PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The BearingPoint, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the Plan) will be unable to complete its financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2006 until BearingPoint, Inc. (the Company) completes its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005. Accordingly, the Plan will not be able to file its Form 11-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2006 by October 27, 2006. As previously disclosed, the Company experienced significant delays in completing its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004, and, in turn, has experienced significant delays in completing its consolidated condensed financial statements for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2005, June 30, 2005, September 30, 2005, March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and its consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Company filed its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 (the 2004 Form 10-K) on January 31, 2006 that included restatements of prior period financial statements. Similarly, in order to complete its 2005 financial statements, the Company is performing significant substantive procedures to compensate for the material weaknesses in the Company's internal control over financial reporting. For information about the Company's material weaknesses, see Item 9A in the 2004 Form 10-K.

In addition, as a result of an order (the Order) entered by the State Supreme Court for New York County, the Company decided to temporarily defer the filing of its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 (the 2005 Form 10-K) until certain uncertainties, including the potential impact on the Company's indebtedness and the opinion of its independent registered public accountants still to be rendered with respect to its 2005 consolidated financial statements, can be addressed. The Order stated that the Company was in default under the indenture governing the Company's 2.75% Series B Convertible Subordinated Debentures due 2024 (the Series B Debentures) as a result of its failure to timely provide certain SEC periodic reports to the trustee under the indenture. Acceleration of the Series B Debentures was neither sought by the trustee in its motion for summary judgment nor ordered by the New York County Court. The Company believes that there were serious errors in the New York County Court's ruling and is pursuing a number of remedies to this action, including an appeal. Among other things, the Company is seeking consents to amend the indenture governing each series of the debentures and to waive defaults thereunder until October 31, 2007. For additional information about the Order and the consents being sought by the Company, please see the Company's Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on September 26, 2006 and October 18, 2006.
