Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Item 4 of the cover page hereto is incorporated herein by reference. On May 7, 2003, Media General acquired 2 million shares of restricted Common Stock for $3 million in cash pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement described in Item 6 below (the "Investment Transaction"). On January 30, 2004, Media General acquired 564,000 shares of Common Stock in a registered public offering by the Company for $2 million in cash. In addition, Media General has received options to acquire 40,000 shares of Common Stock issued for the service of Neal F. (e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

On May 5, 2003, Media General, the Company and Buzztime entered into a definitive Securities Purchase Agreement, providing for the purchase by Media General of restricted Common Stock as described in Item 3 above (which description in Item 3 is incorporated herein by reference). The Securities Purchase Agreement required the parties to enter into the NTN Investor Rights Agreement and the Buzztime Investor Rights Agreement described below as a condition to closing the transactions contemplated thereunder.

Pursuant to the NTN Investor Rights Agreement dated May 7, 2003, Media General has preemptive rights to purchase up to its pro rata share of certain issuances of Common Stock and securities convertible into Common Stock. These preemptive rights terminate in the event that Media General's holdings of Common Stock decline below specified thresholds.

Effective as of the closing of the Investment Transaction, the Company appointed Neal F. Fondren to its Board of Directors as Media General's designee on the Company's Board of Directors. In addition to this initial appointment, the Company agreed to use its best efforts to cause and maintain the election to its Board of Directors of an individual designated by Media General and approved by the Company, so long as Media General maintains certain minimum holdings of Common Stock. In certain circumstances, including in the event Media General's designee is not elected to the Board of Directors, a Media General designee is entitled to attend meetings of the Board of Directors as a non-voting observer.

The Company is also obligated to register Media General's shares of Common Stock, including shares acquired in the future in connection with the Investment Transaction and the License Transaction, for resale in compliance with applicable securities laws. These registration rights terminate on May 7, 2007, or earlier in certain circumstances. On May 21, 2003, the Company filed a registration statement on Form S-3 relating to the resale by Media General and certain other selling securityholders, and as a result, 2,666,667 of Media General's shares are registered for resale under a prospectus dated June 6, 2003.

In connection with the Investment Transaction, Media General received warrants to purchase on or before May 7, 2007 up to 500,000 shares of Buzztime's common stock at an exercise price of $3.46 per share (subject to adjustment) pursuant to the Common Stock Purchase Warrant executed by Buzztime on May 7, 2003. Under the Buzztime Investor Rights Agreement dated May 7, 2003, Media General has the right to exchange each share of its Buzztime common stock acquired pursuant to the Common Stock Purchase Warrant or the Licensing Agreement (as described more fully below) for two shares of Common Stock (subject to adjustment in specified circumstances) upon the occurrence of certain events, including the second and fourth anniversary dates of the Buzztime Investor Rights Agreement, a sale of the Company, and the bankruptcy of Buzztime. Media General may exercise this exchange option no more than twice. In the event of a sale of the Company, the Company has the right to require Media General to exchange each share of its Buzztime common stock acquired under the Warrant and Licensing Agreement for two shares of Common Stock.

Under certain circumstances (including the bankruptcy of Buzztime), Media General also has the right to exchange its Warrant for warrants to purchase a number of shares of Common Stock equal to twice the number of shares of Buzztime common stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrant for the same aggregate exercise price (subject to adjustment).

The exchange rights provided in the Buzztime Investor Rights Agreement terminate on May 7, 2007, or earlier upon the occurrence of certain specified events. The Buzztime Investor Rights Agreement also contains provisions regarding preemptive, tag along, drag along and registration rights, but these provisions apply only to Buzztime securities.

Pursuant to the Licensing Agreement dated May 7, 2003, Media General licensed certain technology to Buzztime for a five-year term and license fee, which was paid by issuing 666,667 shares of restricted Common Stock to Media General. The Company, Media General, Buzztime and Neal F. Fondren entered into an amendment to the Licensing Agreement effective as of September 30, 2003. Under the amended Licensing Agreement, if Buzztime meets specified performance targets during the initial term, Buzztime has the option to renew the license on an exclusive basis for an additional five-year term; if Buzztime does not meet such targets, however, it may only renew the license for an additional five years on a non-exclusive basis. Additionally, the fee to renew the license was increased to $150,000, which Media General can elect to accept in shares of either Common Stock or Buzztime common stock with an aggregate value of $150,000 (based on the 20-day average trading price) if the Buzztime common stock is then publicly traded. The Company also agreed to pay directly to Media General compensation, including options to purchase Common Stock, that Neal F. Fondren otherwise is entitled to receive for serving as a member of the Company's Board of Directors or a committee of such board. As disclosed in Item 3, Media General has received options to acquire 40,000 shares of Common Stock issued for such services. According to the Company's proxy statement for the 2005 Company Meeting, the Company grants all directors options to acquire 20,000 shares of Common Stock on the date of commencement of a director's term of service and 20,000 each year a director continues to serve or is reelected at the Company's annual meeting. All such options, including those issued to Media General, have an exercise price of the closing market price on the date of grant, vest 1/12 each month and expire on the earlier of ten years from the date of grant or two years from the date a director ceases to serve on the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Fondren was reelected as a director of the Company at the 2005 Company Meeting. As a result, Media General anticipates that the Company will issue options to Media General to acquire an additional 20,000 shares Common Stock.

Except as may be otherwise described or incorporated by reference herein, to the best knowledge of the person filing this Amendment, none of the individuals listed on Exhibit 99.1 are parties to any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship with Media General, any other individual listed on Exhibit 99.1 or any other person, in each case, with respect to any securities of the Company.
