the Federal Reserve Board.

Conditions of the Offer

Notwithstanding any other provision of the offer, Biglari Holdings is not required to accept for exchange or, subject to any applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, including Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act (relating to Biglari Holdings' obligation to pay for or return tendered shares promptly after termination or expiration of the offer), exchange any shares of Advance common stock, and may terminate or amend the offer, if, at the expiration date, the following conditions have not been satisfied or, to the extent legally permissible, waived:

- the "registration statement condition"—the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part shall have become effective under the Securities Act, no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC and Biglari Holdings shall have received all necessary state securities law or "blue sky" authorizations; and

Biglari Holdings expressly reserves the right to waive any of the conditions to the offer (to the extent legally permissible) and to make any change in the terms of or conditions to the offer. Biglari Holdings' failure at any time to exercise its rights under any of these conditions will not be deemed a waiver of any such right. The waiver of any such right with respect to particular facts and circumstances will not be deemed a waiver with respect to any other facts and circumstances. Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals

General

Biglari Holdings is not aware of any governmental license or regulatory permit that appears to be material to Advance's business that might be adversely affected by Biglari Holdings' acquisition of shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer or of any approval or other action by any government or governmental administrative or regulatory authority or agency, domestic or foreign, that would be required for Biglari Holdings' acquisition or ownership of shares of Advance common stock pursuant to the offer. Should any of these approvals or other actions be required, Biglari Holdings currently contemplates that these approvals or other actions will be sought. There can be no assurance that any of these approvals or other actions, if needed, will be obtained (with or without substantial conditions) or that if these approvals were not obtained or these other actions were not taken adverse consequences might not result to Biglari Holdings, Advance or any of their respective subsidiaries, which could result in the failure of a condition to the offer. Biglari Holdings' obligation under the offer to accept for exchange and exchange shares of Advance common stock is subject to certain conditions. See "The Offer—Conditions of the Offer."

Antitrust

Biglari Holdings does not believe that the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, is applicable to the proposed transaction. Nevertheless, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, referred to in this prospectus as the "Antitrust Division," and the Federal Trade Commission, referred to in this prospectus as the "FTC," frequently scrutinize the legality under the antitrust laws of transactions such as Biglari Holdings' acquisition of shares pursuant to the offer. At any time before or after the consummation of any such transactions, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the purchase of shares pursuant to the offer or seeking divestiture of the shares so acquired. Private parties (including individual states) may also bring legal actions under the antitrust laws. Based on an examination of the publicly available information relating to the business in which Advance is engaged, Biglari Holdings does not believe that the consummation of the offer will result in a violation of any applicable antitrust laws. However, there can be no assurance that a challenge to the offer on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, what the result will be. See "Conditions of the Offer" for certain conditions to the offer, including conditions with respect to litigation and certain governmental actions.

PART II

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Indiana Business Corporation Law (“BCL”), the provisions of which govern Biglari Holdings, empowers an Indiana corporation to indemnify present and former directors, officers, employees or agents or any person who may have served at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation (“Eligible Persons”) against liability incurred in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in which the Eligible Person is made a party by reason of being or having been in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, if the individual acted in good faith and reasonably believed that (a) the individual was acting in the best interests of the corporation, (b) if the challenged action was taken other than in the individual’s official capacity as an officer, director, employee or agent, the individual’s conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation’s best interests, or (c) if a criminal proceeding, either the individual had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

The BCL further empowers a corporation to pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by an Eligible Person in connection with the defense of any such claim including counsel fees, and, unless limited by its Articles of Incorporation, the corporation is required to indemnify an Eligible Person against reasonable expenses if he or she is wholly successful in any such proceeding, on the merits or otherwise. Under certain circumstances, a corporation may pay or reimburse an Eligible Person for reasonable expenses prior to final disposition of the matter. Unless a corporation’s Articles of Incorporation otherwise provide, an Eligible Person may apply for indemnification to a court which may order indemnification upon a determination that the Eligible Person is entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances without regard to whether his or her actions satisfied the appropriate standard of conduct.

Before a corporation may indemnify any Eligible Person against liability or reasonable expenses under the BCL, a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to the proceeding must (1) determine that indemnification is permissible in the specific circumstances because an Eligible Person met the requisite standard of conduct, (2) authorize the corporation to indemnify the Eligible Person and (3) if appropriate, evaluate the reasonableness of expenses for which indemnification is sought. If it is not possible to obtain a quorum of uninvolved directors, the foregoing action may be taken by a committee of two or more directors who are not parties to the proceeding, special legal counsel selected by the board of directors or such a committee, or by the shareholders of the corporation.

In addition to the foregoing, the BCL states that the indemnification it provides shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any provision of the Articles of Incorporation, bylaws, resolution or other authorization adopted, after notice by a majority vote of all the voting shares then issued and outstanding. The BCL also empowers an Indiana corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Eligible Person against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in any capacity as such, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have had the power to indemnify him or her against such liability.

The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and the Restated Bylaws of Biglari Holdings contain provisions pursuant to which the officers and directors of Biglari Holdings are entitled to indemnification as a matter of right against expenses and liabilities incurred by them by reason of their having acted in such capacities if such person has been wholly successful in the defense of such claims or acted in good faith in what he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Biglari Holdings. Such rights are not exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such persons may be entitled by contract or a matter of law.

Biglari Holdings maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance, the effect of which is to indemnify the directors and officers of Biglari Holdings and its subsidiaries against certain losses caused by errors, misleading statements, wrongful acts, omissions, neglect or breach of duty by them of any matter claimed against them in their capacities as directors or officers.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Biglari Holdings pursuant to the foregoing provisions, Biglari Holdings has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in such Act and is therefore unenforceable.

The undersigned registrant undertakes as follows: that before any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.
