Retiree Letter

June 24, 2014

Dear Retiree,

Yesterday, Integrys Energy Group announced that it has agreed to be acquired by Wisconsin Energy Corporation, Wisconsin’s largest electric and gas distribution company. The combination will create a leading Midwest electric and natural gas utility serving 4.3 million metered customers across Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Minnesota.

Combining with Wisconsin Energy provides a unique opportunity to build on our strong platform to deliver additional benefits to customers, offer more diverse opportunities for employees and create more value for our shareholders. Through this combination, we will be able to take our operations and energy delivery programs to the next level and continue to invest in reliability projects across our territories.

Wisconsin Energy shares our deep-rooted commitment to its people, which means treating all employees – current and retired – with value, dignity and respect. Let me assure you that the announcement of this transaction will not have any impact on Integrys’ retiree benefits program. Additionally, the way you interact with us will not change. You can still reach out to the HR Help Line with questions and concerns, and stay in touch with other colleagues on the PowerNet retiree page.

I also want to highlight that this combination is about long-term growth and building on the successful operations of both companies. That means there will be little change in the way our field and energy delivery teams carry out their daily responsibilities. The same neighbors and friends that you have worked with and relied on over the years will continue to serve the local communities in which we operate.

After the transaction closes, which is expected in the summer of 2015, the combined company will be named WEC Energy Group, Inc. and headquartered in metropolitan Milwaukee, with operating headquarters in Green Bay, Chicago and Milwaukee. It is business as usual for Integrys now – and even after closing, though our ownership structure will change, our commitment to serve will remain as steadfast as ever.

We are very excited about this announcement, which is a clear endorsement of what the entire Integrys team has accomplished over decades of work and generations of employees. Each of our team members – including you – have played a critical role in helping Integrys become the well-respected utility it is today. We thank you for your years of service to Integrys.

Sincerely,

Charlie Schrock
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
