| Commentary | We are replacing the underlying mutual fund primarily due to unacceptable tracking error versus the benchmark. Further, the cost of the separate account (the "estimated total separate account fee" from above) will be significantly reduced for the investor. | | | | |

Mellon Capital Management Corporation is a leading innovator in the investment industry, and manages global quantitative-based investment strategies for institutional and private investors. As of September 30, 2006, Mellon Capital had assets under management totaling approximately $158 billion.

¹ The information in this notice is subject to change and may be amended. This notice relates to the separate accounts in the Lincoln Director SM product and is not an offer to sell mutual fund shares directly to the plan.

² Subject to regulatory approval, the underlying mutual fund is expected to commence operations on April 27, 2007. A registration statement relating to the mutual fund being purchased by the separate account has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The fund shares will not be sold to the Lincoln Life separate account until the registration statement becomes effective. The investment performance for this investment option is not available yet.

³Funds that invest small and/or mid-size company stocks typically involve greater risk, particularly in the short term, than those investing in larger, more established companies.

⁴An index is unmanaged, and one cannot invest directly in an index.

Investment Policy Statement
Lincoln National Life Insurance Company Separate Account 21
Effective 5/01/2007

- Purpose and Responsibilities

The Lincoln National Life Separate Account 21 is a non-guaranteed investment option available to qualified pension plan sponsors. Investment activity is regulated by Indiana insurance law. The account is not registered with or regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

The primary objective is to maximize long term total return through a combination of current income and capital appreciation. The account pursues its investment objective by investing primarily in a portfolio of stocks, bonds, money market instruments and securities convertible into common stock.

- Securities Allowed

In pursuing its investment objectives, the account will invest in the following investment sectors:

Common stock and other equity securities and debt securities with conversion privileges.

Bonds and other debt securities with maturities generally exceeding one year, including straight debt securities, convertible bonds, obligations issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Government or its agencies, and dollar-denominated securities guaranteed by foreign governments.

High quality money market instruments and other debt securities with maturities generally not exceeding one year.

The account may accomplish these investments through the purchase of the units of other LNL separate accounts available to qualified pension plans. SA 21 may invest in separate accounts 11 – Core Equity, 12 – Government/Corporate Bond, 14 – Short Term, 17 – Medium Capitalization, 20 – High Yield Bond, 22 - International Equity, 23 – Large Capitalization Equity, 24 – Small Capitalization Equity, and 28 – Value Equity.

- Return Objectives

The long term investment objective of the account is to exceed the median return of its customized benchmark index (45% Russell 1000, 10% MSCI EAFE, 40% Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond, 5% Citigroup 90 Day T-Bill) and the Lipper Balanced Funds Peer Group.

- Risk Constraints

The asset allocations of the funds are monitored daily and any allocation changes are made in context with the manager's models, valuation targets, market activity, and other indicators. Allocation change decisions are driven by these indicators, along with expectations and market insights rather than being a scheduled routine. The range of investment allowed in each investment sector is:

| | With Shadow Cash ¹ | Without Shadow Cash |
|---|-------------------------------|---------------------|
| Equities (including up to 20 % International) | 20 - 70% | 25 - 70% |
| Fixed Income | 15 - 60 | 15 - 60 |
| Short Term | 0 - 65 | 0 - 60 |

¹ "Shadow Cash" refers to potential aggregate cash holdings by Separate Account #21. Asset allocations "with Shadow Cash" show potential cash holdings at the Separate Account level (for liquidity purposes), as well as potential cash holdings by the other LNC separate accounts (and their underlying investments) in which Separate Account #21 itself is invested.

5

- Liquidity/Cash Policy

The account will maintain cash and invested cash required to meet the cash flow needs of clients that are made known to Delaware.

- Marketability

Securities shall not be purchased unless there is a mechanism reasonably designed to accurately determine the value of the security on a daily basis, and it is expected that the security can be sold without excessive cost when necessary.

- Diversification

Not more than 5% of the account shall be invested in the securities of any corporation. Canadian government securities are limited to 25% and other foreign national securities are limited to 15%. Not more than 25% of the account shall be invested in companies within the same industry. Convertible bonds are limited to 5% of the portfolio. Investments in fixed income securities rated below investment grade is limited to 5% of the portfolio.

- Turnover

Shares of the accounts will generally be bought or sold daily based on net cash flow into or out of the separate account.

- Corporate Actions

Consents and amendments on fixed income securities or proxy statements are to be acted upon in a manner that will maximize the value of the security in the portfolio.

- Investment Advisor

The investment advisor for Separate Account 21 is Lincoln National Life.

- Investment Sub-Advisor

The investment advisor for Separate Account 21 is Delaware Investment Advisers.

- Reporting/Committee Review Process

The Lincoln Life Investment Committee (the "Committee") meets quarterly to review the performance and certain other information relating to the separate account. Currently, the information reviewed includes performance of the separate account relative to its style-specific benchmark and peer group of funds.

If the separate account fails certain criteria, additional information is provided to the Committee. Material changes to the investment guidelines of the Fund or its manager(s) will also be brought to the attention of the Committee. Lincoln Life Funds Management will provide this information to the Committee.

Lincoln National Life will monitor compliance with this investment policy and provide a compliance certificate each quarter to the Committee.
