Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On February 21, 2011, Mr. John A. Crum informed Apache Corporation (the Company) of his intention to resign as co-chief operating officer and president North America effective as of March 7, 2011.

Following Mr. Crum's resignation, on February 22, 2011, the board of directors of the Company named Rodney J. Eichler as the Company's president and chief operating officer and Roger B. Plank to president and chief corporate officer. Mr. Eichler formerly served as the co-chief operating officer and president International. In his new role as president and sole chief operating officer, Mr. Eichler will be responsible for Apache's 10 operating regions, worldwide drilling, gas monetization and worldwide projects. Mr. Plank, who currently serves as the Company's president, is assuming responsibilities for marketing and corporate purchasing, in addition to his leadership role in finance, administration and business development.
