Announcement Regarding the News in the Media

Subject: Statement made pursuant to Communique II-15.1 of the Capital Markets Board

This announcement concerns news and comments in the media regarding one of our major shareholders, Çukurova Holding, which has reportedly not exercised its buy-out right on the indirect stake of another major shareholder, Alfa Telecom and with reference to the decision of London Court of International Arbitration.

Our Company has no direct information on the disputes between our shareholders, as it is not a party to the related court cases. Our Board of Directors, all members of which meet independency criteria, and our senior management team, continue to work towards generating value for all of our stakeholders.
