CELLCOM ISRAEL ANNOUNCES FILING OF SUPPLEMENTAL SHELF OFFERING REPORT IN ISRAEL

Netanya, Israel – March 18, 2012 – Cellcom Israel Ltd. (NYSE: CEL) (TASE: CEL) (hereinafter: the "Company") announced that, following the Company's previously announced possible debt raising in Israel, the Company has filed today a supplemental shelf offering report, or Offering Report, with the Israeli Securities Authority and the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, or TASE. Pursuant to the Offering Report the Company is offering, in Israel only, new series F debentures in an aggregate principal amount of up to NIS 714,802,000, and new series G debentures in an aggregate principal amount of up to NIS 285,198,000.

The series F and series G debentures are unsecured and contain standard terms and conditions in addition to certain additional undertakings by the Company as detailed in the Company's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2011, on Form 20-F, under "Item 5 – Operating and Financial Review and Prospects – B. Liquidity and Capital Resources – Debt Service – Shelf Prospectus". They will be listed for trade on the TASE.

The Company has received early commitments from institutional investors for the purchase of the following:

- series F debentures in the aggregate principal amount of NIS 607,735,000, at an interest rate of no more than 4.35% per annum, linked to the Israeli Consumer Purchase Index. The series will be sold at par value (NIS 1,000 per unit); and
- series G debentures in the aggregate principal amount of NIS 235,198,000, an interest rate of no more than 6.75% per annum, without linkage. The series will be sold at par value (NIS 1,000 per unit).

In consideration for making early commitments, the institutional investors will receive an early commitment commission in the amount of 0.6% for series F and 0.6% for series G. The public tender for both series of debentures is expected to be held today.

The aggregate amount that the Company expects to pay in arrangement fees and other expenses in connection with this offering (assuming total consideration of approximately NIS 1 billion), including the aforesaid commitments, is approximately NIS 8.4 million. The Company estimates that the net proceeds from the Offering, if completed, will be approximately NIS 991.6 million, after deduction of the arrangers' fees and other estimated expenses.

The Company intend to use the net proceeds from the offering for general corporate purposes, which may include financing its operating and investment activity, refinancing of outstanding debt under its debentures, and continued dividend distributions as customary in the Company, subject to certain restrictions that apply to dividend distributions made by the Company and to the decisions of the Company's board of directors from time to time.

For additional details of the Company's Israeli shelf prospectus, public debentures and contemplated debt raising see the Company's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2011 on Form 20-F, under "Item 5. Liquidity and Capital Resources – Debt Service – Shelf prospectus" and " – Public Debentures" and the Company's current report on Form 6-K filed on March 8, 2012, and the Company's current report on Form 6-K filed on March 13, 2012; for details of the Company's dividend policy see the Company's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2011 on Form 20-F under "Item 8. Financial Information - A. Consolidated Statements and Other Financial Information - Dividend Policy".

Edgar Filing: Cellcom Israel Ltd. - Form 6-K

The offering described in this press release, will be made in Israel to residents of Israel only. The said debentures will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and will not be offered or sold in the United States or to U.S. persons. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any debentures.
