Table of ContentsKIRKLAND'S, INC.*NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)*Note 1 Basis of Presentation

Kirkland's, Inc. (the Company) is a specialty retailer of home décor with 296 stores in 29 states as of October 30, 2010. The consolidated financial statements of the Company include the accounts of Kirkland's, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Kirkland's Stores, Inc. and Kirklands.com, Inc. Significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, including normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 15, 2010.

It should be understood that accounting measurements at interim dates inherently involve greater reliance on estimates than those at fiscal year end. In addition, because of seasonality factors, the results of the Company's operations for the 13-week and 39-week periods ended October 30, 2010 may not be indicative of the results to be expected for any other interim period or for the entire fiscal year. The Company's fiscal year ends on the Saturday closest to January 31, resulting in years of either 52 or 53 weeks. All references to a fiscal year refer to the fiscal year ending on the Saturday closest to January 31 of the following year.

The preparation of the unaudited consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions used.

Changes in estimates are recognized in the period when new information becomes available to management. Areas where the nature of the estimate makes it reasonably possible that actual results could materially differ from amounts estimated include: impairment assessments on long-lived assets, inventory reserves, self-insurance reserves, income tax liabilities, stock-based compensation, gift certificate and gift card breakage, customer loyalty program accruals and contingent liabilities.

Certain prior period balances have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. The expenses associated with the Company's customer loyalty program were reclassified during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009 to cost of sales from other operating expenses. This reclassification on the statements of income was made in all prior periods presented for comparability purposes. The amounts reclassified for the 13-week and 39-week periods ended October 31, 2009 were $212,000, and $373,000, respectively. These reclassifications had no effect on net income, shareholders' equity, total assets and total liabilities, or the major categories of the cash flow statement.

Note 2 Income Taxes

An estimate of the annual effective tax rate is used at each interim period based on the facts and circumstances available at that time, while the actual effective tax rate is calculated at year-end. For the 13-week period ended October 30, 2010, the Company recorded income tax expense of 40.0% of income before income taxes. In the prior year period, the Company recorded income tax expense of 27.2% of income before income taxes as a result of a reduction in the Company's valuation allowance against deferred tax assets which resulted in a reduction of income tax expense of approximately $1.0 million, or $0.04 per diluted share. For the 39-week period ended October 30, 2010, the Company recorded income tax expense of 39.5% of income before income taxes. In the prior year period, the Company recorded income tax expense of 24.4% of income before income taxes as a result of a reduction in the Company's valuation allowance against deferred tax assets which resulted in a reduction of income expense by approximately $2.6 million, or $0.13 per diluted share.

Table of Contents

The Company provides for uncertain tax positions and the related interest and penalties, if any, based upon management's assessment of whether a tax benefit is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The Company recognizes interest and penalties accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense. To the extent the Company prevails in matters for which a liability for an unrecognized tax benefit is established or is required to pay amounts in excess of the liability, the Company's effective tax rate in a given financial statement period may be affected.

Note 3 Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during each period presented, which excludes non-vested restricted stock. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding plus the dilutive effect of stock equivalents outstanding during the applicable periods using the treasury stock method. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if options to purchase stock were exercised into common stock or restricted stock units became vested. Stock options and restricted stock units that were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because to do so would have been antidilutive were 368,000 and 67,500 shares for the 13-week periods ended October 30, 2010 and October 31, 2009, and 568,000 and 1,102,000 for the 39-week periods ended October 30, 2010 and October 31, 2009, respectively.

Note 4 Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is party to pending legal proceedings and claims. Although the outcome of such proceedings and claims cannot be determined with certainty, the Company's management is of the opinion that it is unlikely that these proceedings and claims in excess of insurance coverage will have a material effect on the financial condition, operating results or cash flows of the Company.

Note 5 Stock-Based Compensation

The Company maintains equity incentive plans under which it may grant non-qualified stock options, incentive stock options, restricted stock units, or stock appreciation rights to employees, non-employee directors and consultants.

The Company granted 225,000 stock options and 114,000 restricted stock units during the 39-week period ended October 30, 2010. This compares to 630,000 stock options granted in the 39-week period ended October 31, 2009. Total stock-based compensation expense (a component of compensation and benefits) was $798,000 for the 13-week period ended October 30, 2010 and $1.9 million for the 39-week period ended October 30, 2010 compared to $378,000 and $942,000, respectively, for the comparable prior year periods.

As of October 30, 2010, there was approximately $3.9 million of total unrecognized compensation expense related to unvested stock option awards that is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 1.7 years and $2.0 million of total unrecognized compensation expense related to unvested restricted stock that is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of one year.

Note 6 Related Party Transactions

In July 2009, the Company entered into a Vendor Agreement with a related party vendor to purchase merchandise inventory. The vendor is considered a related party because one of its principals is the spouse of the Company's Vice President of Merchandising. During the 13-week and 39-week periods ended October 30, 2010, purchases from this vendor totaled approximately $6.0 million and $15.4 million, or 11% of total merchandise purchases during both periods. Payable amounts outstanding to this vendor were approximately $1.0 million as of October 30, 2010. The Company's payable terms with this vendor are consistent with the terms offered by other vendors in the ordinary course of business.

Table of ContentsITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS*Forward Looking Statements

This Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (MD&A) is intended to provide an understanding of our financial condition, change in financial condition, cash flow, liquidity and results of operations. The following MD&A discussion should be read in conjunction with the condensed consolidated financial statements and notes to those statements that appear elsewhere in this Form 10-Q and in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K. The following discussion contains forward-looking statements that reflect the Company's plans, estimates and beliefs. The Company's actual results could differ materially from those discussed or referred to in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to any differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed under the caption, "Cautionary Statement for Purposes of the Safe Harbor Provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995" and under Part II, Item 1A "Risk Factors".

Net sales. Net sales increased 0.4% to $92.7 million for the third fiscal quarter of 2010 compared to $92.4 million for the prior year period. The increase in net sales was the result of new store growth of $2.3 million, partially offset by a $2.0 million decrease in comparable store sales. During the third quarter of fiscal 2010, comparable store sales decreased 2.4% as compared to an 11.3% increase in the prior year period. The comparable store sales decrease was primarily due to a decrease in the average ticket, offset partially by an increase in transactions. The decrease in the average ticket was the result of a lower average retail selling price and a decrease in items per transaction. The increase in transactions was due to an increase in customer traffic count, partially offset by a decline in the conversion rate. Conversion rate is calculated as total transactions divided by total customer traffic. The strongest performing merchandise categories were seasonal, floral and wall décor. The weakest performing merchandise categories were art, lamps, and candles and accessories.

Gross profit. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales decreased from 41.1% in the third quarter of 2009 to 38.8% in the third quarter of 2010. Merchandise margins decreased from 56.6% in the third quarter of fiscal 2009 to 53.7% in the third quarter of fiscal 2010. Merchandise margin is calculated as net sales minus product cost of sales, inventory shrinkage, and loyalty reward program expense. Merchandise margin excludes outbound freight, store occupancy and central distribution costs. The decrease in merchandise margin in the third quarter of 2010 was due to higher ocean freight costs and an increase in markdowns versus the prior year period. Store occupancy costs as a percentage of net sales decreased 77 basis points versus the prior year quarter. This decline resulted primarily from favorable lease renewal and extension terms, the closure of underperforming stores, and our continued shift to less-costly off-mall real estate locations. Outbound freight costs and central distribution expenses increased 10 basis points as a percentage of sales due to sales deleverage and initial freight costs associated with new store openings.

Compensation and benefits. At the store level, the compensation and benefits expense ratio increased for the third quarter of fiscal 2010 as compared to the third quarter of 2009 primarily due to sales deleverage, partially offset by lower store bonus accruals. At the corporate level, the compensation and benefits ratio increased slightly for the third quarter of 2010 as compared to the third quarter of 2009, primarily due to an increase in stock compensation expense.

Other operating expenses. Other operating expenses increased as a percentage of net sales for the third quarter of fiscal 2010. This was primarily the result of increases in marketing expenses, travel expenses, credit and debit card charges, and deleverage caused by the decrease in comparable store sales in the third quarter of fiscal 2010 as compared to the prior year period. We also held a full store managers meeting in August 2010 for the first time in several years. The cost of this meeting accounted for approximately 49 basis points of the total year-over-year increase in operating expenses as a percentage of sales.

Depreciation. The decrease in depreciation as a percentage of sales reflects the reduction in capital expenditures during 2008 and 2009 relative to prior periods, and the decline in store count during those periods, and the impact of lease extensions for store locations in which the majority of the fixed assets are fully depreciated.

Income tax expense. We recorded income tax expense of approximately $1.5 million, or 40.0% of pre-tax income during the third quarter of fiscal 2010, versus approximately $2.1 million, or 27.2% of pre-tax income, in the prior year quarter. The most significant reconciling item between our effective tax rate and the federal statutory rate of 35% during the prior year period was the reversal of $1.0 million of the valuation allowance previously established against deferred tax assets primarily related to net operating losses generated in fiscal 2007. We were able to reverse the remaining valuation allowance by the end of fiscal 2009 as we achieved positive operating performance. At January 30, 2010, there was no remaining valuation allowance against our deferred tax assets.

Net income and earnings per share. As a result of the foregoing, we reported net income of $2.3 million, or $0.11 per diluted share, for the third quarter of fiscal 2010 as compared to net income of $5.6 million, or $0.27 per diluted share, for the third quarter of fiscal 2009.

We believe that expressing net income and earnings per share for the prior year period results using a normalized tax rate is instrumental in judging our performance for current and future periods when we expect to incur more normalized tax rates. Excluding adjustments to our valuation allowance on deferred taxes, adjusted net income and adjusted earnings per share were $4.6 million, or $0.23 per diluted share for the 13-week period ended October 31, 2009. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures is presented under Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Measures within this Item 2.

Net sales. Net sales increased 4.7% to $275.7 million for the first three quarters of fiscal 2010 from $263.4 million for the prior year period. During the first three quarters of fiscal 2010, comparable store sales increased 3.5% on top of a 7.6% increase in the prior year period. The comparable store sales increase accounted for an $8.2 million increase in overall sales for the period. The balance of the overall increase of $4.1 million was the result of strong sales performance from new store openings partially offset by store closings. The comparable store sales increase was primarily due to a 7% increase in the number of transactions, offset partially by a lower average ticket. The increase in transactions was driven by an increase in customer traffic count. The decrease in the average ticket was the result of a lower average retail selling price, partially offset by a slight increase in items per transaction. The strongest performing merchandise categories were wall décor, mirrors, candles, and accessories. The weakest performing merchandise categories were art, lamps, and candles and accessories.

Table of Contents

Gross profit. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales increased from 39.3% in the first three quarters of fiscal 2009 to 40.4% in the first three quarters of fiscal 2010. Merchandise margins decreased from 55.0% in the first three quarters of fiscal 2009 to 54.6% in the first three quarters of fiscal 2010. The decrease in merchandise margin was the result of increased ocean freight costs and increased markdowns during the third quarter of fiscal 2010. Store occupancy costs as a percentage of net sales decreased 1.4%. This decline resulted from favorable lease renewal and extension terms, the closure of underperforming stores, and our continued shift to less-costly off-mall real estate locations. Outbound freight costs and central distribution expenses decreased slightly as a percentage of sales primarily due to comparable store sales leverage.

Other operating expenses. Other operating expenses increased as a percentage of net sales for the first three quarters of fiscal 2010. This was primarily the result of increases in marketing expenses, travel expenses, meeting expenses and information technology maintenance expenses as compared to the prior year period.

Depreciation. The decrease in depreciation as a percentage of sales reflects the reduction in capital expenditures during 2008 and 2009 relative to prior periods and the related decline in store count during those periods, and the impact of lease extensions for store locations in which the majority of the fixed assets are fully depreciated.

Income tax expense. We recorded income tax expense of approximately $7.9 million, or 39.5% of pre-tax income during the first three quarters of fiscal 2010, versus approximately $4.0 million, or 24.4% of pre-tax income during the prior year period. The most significant reconciling items between our effective tax rate and the federal statutory rate of 35% during the prior year period was the reversal of $2.6 million of the valuation allowance previously established against deferred tax assets primarily related to net operating losses generated in fiscal 2007. We were able to reverse the remaining valuation allowance by the end of fiscal 2009 as we achieved positive operating performance. At January 30, 2010, there was no remaining valuation allowance against our deferred tax assets.

Net income and earnings per share. As a result of the foregoing, we reported net income of $12.0 million, or $0.59 per diluted share, for the first three quarters of fiscal 2010 as compared to net income of $12.5 million, or $0.62 per share, for the first three quarters of fiscal 2009.

We believe that expressing net income and earnings per share for the prior year period using a normalized tax rate is instrumental in judging our performance for current and future periods when we expect to incur more normalized tax rates. Excluding adjustments to our valuation allowance on deferred taxes, adjusted net income and adjusted earnings per share were $9.9 million or $0.49 per diluted share for the 39-week period ended October 31, 2009. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures is presented under Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Measures within this Item 2.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our principal capital requirements are for working capital and capital expenditures. Working capital consists mainly of merchandise inventories offset by accounts payable, which typically reach their peak by the end of the third quarter of each fiscal year. Capital expenditures primarily relate to new store openings; existing store expansions, remodels or relocations; and purchases of equipment or information technology assets for our stores, distribution facilities and corporate headquarters. Historically, we have funded our working capital and capital expenditure requirements with internally generated cash and borrowings under our credit facility.

Cash flows from operating activities. Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities was ($320,000) and $8.3 million for the first three quarters of fiscal 2010 and fiscal 2009, respectively. Cash flows from operating activities depend heavily on operating performance, changes in working capital and the timing and amount of payments for income taxes. The change in the amount of cash from operations as compared to the prior year period was primarily the result of an increase in inventories, prepaid expenses and an increase in income taxes paid. The change in cash flows from operations was primarily the result of an increase in inventories combined with an increase in income taxes paid.

Cash flows from investing activities. Net cash used in investing activities for the first three quarters of fiscal 2010 consisted principally of $17.8 million in capital expenditures as compared to $7.9 million for the prior year period. The capital expenditures primarily related to new store construction and information technology assets. During the first three quarters of fiscal 2010, we opened 28 stores. We expect that capital expenditures for all of fiscal 2010 will be approximately $24 to $26 million, primarily to fund the construction of approximately 38 new stores, make improvements in our information technology infrastructure, and maintain our investments in existing stores and our distribution center.

Cash flows from financing activities. Net cash provided by financing activities was approximately $549,000 and $186,000 for the first three quarters of fiscal 2010 and fiscal 2009, respectively, and was related to the exercise of employee stock options as well as employee stock purchases and the related tax benefits.

Revolving credit facility. Effective October 4, 2004, we entered into a five-year senior secured revolving credit facility with a revolving loan limit of up to $45 million. On August 6, 2007, we entered into the First Amendment to Loan and Security Agreement (the Amendment) which provided the Company with additional availability under our borrowing base through higher advance rates on eligible inventory. As a result of the Amendment, the aggregate size of the overall credit facility remained unchanged at $45 million, but the term of the facility was extended two years making the new expiration date October 4, 2011. Amounts outstanding under the amended facility, other than First In Last Out (FILO) loans, bear interest at a floating rate equal to the 60-day LIBOR rate (0.27% at October 30, 2010) plus 1.25% to 1.50% (depending on the amount of excess availability under the borrowing base). FILO loans, which apply to the first approximately $2 million borrowed at any given time, bear interest at a floating rate equal to the 60-day LIBOR rate plus 2.25% to 2.50% (depending on the amount of excess availability under the borrowing base). Additionally, we pay a quarterly fee to the bank equal to a rate of 0.2% per annum on the unused portion of the revolving line of credit. Borrowings under the facility are collateralized by substantially all of our assets and guaranteed by our subsidiaries. The maximum availability under the credit facility is limited by a borrowing base formula, which consists of a percentage of eligible inventory and receivables less reserves. The facility also contains provisions that could result in changes to the presented terms or the acceleration of maturity. Circumstances that could lead to such changes or acceleration include a material adverse change in the business or an event of default under the credit agreement. The facility has one financial covenant that requires the Company to maintain excess availability under the borrowing base, as defined in the credit agreement, of at least $3.0 to $4.5 million depending on the size of the borrowing base, at all times.

As of October 30, 2010, we were in compliance with the covenants in the facility and there were no outstanding borrowings under the credit facility, with approximately $42.0 million available for borrowing (net of the availability block as described above).

At October 30, 2010, our balance of cash and cash equivalents was approximately $58.8 million and the borrowing availability under our facility was $42.0 million (net of the availability block as described above). We believe that the combination of our cash balances, line of credit availability and cash flow from operations will be sufficient to fund our planned capital expenditures and working capital requirements for at least the next twelve months.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Measures

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations includes certain financial measures not derived in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (non-GAAP measures). The non-GAAP measures are adjusted net income and adjusted earnings per share and are equal to net income, and earnings per share, in each case excluding adjustments to the Company's valuation allowance for deferred tax assets. Management uses these measures to focus on normalized operations, and believes that it is useful to investors because it enables them to perform more meaningful comparisons of past, present and future operating results. Non-GAAP measures should not be used as a substitute for GAAP financial measures, or considered in isolation, for the purpose of analyzing our financial performance, financial position, or cash flows. However, the Company believes that using this information, along with the corresponding GAAP measures, provides for a more complete analysis of the results of operations by quarter. Net income and earnings per share are the most directly comparable GAAP measures. Below is a reconciliation of the non-GAAP measures to their most comparable GAAP measures.
