Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 12, 2010, Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”), the parent company of Berkshire Bank, and Rome Bancorp, Inc. (“Rome”), the parent company of The Rome Savings Bank (“Rome Bank”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which Rome will merge with and into the Company. Concurrent with the merger, it is expected that Rome Bank will merge with and into Berkshire Bank.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, 70% of the outstanding shares of Rome common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.5658 shares of Company common stock for each share of Rome and the remaining 30% of outstanding shares of Rome will be exchanged for $11.25 in cash. Rome stockholders will have the right to elect to receive cash or Company Common Stock as outlined above, subject to 70% of Rome common stock receiving Company stock and the proration procedures contained in the Merger Agreement.

The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of regulatory approvals and approval by the shareholders of Rome. The merger is currently expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2011.

The directors and executive officers of Rome have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement at the shareholders meeting to be held to vote on the proposed transaction. If the merger is not consummated under certain circumstances, Rome has agreed to pay the Company a termination fee of $3.5 million.

The Merger Agreement also contains usual and customary representations and warranties that the Company and Rome made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the Company and Rome, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between the Company and Rome rather than establishing matters as facts.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. An information presentation with additional information about the merger will be posted promptly in the Investor Relations section of Berkshire’s website at www.berkshirebank.com. Berkshire has a previously announced conference call to discuss third quarter earnings and earnings guidance on Thursday, October 21, 2010 and management will also plan to discuss this merger announcement on that call.

The Company will be filing a registration statement containing a proxy statement/prospectus and other documents regarding the proposed transaction with the SEC. Rome shareholders are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available, because it will contain important information about the Company and Rome and the proposed transaction. When available, copies of this proxy statement/prospectus will be mailed to Rome shareholders. Copies of the proxy statement/prospectus may be obtained free of charge at the SEC’s web site at <http://www.sec.gov>, or by directing a request to Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc., Attention – Investor Relations Department, 24 North Street, Pittsfield, Massachusetts 01201, or to Rome Bancorp, Inc., 100 W. Dominick Street, Rome, NY 13440. Copies of other documents filed by the Company and Rome with the SEC may also be obtained free of charge at the SEC’s web site or by directing a request to the Company at the address provided above.

Berkshire and Rome and certain of their directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the stockholders of Rome in connection with the proposed merger. Information about the directors and executive officers of Berkshire is set forth in the proxy statement, dated March 26, 2010, for Berkshire’s 2010 annual meeting of stockholders, as filed with the SEC on Schedule 14A. Information about the directors and
