The information contained in this Current Report is being furnished and shall not be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liability of that section. Harris Corporation (Harris) is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K to disclose that it sustained damage to some of its Florida operations on September 25 and September 26, 2004, as a result of Hurricane Jeanne. Several buildings on the Melbourne, Palm Bay and Malabar, Florida sites of the Government Communications Systems Division sustained exterior wind damage and interior water damage. The operations were closed on Monday, September 27, 2004, to assess damage and on Tuesday most facilities were operational. As repair work is completed, operations are resuming. Harris believes the financial impact caused by Hurricane Frances earlier this month and Hurricane Jeanne will be immaterial to our first quarter fiscal 2005 and fiscal year 2005 financial results.

Forward-Looking Statement

Statements in this Form 8-K that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that reflect management's current expectations, assumptions, and estimates of future performance and economic conditions. Such statements are made in reliance upon the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. Forward-looking statements in this Form 8-K relate to the expected impact of Hurricane Jeanne on first quarter of fiscal 2005 and fiscal year 2005 financial results. The Company cautions investors that any forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results and future trends to differ materially from those matters expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements. Harris disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
