Item 4. Description of Securities

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Registrant is incorporated under the laws of the State of North Carolina. North Carolina's Business Corporation Act (the BCA) contains provisions prescribing the extent to which directors and officers of a corporation shall or may be indemnified.

The BCA permits a corporation, with certain exceptions, to indemnify a current or former officer or director against liability if he acted in good faith and he reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in its best interests, (ii) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests and (iii) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

A corporation may not indemnify him in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which he was adjudged liable to the corporation or in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to him, whether or not involving action in his official capacity, in which he is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such reasonable expenses incurred which the court shall deem proper.

The BCA requires a corporation to indemnify an officer or director in the defense of any proceeding to which he was a party against reasonable expenses to the extent that he is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise in his defense. Indemnification under the BCA generally shall be made by the corporation only upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer was proper under the circumstances because he met the applicable standard of conduct. Such determination may be made by (i) the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding, (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time party to such proceeding; (iii) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iv) by the stockholders of the corporation.

The BCA permits a corporation to provide for indemnification of directors and officers in its Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or by contract or otherwise, against liability in various proceedings, and to purchase and maintain insurance policies on behalf of these individuals. The Articles of Incorporation of the Registrant provide for the elimination of the personal liability for monetary damages for certain breaches of fiduciary duty and the Bylaws of the Registrant provide for the indemnification of directors and officers to the maximum extent permitted by North Carolina law.

- (i) Include any Prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
  - (ii) Reflect in the Prospectus any facts or events which, individually or together, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, if the Registrant offers the securities to existing security holders under warrants or rights and the Registrant reoffers to the public any securities not taken by security holders, with any modifications that suit the particular case, the Registrant will supplement the Prospectus, after the end of the subscription period, to include the results of the subscription offer, the transactions by the underwriters during the subscription period, the amount of unsubscribed securities that the underwriters will purchase and the terms of any later reoffering. If the underwriters make any public offering of the securities on terms different from those on the cover page of the prospectus, the Registrant will file a post-effective amendment to state the terms of such offering.
