The Company cautions that actual results may differ materially from those projected or implied in forward-looking statements due to a variety of important factors, including: the conclusion of the Company's third quarter of 2006 and the financial statements for the quarter; the Company's ability to respond to the changes in its end markets, especially the North American automotive industry; fluctuations in raw material and energy costs and the operation of the Company's surcharge mechanisms; changes in the financial health of the Company's customers; and the impact on operations of general economic conditions, higher raw material and energy costs, fluctuations in customer demand and the Company's ability to achieve the benefits of its future and ongoing programs and initiatives, including the implementation of its Automotive Group restructuring, the rationalization of the Company's Canton bearing operations, manufacturing transformation and rationalization activities. These and additional factors are described in greater detail in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, page 65, and in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006.
