Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

On October 10, 2005, Oriental Financial Group Inc. (the Company) was notified by the administrator of the Oriental Group CODA Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan), pursuant to ERISA section 101(i)(2)(E), that the Plan would change the custodian of its assets and the broker-dealer for its mutual fund investments. As a result of these changes, Plan participants will be temporarily unable to direct or diversify investments in their Plan accounts or obtain a loan or distribution from the Plan. This blackout period, during which Plan participants will be unable to exercise these rights otherwise available under the Plan, will trigger certain SEC trading prohibitions applicable to equity securities of the Company acquired by any director or executive officer in connection with his or her service or employment as a director or executive officer of the Company. Attached as an exhibit to this report is a copy of the trading prohibition notice sent by the Company to its directors and executive officers.

During the blackout period and for a period of two years thereafter, a security holder or other interested person may obtain, without charge, the actual beginning and ending dates thereof by contacting José Gabriel Díaz, Esq., First Senior Vice President and Executive Trust Officer of Oriental Bank and Trust, Professional Offices Park, 996 San Roberto Street, Suite 201, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00926, at 787-281-5030 or by e-mail: jgdiaz@orientalonline.com.
