BACKGROUND TO SOLICITATION

The following is a chronology of events leading up to this proxy solicitation:

- v On October 14, 2011, HNH, together with certain other participants in this solicitation, filed a Schedule 13D with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) disclosing aggregate beneficial ownership of approximately 9.9% of the outstanding Shares. HNH and the other participants currently beneficially own a total of 6,551,185 Shares, representing approximately 14.9% of the outstanding Shares -- see the section entitled “Other Participant Information.”
- v On October 19, 2011, HNH delivered a letter to the Company requesting an exemption under the Company’s Tax Benefit Preservation Plan, which the Board adopted on October 17, 2011 (the “Tax Plan”), for HNH and its affiliates to purchase in the open market additional Shares up to an amount that would result in HNH and its affiliates owning an aggregate of approximately 14.9% of the outstanding Shares, subject to pro rata reduction to the extent other five-percent stockholders request a similar exemption under the Tax Plan and the aggregate number of Shares for which exemptions have been requested exceeds the number of Shares available for purchase without triggering an “ownership change” for purposes of Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code (“Section 382”).
- v On October 27, 2011, the Company announced that the Board had determined to grant HNH and its affiliates an exemption under the Tax Plan. The Company also noted that no other stockholders had requested similar exemptions under the Tax Plan at that time.
- v On March 7, 2012, HNH delivered a letter (the “March 7 Letter”) to the Company requesting an exemption under the Tax Plan, as well as a limited waiver under Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (“DGCL 203”), to enable HNH and its affiliates to purchase, through open market transactions, up to such number of additional Shares (without triggering an “ownership change” under Section 382) that would result in HNH and its affiliates collectively owning approximately 19.9% of the outstanding Shares.
- v On March 19, 2012, HNH received a response from the Company to the March 7 Letter. The Company’s response denied HNH’s request for a limited waiver under DGCL 203 purportedly due to the Company’s reluctance to grant such a waiver to a “related group of stockholders” during “the pendency of the Company’s strategic alternatives review process”, and expressed the Company’s view that its denial of the DGCL 203 limited waiver rendered moot HNH’s request for an exemption under the Tax Plan.
- v On March 19, 2012, HNH delivered a letter (the “March 19 Letter”) to the Company reiterating its request for an exemption under the Tax Plan to enable HNH and its affiliates to purchase, through open market transactions, up to such number of additional Shares (without triggering an “ownership change” under Section 382) that would result in HNH and its affiliates collectively owning approximately 19.9% of the outstanding Shares. The March 19 Letter contested the Board’s purported rationale for preemptorily denying HNH’s request for a limited waiver under DGCL 203, as well as the false pretense that HNH and its affiliates are a “related group of stockholders” to the Company. In addition, the March 19 Letter dismissed the Board’s unfounded presumption that a denial of the request for a limited waiver under DGCL 203 rendered moot HNH’s request for an exemption under the Tax Plan.

- v On March 21, 2012, the Board adopted a poison pill, which is triggered by the acquisition of 15% or more of the outstanding Shares.
- v On March 22, 2012, HNH received a response from the Company to the March 19 Letter granting HNH and its affiliates an exemption under the Tax Plan purportedly enabling them to purchase up to such number of additional Shares that would result in HNH and its affiliates collectively owning approximately 19.9% of the outstanding Shares. However, the Company's response specifically stated that HNH and its affiliates are subject to the terms of the poison pill, effectively rendering HNH and its affiliates unable to purchase the Shares for which an exemption was supposedly granted.
- v On March 23, 2012, HNH issued a press release announcing delivery of a letter to the Board denouncing the adoption of the poison pill by the Company as further evidence of the Board's entrenchment and calling upon the Board to promptly publicly disclose the following: (i) the current number of Shares that may be purchased by the Company's existing "5-percent stockholders" without triggering an "ownership change" under Section 382; (ii) the vote of each member of the Board on the poison pill; (iii) the progress and status of the Company's strategic alternatives review process, including, without limitation, whether the Company is pursuing a sale of the entire company or one or more individual units; and (iv) the Company's plans with respect to its business and management in the event the Company fails to execute a strategic transaction, including, without limitation, the intended structure and composition of the Board and the replacement of Joseph C. Lawler as CEO.
- v On March 27, 2012, HNH delivered to the Company a letter requesting, among other things, books and records of the Company necessary for HNH to make an independent determination as to whether the Tax Plan and/or the poison pill were primarily adopted and entered into, and are being administered, as entrenchment devices in breach of the Board's fiduciary duties to stockholders (the "March 27 Demand"). In the March 27 Demand, HNH also requested a list of the Company's stockholders in order to communicate directly with stockholders regarding Board composition and any changes HNH may recommend to the Bylaws of the Company.
- v On April 20, 2012, HNH delivered to the Company a supplement to the March 27 Demand (the "Supplement"). In the Supplement, HNH reiterated its request for documents relating to the adoption and administration of the Tax Plan and poison pill due to the Company's refusal to provide such documents in response to the March 27 Demand. HNH expressed its view that the granting of the requests stated in the March 27 Demand would, among other things, serve the best interests of all stockholders in preserving and maximizing the value of the Company's substantial net operating loss carryforwards ("NOLs").
- v On April 24, 2012, HNH and the Company entered into a confidentiality agreement relating to the stockholder lists requested in the March 27 Demand (the "Confidentiality Agreement").

- v On May 1, 2012, HNH filed a complaint in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware against the Company (the “Complaint”). The Complaint sought to enforce HNH’s statutory right under Delaware law and compel the Company to make available to HNH certain books and records previously requested by HNH, which the Company had refused to provide. The Complaint expressed HNH’s concern, among other things, that the Board is failing to adequately protect the significant tax benefits associated with the Company’s net operating losses, which would materially and adversely affect the interests of all stockholders.
- v On May 30, 2012, HNH and the Company entered into an Amendment and Supplement to the Confidentiality Agreement relating to the March 27 Demand and Supplement, and pursuant to which the Complaint was dismissed without prejudice.
- v On June 20, 2012, HNH delivered a letter to the Board regarding the Company’s June 11, 2012 announcement of material accounting improprieties, discovered as a result of an SEC inquiry, requiring the Company to restate financial statements, prompting the retirement of CEO Joseph C. Lawler, and subjecting the Shares to potential delisting by Nasdaq.
- v On June 27, 2012, HNH entered into a confidentiality agreement with the Company regarding a potential negotiated transaction.
- v Subsequently, representatives of HNH met with members of the Company’s management, members of the Board and the Company’s legal and financial advisors, in person and by telephone, concerning the composition of the Board and a possible transaction with the Company in an effort to raise needed capital and shore up the Company’s cash position. During this period, HNH and its representatives conducted a due diligence review of the Company and received management presentations from representatives of the Company. On September 25, 2012, HNH first proposed a transaction to raise up to $100 million at a price of $5.00 per Share in the form of a rights offering that would enable all stockholders to subscribe for Shares at that price and thereby participate in any future growth of the Company. The proposal included Board representation and HNH’s commitment to backstop the rights offering to the maximum extent possible without triggering an “ownership change” under Section 382. Although HNH and its representatives continued to have good faith discussions with the Company and its advisors regarding alternative transaction structures to achieve the Company’s capital-raising objective, including a direct investment by HNH, as well as the composition of the Board and management, HNH ultimately determined that the Company’s deteriorating financial performance and forecasts did not currently support the valuation it had previously proposed .
- v On September 28, 2012, HNH delivered a letter to the Company pursuant to its Bylaws nominating the Nominees for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting.
- v On December 17, 2012, HNH delivered a letter to the Board in an effort to reach an agreement in advance of the Annual Meeting regarding the composition of the Board and a potential rights offering .

REASONS FOR THE SOLICITATION

We are soliciting your support to elect our Nominees at the Annual Meeting. We believe the current Board is the very embodiment of mismanagement and poor corporate governance, and has overseen a massive destruction of stockholder value. Accordingly, we have little confidence the Board as currently composed will adequately address the following serious issues that face the Company:

- We are highly concerned with the Company's poor stock price performance, both on a total return basis and as compared to its peers;
- We believe the current Board has overseen an extended period of failed leadership and disastrous financial performance;
  - We are concerned with the Board's continued failure to identify qualified executives to lead the Company;
- We believe the Board has failed to adequately address serious corporate governance and accounting issues, including the Company's staggered board, excessive executive compensation, adoption of a poison pill rights plan and the financial restatement;
- We are concerned with the Company's extensive periods of non-compliance with Nasdaq and SEC listing and reporting rules; and
- We have substantial doubts that the strategic review process being conducted by the Board will result in a transaction that is in stockholders' best interests.

In our view, the Board and management have had ample time to appropriately address these concerns, yet have failed to do so. If elected at the Annual Meeting, our Nominees, who would represent a minority of the Board, would seek to work with the other Board members to promptly address these concerns. Our Nominees will, subject to their fiduciary duties as directors, endeavor to work with the other members of the Board to take the necessary steps to reverse the Company's poor performance and focus on establishing a profitable business in an effort to maximize stockholder value.

THE BOARD HAS OVERSEEN THE COMPANY'S DISMAL FINANCIAL AND STOCK PRICE PERFORMANCE AND, IN OUR VIEW, IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LEADERSHIP VOID THAT EXISTS AT THE COMPANY

We believe the Company's Share price performance reflects the inability of the Board to adequately address the serious issues facing the Company

We believe the leadership void at the Board level is reflected in the Company's dismal stock price performance, both on a total return basis and as compared to its peer group. Consider the following:

- Over the last one-, three- and five-year periods ended December 31, 2012, the Company's stock price has declined approximately 46.3%, 64.2% and 74.3%, respectively.
- From June 30, 2003, just after Company nominees Francis J. Jules and Michael J. Mardy first joined the Board, to December 31, 2012, the Company's stock price has dropped over 77%, as compared to an increase of over 89% for the Russell 2000 index. The Company is a component of the Russell 2000 index, the peer group used for benchmarking of the Company's stock price performance by Institutional Shareholder Services Inc. ("ISS"), a leading independent proxy advisory firm.

- Following the Company's June 11, 2012 announcement of its accounting improprieties, the Company's stock price cratered, plummeting nearly 35% from $4.26 to $2.78, a level not seen since 2009! The fact that, in the ensuing six months, the Company's stock price has recovered only to $2.90 at December 31, 2012, demonstrates, in our view, the continued extreme pessimism among investors in the ability of this Board to enhance value for stockholders.

The Board continued to support and reward former CEO Joseph Lawler despite his track record of failure

The Company's two director nominees, Messrs. Jules and Mardy, have each served on the Board since 2003. In 2004, the Board hired Joseph C. Lawler as Chief Executive Officer, even though he had no prior CEO experience. During Mr. Lawler's tenure, the Company's revenues sank from $1.1 billion in fiscal 2007 to $876 million in fiscal 2011, while operating income fell from a positive $14.8 million to a loss of $35.0 million. Despite the Company's deplorable financial performance, precarious balance sheet and widespread outcry among stockholders for Mr. Lawler's ouster, this Board continued to support Mr. Lawler, paying him over $18 million in cash and stock compensation!

The Company's announcement in June 2012 of material accounting improprieties finally provided an impetus for Mr. Lawler's retirement from the Company and resignation from the Board. Yet the Board continued its pattern of rewarding him for failure, entering into a Separation and Release Agreement with Mr. Lawler on June 11, 2012 that awarded him nearly $1.5 million in severance payments plus accelerated vesting of his option and restricted stock grants.

We are concerned with the Board's continued failure to identify qualified executives to lead the Company

Following the Company's announcement of material accounting improprieties in June 2012, two of its five named executive officers resigned or were separated from the Company. Six months later and counting, the Board has yet to identify qualified replacements to fill these gaping holes in the Company's senior management team to provide the Company with a much-needed new direction and sense of urgency. Most troubling, the Board has failed to hire a new CEO despite the fact that this position has remained vacant for over six months. In the meantime, we have offered the services of a team of highly-qualified professionals with substantial relevant industry, operational, financial and legal experience that is fully prepared to assume senior management positions and hit the ground running on day one to help turn around the Company's performance. The Board refused our offer and has instead spent valuable time and resources, including the retention of an executive recruiting firm, in a fruitless search that has produced no results and left the Company languishing without a CEO for over half a year. Given the importance of having quality executive leadership in place to help drive a turnaround in the Company's business, the amount of time this Board has had to identify qualified executives to lead the Company, and the Board's failure thus far to do so, we question whether this Board as currently composed has the ability to identify and effectively execute necessary actions to improve value for stockholders.

WE BELIEVE THE BOARD HAS FAILED TO ADEQUATELY ADDRESS THE COMPANY'S SERIOUS CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND ACCOUNTING ISSUES, INCLUDING THE STAGGERED BOARD, EXCESSIVE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION, POISON PILL AND FINANCIAL RESTATEMENT

We believe that the Company's proposal to de-stagger the Board ignores the clear will of stockholders

At the Company's 2011 annual meeting, stockholders overwhelmingly demanded (by a 10 to 1 margin!) the elimination of the Company's classified board of directors. While the Board has included a proposal for this year's Annual Meeting to declassify the Board, it is clear to us the Board is doing the bare minimum. The Board's proposal does not eliminate the classification of the Board at the Annual Meeting, nor does it provide that all directors will be up for annual election this year. Directors elected at the Annual Meeting will serve three-year terms. Rather, the Board's proposal eliminates the classification of the Board over a three-year period and only provides for the annual election of all directors beginning at the 2015 annual meeting. It is astounding to us that the Board concluded in its proxy statement that the Board's "classified structure has helped assure continuity of the Company's business strategies and has reinforced a commitment to long-term stockholder value." Ask yourselves: Is it any wonder this Board is facing a proxy contest for the third year in a row?

We are concerned with this Board's failure to align executive compensation with the Company's performance

We believe management's ability to properly evaluate and address the serious challenges facing the Company is further compromised by the misalignment between compensation and the Company's performance.

Two out of the last three years, the Company has received an F grade — the absolute worst grade — from Glass Lewis & Co., a leading independent proxy advisory firm ("Glass Lewis"), for its executive compensation. Specifically, Glass Lewis noted that the Company paid more compensation to its top officers than its peers, despite the Company's worse performance, and further noted that "certain incumbent board members are responsible for executive compensation decisions that have left [the Company] wallowing in mediocrity relative to its peers." (emphasis added) Needless to say, Glass Lewis did not recommend stockholders vote for the Company's incumbent directors at the Company's 2011 annual meeting of stockholders.

In fiscal 2012, the Board continued to reward executives for performance failures at the expense of stockholders. Despite the material accounting deficiencies contained in the Company's SEC filings, and related weaknesses in internal control, the Board handed two of the senior executives who are directly responsible for the oversight of the Company's financial statements and SEC filings — Steven G. Crane, Chief Financial Officer, and Peter L. Gray, Executive Vice President and General Counsel — an absolutely baffling $800,000 in retention bonuses! These retention bonuses come despite the fact that Messrs. Crane and Gray have been with the Company since 2007 and 1999, respectively. Mr. Gray also received a promotion and a 30% raise!

We believe it is deplorable for the Board to reward senior executives for failure while stockholders are suffering as a result of egregious Board and management lapses.

We are concerned that this Board's adoption of a poison pill is designed to entrench the incumbent directors

We question the Board's rationale for adopting its poison pill when it had previously instituted a so-called Tax Benefit Preservation Plan (the "Tax Plan"). The Board adopted its poison pill, which has a 15% ownership threshold, (1) even though the Tax Plan already prohibits stockholders from acquiring 4.99% or more of the outstanding Shares, and prohibits stockholders that own more than 4.99% of the outstanding Shares from acquiring any additional Shares without express Board approval, and (2) a mere two days after we requested an exemption under the Tax Plan to increase our ownership from 14.9% to no more than 19.9% of the outstanding Shares, without a waiver under DGCL 203. The Board then proceeded to grant us an exemption under the Tax Plan, but not under the poison pill, effectively rendering us unable to purchase the Shares for which the Board had purportedly granted us an exemption! Such gamesmanship should be beneath a public company board.

As Glass Lewis has stated, "poison pills are not conducive to good corporate governance" and "can reduce management accountability by substantially limiting opportunities for corporate takeovers." In our view, the need for accountability for this Board has never been more apparent. Yet the Board chose not to subject the poison pill to stockholder approval. In our view, given that the Tax Plan already provided for strict limitations on the ability to acquire additional Shares (absent the Board's approval in its sole discretion), the Board's adoption of the poison pill, on top of the Tax Plan, is entirely redundant and equivalent to complete entrenchment of the Board without any regard for stockholders.

We believe the enrichment and entrenchment of the Board and management at the expense of stockholders, evidenced by these continuing corporate governance failures, cannot be allowed to continue.

We believe the Company's two nominees, who both serve on the Audit Committee, must be held accountable for the Company's accounting and internal control deficiencies

The Company's two nominees, Francis J. Jules and Michael J. Mardy, are both members of the Company's Audit Committee, with Mr. Mardy serving as its Chair. The Company's proxy statement describes the Audit Committee's primary function as "assist[ing] the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to stockholders concerning the Company's financial reporting and internal controls..." In this regard, we believe Messrs. Jules and Mardy have failed miserably. The Audit Committee did not detect the Company's material accounting issues, which were discovered only as a result of an SEC inquiry and required a restatement of its financial results spanning six (6) years, or the related weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting. The Company's restatement process has subjected the Shares to potential delisting and led to the further destruction of stockholder value. We believe Messrs. Jules and Mardy must be held responsible for failing to exercise the diligence and oversight their jobs clearly require.

WE BELIEVE THE BOARD MUST BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR THE COMPANY'S NON-COMPLIANCE WITH SEC AND NASDAQ RULES, AND LACK OF STRATEGIC DIRECTION

We are concerned with the Company's extensive periods of non-compliance with Nasdaq and SEC listing and reporting rules

Following announcement of the Company's accounting improprieties in June 2012, it has taken the Company over six months to regain compliance with the SEC's reporting requirements, with the Company not having filed with the SEC an annual or quarterly report, or issued any earnings release or other definitive guidance, for over nine (9) months. Furthermore, the Company has yet to bring itself back into compliance with Nasdaq's continued listing standards, subjecting the Shares to the risk of delisting. We believe the Board has displayed an extreme lack of urgency and indifference to stockholders' interests in failing to expeditiously resolve these critical matters. In our view, the prolonged lack of financial disclosure and transparency has caused tremendous uncertainty in the markets, further exacerbating the downward pressure on the Company's already tenuous stock price.

We have substantial doubts that the strategic review process being conducted by the Board will result in a transaction that is in stockholders' best interests

Against this backdrop, the Board has been conducting a strategic review process for over one year that, in our view, has been adversely impacted by the Company's accounting restatement, continued deterioration of its financial performance and bleak outlook for a turnaround in the near future. As a result, we question whether this process will result in a transaction that truly maximizes value for stockholders. Given this Board's track record, and the fact that all of the incumbent directors combined own less than 1% of the Company's outstanding Shares, ask yourselves whether you trust the current Board to protect your interests in entering into a significant strategic transaction at a time when the Company has a dire need for a capital infusion. As the Company's largest stockholder, owning 14.9% of the outstanding Shares, our interests are clearly aligned with yours in ensuring that this process produces an outcome that benefits all stockholders. We believe that stockholder representation on the Board is critical to obtaining a result that is designed to maximize stockholder value and have full faith that our Nominees would work effectively to protect stockholders' interests and improve stockholder value.

OUR NOMINEES HAVE A PLAN TO ENHANCE VALUE FOR STOCKHOLDERS

Our Nominees have identified specific actions to turn around the Company's poor performance. Specifically, if elected, our Nominees would work with the other members of the Board, providing invaluable insight and bringing their extensive experience to bear to, among other things,

- Immediately fill open senior management positions with highly qualified individuals having substantial relevant industry experience.
- Redeem the poison pill so that stockholders willing to buy additional Shares and support the floundering stock can do so.

- Explore a rights offering to all existing stockholders to raise needed capital and shore up the Company's cash position, which would allow all stockholders to benefit from any future appreciation in value of the Company. We are willing to backstop this rights offering to the maximum extent allowable to preserve the Company's NOLs, ensuring that the Company receives sufficient working capital to invest in its deteriorating businesses.
- Conduct a comprehensive review of the Company's operational and corporate overhead and infrastructure to reduce unnecessary expenses.
- Engage in a detailed evaluation of the Company's operating structure to identify opportunities to sell or appropriately finance or refinance any non-core or underperforming business units, real estate and other assets, and refinance the Company's credit facility, with the goal of generating significant free cash flow.
- Determine the best use of the Company's capital base to drive profitability and maximize utilization of the Company's substantial NOLs, one of its most valuable assets.

Our Nominees have the experience and qualifications necessary to maximize value for stockholders

We believe our Nominees have the qualifications and experience necessary to assist the Board in the challenges identified above and in taking the necessary steps to enhance stockholder value.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company has a classified Board, which currently consists of two Class I directors, three Class II directors, and two Class III directors. We believe that the terms of two Class I directors expire at the Annual Meeting. We are seeking your support at the Annual Meeting to elect our Nominees in opposition to the Company's two Class I director nominees. Your vote to elect such Nominees will have the legal effect of replacing the two incumbent Class I directors with the Nominees. If elected, such Nominees will represent a minority of the members of the Board, and therefore it is not guaranteed that they can implement the actions that they believe are necessary to enhance stockholder value.

THE NOMINEES

The following information sets forth the name, age, present principal occupation, and employment and material occupations, positions, offices, employments and directorships for the past five years of each of the Nominees. The specific experience, qualifications, attributes and skills that led us to conclude that the Nominees should serve as directors of the Company are set forth above in the section entitled "Reasons For Our Solicitation." This information has been furnished to us by the Nominees.

Warren G. Lichtenstein (Age 47) has served as the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the general partner of Steel Holdings, a global diversified holding company that owns and operates businesses and has significant interests in leading companies in a variety of industries, including diversified industrial products, energy, defense, banking, insurance, and food products and services, since July 15, 2009. He is also the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Steel Partners LLC ("Steel Partners"), a subsidiary of Steel Holdings, and has been associated with Steel Partners and its affiliates since 1990. Mr. Lichtenstein has served as Chairman of the Board of HNH, a diversified global industrial company, since July 2005. He is a Co-Founder of Steel Partners Japan Strategic Fund (Offshore), L.P., a private investment partnership investing in Japan, and Steel Partners China Access I LP, a private equity partnership investing in China. He also co-founded Steel Partners II, L.P. ("SPII"), a private investment partnership that is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of Steel Holdings, in 1993. Mr. Lichtenstein has served as a director of GenCorp Inc., a manufacturer of aerospace and defense products and systems with a real estate business segment, since March 2008. He has served as a director of SL Industries, Inc. ("SLI"), a company that designs, manufactures and markets power electronics, motion control, power protection, power quality electromagnetic and specialized communication equipment, since March 2010. He previously served as a director (formerly Chairman of the Board) of SLI from January 2002 to May 2008 and served as Chief Executive Officer from February 2002 to August 2005. He has served as a director (currently Chairman of the Board) of Steel Excel Inc. ("Steel Excel"), a company whose business is expected to consist primarily of capital redeployment and identification of new, profitable operations in the sports, training, education, entertainment and lifestyle businesses, since October 2010. Mr. Lichtenstein served as the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of SP Acquisition Holdings, Inc. ("SPAH"), a company formed for the purpose of acquiring one or more businesses or assets, from February 2007 until October 2009. He served as a director of WebFinancial Corporation, a predecessor entity of Steel Holdings, from 1996 to June 2005, as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer from December 1997 to June 2005 and as President from December 1997 to December 2003. From May 2001 to November 2007, Mr. Lichtenstein served as a director (formerly Chairman of the Board) of United Industrial Corporation ("United Industrial"), a company principally focused on the design, production and support of defense systems, which was acquired by Textron Inc. He served as a director of KT&G Corporation, South Korea's largest tobacco company, from March 2006 to March 2008. Mr. Lichtenstein served as a director of Layne Christensen Company, a provider of products and services for the water, mineral, construction and energy markets, from January 2004 to October 2006. Mr. Lichtenstein does not directly own, and has not purchased or sold during the past two years, any securities of the Company. Mr. Lichtenstein is a citizen of the United States of America.

Richard K. McClelland (Age 61) has served as an advisor and consultant in the transportation and logistics industry since 2011. Previously, he served as a director and Chairman of the Board of Dynamex Inc. (“Dynamex”), a provider of local and regional transportation and distribution services throughout the United States and Canada, from May 1995 and February 1996, respectively, until its merger with TransForce Inc. in February 2011. Mr. McClelland served as Dynamex’s President and Chief Executive Officer from May 1995 until November 2008. Mr. McClelland became the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of Dynamex in May 1995 upon the closing of Dynamex’s acquisition of Dynamex Express (the ground courier division of Air Canada), where he also served as President since 1988. Prior to joining Dynamex Express in 1986, Mr. McClelland held a number of advisory and management positions with the Irving Group, Purolator Courier Ltd., where he was engaged in the domestic and international transportation and logistics industries. Mr. McClelland does not directly own, and has not purchased or sold during the past two years, any securities of the Company. Mr. McClelland is a citizen of Canada.

If elected as a director of the Company, each of the Nominees would be an “independent director” within the meaning of applicable Nasdaq listing standards applicable to board composition and Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Each of the Nominees, as a member of a “group” for the purposes of Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), with the other members of the Group (as defined below), may be deemed to beneficially own the securities of the Company beneficially owned in the aggregate by all the members of the Group. Each of the Nominees specifically disclaims beneficial ownership of all such securities.

On September 28, 2012, HNH together with the Nominees and the other participants named herein (the “Group”) entered into a Joint Filing and Solicitation Agreement pursuant to which, among other things, the parties agreed to solicit proxies or written consents to elect the Nominees to the Board at the Annual Meeting and to take all other action necessary or advisable to achieve the foregoing (the “Solicitation”), and HNH agreed to bear all expenses incurred in connection with the Group’s activities with respect to the Solicitation, subject to certain limitations.

On September 28, 2012, HNH entered into an Indemnification Agreement with Mr. McClelland pursuant to which it agreed to indemnify Mr. McClelland from and against claims arising from the Solicitation and any related matters.

Other than as stated herein, there are no arrangements or understandings between or among HNH, any of the other members of the Group and any of the Nominees or any other person or persons pursuant to which the nomination of the Nominees described herein is to be made, other than the consent by each of the Nominees to be named in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a director of the Company if elected as such at the Annual Meeting. None of the Nominees is a party adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or has a material interest adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries in any material pending legal proceedings.

We do not expect that the Nominees will be unable to stand for election, but, in the event any Nominee is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, the Shares represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for substitute nominee(s), to the extent this is not prohibited under the Third Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the "Bylaws") and applicable law. In addition, we reserve the right to nominate substitute person(s) if the Company makes or announces any changes to its Bylaws or takes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying any Nominee, to the extent this is not prohibited under the Bylaws and applicable law. In any such case, Shares represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for such substitute nominee(s). We reserve the right to nominate additional person(s), to the extent this is not prohibited under the Bylaws and applicable law, if the Company increases the size of the Board above its existing size or increases the number of directors whose terms expire at the Annual Meeting. Additional nominations made pursuant to the preceding sentence are without prejudice to the position of HNH that any attempt to increase the size of the current Board or to reconstitute or reconfigure the classes on which the current directors serve constitutes an unlawful manipulation of the Company's corporate machinery.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES ON THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

APPROVAL OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

As discussed in further detail in the Company's proxy statement, the Company is submitting for stockholder approval an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation that would phase in the declassification of the Board. The proposed amendment eliminates the classification of the Board over a three-year period, provides for the annual election of all directors beginning at the 2015 annual meeting of stockholders and makes certain conforming changes to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws.

Although we strongly believe that the Company's declassification proposal should de-stagger the Board, and provide for the annual election of all directors, at this Annual Meeting, we believe that the Company's proposal, as it stands, is nonetheless preferable to maintaining the classification of the Board. We therefore intend to vote our Shares in favor of this proposal, approval of which requires the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the outstanding Shares entitled to vote.

WE RECOMMEND THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE IN FAVOR OF THIS PROPOSAL.

PROPOSAL NO. 3

ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

As discussed in further detail in the Company's proxy statement, the Company is providing stockholders with the opportunity to approve on an advisory basis the compensation of the Company's named executive officers as disclosed in the Company's proxy statement. This proposal will be presented at the Annual Meeting as a resolution in substantially the following form:

"Resolved, that the stockholders approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the Company's named executive officers as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis, the Summary Compensation Table and other related tables and disclosures in [the Company's] proxy statement."

This vote will not be binding on the Board.

We intend to vote our Shares against this proposal for the following reasons:

- As noted above, two out of the last three years, the Company has received an F grade — the absolute worst grade — from Glass Lewis for its executive compensation. Specifically, Glass Lewis noted that the Company paid more compensation to its top officers than its peers, despite the Company's worse performance, and further noted that "certain incumbent board members are responsible for executive compensation decisions that have left [the Company] wallowing in mediocrity relative to its peers." (emphasis added)
- Despite the fact that during former CEO Joseph Lawler's tenure, the Company's revenues sank from $1.1 billion in fiscal 2007 to $876 million in fiscal 2011, while operating income fell from a positive $14.8 million to a loss of $35.0 million, Mr. Lawler was paid over $18 million in cash and stock compensation.
- We believe the Board's executive compensation decisions in fiscal 2012 continue to be indefensible. Four of the Company's five named executive officers, including two who are no longer with the Company, were granted a total of more than $2.7 million in retention bonuses and severance payments, despite the Company's deteriorating financial and stock price performance and these executives' failed oversight of the Company's financial statements and internal control.

We do not believe that the compensation the Board has awarded to the Company's executives is appropriate for a Company that has seen stock price declines over the last one-, three- and five-year periods ended December 31, 2012 of approximately 46.3%, 64.2% and 74.3%, respectively, and whose stock price as of December 31, 2012 traded at a level not seen since 2009. Accordingly, we intend to vote our Shares against this proposal.

WE RECOMMEND THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL.

PROPOSAL NO. 4

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

According to the Company's proxy statement, the Audit Committee of the Board has appointed KPMG LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2013.

WE MAKE NO RECOMMENDATION WITH RESPECT TO THIS PROPOSAL AND INTEND TO VOTE OUR SHARES "FOR" THIS PROPOSAL.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Only stockholders of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each Share is entitled to one vote. Stockholders who sell Shares before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such Shares. Stockholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Annual Meeting even if they sell such Shares after the Record Date. Based on publicly available information, we believe that the only outstanding class of securities of the Company entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is the Shares.

Shares represented by properly executed GOLD proxy cards will be voted at the Annual Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, will be voted FOR the election of the Nominees to the Board, FOR the amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to declassify the Board, AGAINST the advisory vote on executive compensation, FOR the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the current fiscal year, and in the discretion of the persons named as proxies on all other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

According to the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting, the current Board intends to nominate two candidates for election as Class I directors at the Annual Meeting. This Proxy Statement is soliciting proxies to elect only our Nominees. Accordingly, the enclosed GOLD proxy card may only be voted for our Nominees and does not confer voting power with respect to the Company's, Peerless' or any other third party's, nominees. The participants in this solicitation intend to vote all of their Shares in favor of the Nominees.

QUORUM; ABSTENTIONS; BROKER NON-VOTES

According to the Company's proxy statement, the presence of a majority of the outstanding Shares represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will constitute a quorum.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be considered shares "present and entitled to vote" for the purpose of determining whether a quorum exists. A "broker non-vote" occurs when a custodian does not vote on a particular proposal because it has not received voting instructions from the applicable beneficial owner and does not have discretionary voting power on the matter in question.

With respect to the election of directors, the advisory vote on executive compensation and the ratification of the appointment of the independent registered accounting firm, abstentions and any "broker non-votes" will not be included in the vote totals and, as such, will have no effect on the outcome of these proposals. With respect to the proposal to declassify the Board, abstentions and any "broker non-votes" will have the same effect as votes cast against this proposal.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Election of Directors According to the Company's proxy statement, the two nominees for Director receiving the highest vote totals will be elected as directors of the Company. Withheld votes will have no impact on the election of directors.

Declassification of Board According to the Company's proxy statement, approval of the amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to declassify the Board (Proposal No. 2) will require the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the outstanding Shares entitled to vote.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation and Ratification Of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm According to the Company's proxy statement, approval of the advisory vote on executive compensation (Proposal No. 3 and ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal No. 4) will each require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on each proposal.

REVOCACTION OF PROXIES

Stockholders of the Company may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to HNH in care of MacKenzie Partners, Inc. at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to the Company at 1601 Trapelo Road, Waltham, Massachusetts 02451, or any other address provided by the Company. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to the Company, HNH requests that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed to HNH in care of MacKenzie Partners, Inc. at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement so that HNH will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date of a majority of the outstanding Shares. Additionally, MacKenzie Partners, Inc. may use this information to contact stockholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies for the election of the Nominees.

IF YOU WISH TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES TO THE BOARD, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The solicitation of proxies pursuant to this Proxy Statement is being made by HNH. Proxies may be solicited by mail, facsimile, telephone, telegraph, Internet, in person and by advertisements.

HNH has entered into an agreement with MacKenzie Partners, Inc. for solicitation and advisory services in connection with this solicitation, for which MacKenzie Partners, Inc. will receive a fee not to exceed $[ ], together with reimbursement for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and will be indemnified against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws. It is anticipated that MacKenzie Partners, Inc. will employ approximately [ ] persons to solicit the Company's stockholders for the Annual Meeting.

HNH intends to seek reimbursement from the Company of all expenses it incurs in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the election of the Nominees to the Board at the Annual Meeting. HNH does not intend to submit the question of such reimbursement to a vote of security holders of the Company.
