Effective as of June 11, 2007, the Board of Directors of Belden Inc. (the Company) appointed Denis Suggs as Vice President, Operations and President of Belden Americas. In connection with his appointment, Mr. Suggs entered into an Executive Employment Agreement (Employment Agreement) with the Company dated as of June 11, 2007 and effective on such date (the Effective Date). Mr. Suggs's annual base salary is $333,000. He will be entitled to participate in the Company's annual management incentive (bonus) plan, as well as all other employee benefit plans of the Company available to senior executives. For 2007, he will receive a pro-rata share (based on his employment period from the Effective Date through December 31) of any bonus earned in 2007. The Employment Agreement's initial term is for three years from the Effective Date, subject to earlier termination based on disability, death, termination by the Company with or without cause, and voluntary termination by Mr. Suggs with or without good reason.

As of the Effective Date, Mr. Suggs was awarded 7,250 restricted stock units (RSUs), 6,800 stock appreciation rights (SARs) and 3,300 performance share units (PSUs), in part, to induce him to accept employment with the Company. His RSUs will cliff vest after five years after continuous employment with the Company. The SARs were granted at an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Company's stock on the Effective Date, $53.90. One-third of the SARs will vest on the first anniversary of the grant date, one-third on the second anniversary of the grant date, and the remainder will vest on the third anniversary of the grant date. The PSUs were awarded based on the closing price of the Company's stock on the Effective Date. Each PSU represents the right to receive between zero and one and one-half of a RSU, depending on the attainment of Company performance objectives during the calendar year 2007. Each RSU represents the right to receive one share of Company stock. Additional provisions apply with respect to these equity awards in the event of a change in control of the Company or in the event of Mr. Suggs's death, disability, or his termination by the Company without cause.

Following a change in control of the Company, if Mr. Suggs's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or is voluntarily terminated by Mr. Suggs for good reason, in either case during the period commencing on the occurrence of the change in control and ending on the second anniversary thereof (the Protection Period), the Company will pay and provide Mr. Suggs with certain payments and benefits, including a lump sum severance payment equal to the sum of his highest base salary during the Protection Period and his annual target bonus, multiplied by two; a pro-rated annual bonus through the date of termination based on target performance; and Company medical benefits for two years.

Outside the context of a change in control of the Company, if Mr. Suggs's employment is terminated by the Company without cause, the Company will pay and provide Mr. Suggs with certain payments and benefits, including severance payments in installments that equal in the aggregate the sum of his base salary and his annual target bonus; a pro-rated annual bonus through the date of termination based on actual performance; and Company medical benefits for 12 months.

Mr. Suggs also agrees to certain confidentiality, nonsolicitation and noncompetition covenants that begin on the Effective Date and extend for various periods beyond termination of his employment. In connection with his employment, Mr. Suggs and the Company also entered into an indemnification agreement dated June 11, 2007. The indemnification agreement provides, in essence, for indemnification against expenses, judgments, fines, and settlements in connection with covered threatened or pending litigation, inquiries or investigations that arise out of Mr. Suggs's acts or omissions in his capacity as an officer of the Company.
