Ansell sells its non-core investments in
Pacific Marine Batteries and BT Equipment

Ansell Limited (ASX:ANN) (Ansell) today announced that it has sold its holdings in two non-core investments.

- . Ansell's investment in Pacific Marine Batteries Pty Ltd was sold to a consortium of private investors. Proceeds from the sale of this investment have been received in full.
- . Ansell's investment in BT Equipment Pty Ltd was sold to the majority owner of the business. Ansell received a deposit on signing and the balance will be paid on 31 January 2003.

Together, the proceeds from these divestments represent a premium to the total book value of Ansell's investments in these companies.

Ansell's Chairman, Dr Ed Tweddell said "The sale of Ansell's shareholding in Pacific Marine Batteries Pty Ltd and BT Equipment Pty Ltd is an important step in completing the transformation from a conglomerate to a single global business focused on protective products in a broad healthcare context."

Ansell will continue to manage its remaining non-core investments for either a satisfactory long-term return, or for an orderly exit at the appropriate time.
