Proxy Statement
2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to the holders of the common shares of beneficial interest, $.01 par value per share (the "Common Shares"), of Great Lakes REIT, a Maryland real estate investment trust (the "Company"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Trustees of the Company (the "Board of Trustees" or the "Board") for use at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at the University Building on the McDonald's Corporation Office Campus, 2815 Jorie Boulevard, Oak Brook, Illinois, on May 14, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any recess, adjournment or postponement thereof.

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

1. Election of eight trustees to a one-year term; and

2. Such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

The Board of Trustees has fixed the close of business on March 14, 2003 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting (the "Record Date"). As of the Record Date, 16,553,019 Common Shares were outstanding. Each Common Share is entitled to one vote on each matter to be presented at the Annual Meeting. See "Voting of Proxies."

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being mailed to shareholders of the Company on or about April 11, 2003.

Voting of Proxies

The proxy accompanying this Proxy Statement is being solicited on behalf of the Board of Trustees for use at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders are requested to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and promptly return it in the accompanying envelope or otherwise mail it to the Company. If no instructions are indicated, properly executed proxies will be voted "FOR" each of the nominees for trustee; and in the discretion of the proxy holder on any other matter that may come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Vote Required

Under Maryland law and the Company's Declaration of Trust and Bylaws (collectively the "Charter Documents"), the eight nominees who receive the highest number of votes cast at the Annual Meeting will be elected as trustees.

Quorum; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes; Revocation

A quorum, which is a majority of the Common Shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, present in person or by proxy, must be present in order to hold the Annual Meeting and conduct business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

Votes cast in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the inspectors of election appointed for the Annual Meeting, who will determine whether or not a quorum is present.

Votes may be cast for each of the proposals described above. Alternatively, shareholders may choose to withhold authority to vote as to any of these matters.

Broker/dealers who hold shares in street name may, under the applicable rules of the securities exchange or other self-regulatory organizations of which the broker/dealers are members, sign and submit proxies for such shares and may vote such shares on routine matters, which, under such rules, typically include the election of board members. Abstentions on the trustee election proposal will have no effect on the result of the voting on the proposals.

Each shareholder who signs and returns a proxy in the form enclosed with this Proxy Statement may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by giving notice of such revocation in writing to the Secretary of the Company, by signing and timely returning a later-dated proxy or by attending and voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Unless so revoked, the Common Shares represented by each such proxy will be voted at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. Presence at the Annual Meeting by a shareholder who has signed a proxy but does not duly revoke it or vote in person does not revoke that proxy.

Voting Confidentiality

Proxies, ballots and voting tabulations are handled on a confidential basis to protect shareholders' voting privacy. Information will not be disclosed except as required by law.

Voting Results

Final voting results will be announced at the Annual Meeting and will be published in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2003, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). After that report is filed, a copy may be obtained by:

visiting the Company's Web site at www.greatlakesreit.com;

contacting the Company's Investor Relations department at 630-368-2900; or viewing the Company's Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2003 on the SEC's Web site at www.sec.gov.

Cost of Proxy Solicitation

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. Proxies may be solicited on behalf of the Company by trustees, officers or employees of the Company in person or by telephone, facsimile or other electronic means.

In accordance with the regulations of the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), the Company will also reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in forwarding proxies and proxy materials to beneficial owners of Common Shares.

ELECTION OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees presently consists of eight members. All trustees hold office for a term of one year or until their successors have been elected and qualified.

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will elect eight trustees. Unless authority to do so is specifically withheld, the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote for the election of each of the nominees named below. telephonically in a meeting of the Board of Trustees or a committee thereof. The Company reimburses each Non-Employee Trustee for expenses incurred in attending meetings. In addition, Non-Employee Trustees currently are eligible to be granted annual options to purchase up to 5,000 Common Shares under the Incentive Plan at a price equal to the fair market value of the Common Shares as of the end of each fiscal year. The Board of Trustees granted restricted shares to the Named Executive Officers during the second quarter of 2000 as described below. However, the Board intended the Named Executive Officers to receive the equivalent of the dividends on such restricted shares for the entire year. The amount represents cash compensation authorized by the Board of Trustees equivalent to the first quarter dividend that would have been paid with respect to the restricted shares had the grant been made as of January 1, 2000.

In 2000, the Board of Trustees granted Messrs. May, Hunt, Rasley, Braun and Hicks 28,552, 23,891, 14,497, 16,530 and 16,530 restricted Common Shares, respectively. The restricted shares vest ten years from the date of grant or upon a change in control of the Company in the event the Named Executive Officer is still employed by the Company. Pursuant to the terms of the restricted share awards, the shares could vest earlier in increments in 2000, 2001 or 2002 in the event certain performance objectives were met. The value of the restricted Common Share awards as determined by reference to the closing price of the Common Shares on the NYSE Composite Tape on the effective date of the grant, was $15.69 per share. For 2000, 4,759, 3,982, 2,416, 2,755 and 2,755 of the restricted Common Shares held by Messrs. May, Hunt, Rasley, Braun and Hicks, respectively, vested based upon the Company's performance in 2000. No additional restricted shares vested for 2001 or 2002 based upon the Company's performance in those years. As of December 31, 2002, based on the closing price of the Common Shares on the NYSE Composite Tape on December 31, 2002 of $16.65 per share, the value of the unvested restricted Common Shares held by Messrs. May, Hunt, Rasley, Braun and Hicks was $396,153, $332,734, $201,148, $229,354 and $229,354, respectively. Dividends are paid on all restricted Common Shares held by the Named Executive Officers.

For 2000 4,759, 3,982, 2,416, 2,755 and 2,755 of the restricted Common Shares held by Messrs. May, Hunt, Rasley, Braun and Hicks, respectively, vested pursuant to the terms of the restricted share awards.

The value of the long-term incentive plan payout, as determined by reference to the closing price of the Common Shares on the NYSE Composite Tape on the vesting date, was $16.70 per share.

These amounts represent payments made by the Company for financial planning services and group life and health insurance premiums.

Option/SAR Grants in Fiscal 2002

No options or SARs were granted by the Company to the Named Executive Officers during fiscal 2002.

Employment Agreements

The Company and each of the Named Executive Officers are parties to certain employment agreements (the "Employment Agreements"). Pursuant to the Employment Agreements, each of the Named Executive Officers has agreed to serve as an executive officer of the Company for a specified term, which for Messrs. May and Hunt is through June 30, 2006, and for Messrs. Rasley, Hicks and Braun is through June 30, 2005. However, the term of the Employment Agreements for Messrs. May and Hunt is automatically extended for an additional year commencing on the date two years prior to the termination date of such agreements unless the Company provides timely notice of its election not to renew. The term of the Employment Agreements for Messrs. Rasley, Hicks and Braun will be automatically extended for an additional year commencing on the date that is one year prior to the termination date of such agreements unless the Company provides timely notice of its election not to renew. Each of the Named Executive Officers has agreed to refrain from engaging in certain defined competitive activities for a one-year period following any termination for which he has received a payment under his Employment Agreement.

Each Employment Agreement provides for compensation to be paid to the respective Named Executive Officer under four different scenarios.

First, if the Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated for any reason other than for cause, his death or his permanent disability, or if he terminates his employment for "Good Reason," the Named Executive Officer will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to two times the sum of:

his highest base pay for any period prior to the termination of his employment; and

his most recent bonus percentage multiplied by such annual base pay.

In addition, for a period of 12 months following any such termination, the Company will continue to provide the Named Executive Officer with employee benefits that are substantially similar to those he was receiving or entitled to receive prior to such termination.

Second, if the Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated due to his permanent disability, the Named Executive Officer will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to two times the sum of:

his highest base pay for any period prior to the termination of his employment; and

his most recent bonus percentage multiplied by such annual base pay.

In addition, for a period of 24 months following any such termination, the Company will continue to provide the Named Executive Officer with employee benefits that are substantially similar to those he was receiving or entitled to receive prior to such date.

Third, if the Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated due to his death, his estate will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to two times the sum of:

the Named Executive Officer's highest base pay for any period prior to the termination of his employment; and his most recent bonus percentage multiplied by such annual base pay.

Fourth, in the event there has been a "Change in Control," if the Named Executive Officer's employment is terminated for any reason other than for cause, including as a result of the Named Executive Officer's death or permanent disability, during a 12-month severance period following any such Change in Control, each of Messrs. Rasley, Braun and Hicks will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to two times, and each of Messrs. May and Hunt will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to three times, the sum of:

his highest base pay for any period prior to the termination of his employment; and

an amount equal to the product of such base pay multiplied by the greater of:

a fraction, the numerator of which is the average of the aggregate amounts of incentive pay earned by the executive during each of the three then most recently completed fiscal years of the Company, and the denominator of which is the average of base pay (as in effect for each of the three then most recently completed fiscal years of the Company); or a fraction, the numerator of which is the aggregate amount of incentive pay earned by the executive during the most recently completed fiscal year of the Company (or any successor thereto) and the denominator of which is the executive's base pay (as in effect for the most recently completed fiscal year of the Company or any successor thereto).

In addition, for a period of 12 months following the termination of his employment, the Company will continue to provide the Named Executive Officer with employee benefits that are substantially similar to those he was receiving or entitled to receive prior to such termination. Any payments made by the Company pursuant to such Employment Agreements will be increased, or "grossed up," as required in the event the contractual payments to any of the Named Executive Officers become subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code").

"Good Reason" is defined in the Employment Agreements as:

the executive's resignation or retirement is requested by the Company other than for cause;

any significant change in the nature or scope of the executive's duties or level of authority and responsibility;

any reduction in the executive's applicable total compensation or benefits, other than a reduction in compensation or benefits applicable to substantially all of the Company's employees;

a breach by the Company of any other material provision of the Employment Agreement; or a reasonable determination by the executive that, as a result of a Change in Control and a change in circumstances thereafter significantly affecting the executive's position, the executive is unable to exercise the prior level of the executive authority and responsibility.

A "Change in Control" is deemed to occur under the Employment Agreements if:

any person becomes the beneficial owner of 50% or more of the outstanding Common Shares;

during any 24-month period, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board of Trustees (the "Incumbent Board") cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board of Trustees; provided, however, that any individual becoming a trustee during such period whose election, or nomination for election by the Company's shareholders, was approved by a vote of at least a majority of the trustees then comprising the Incumbent Board shall be considered as though such individual were a member of the Incumbent Board, but excluding for this purpose any such individual whose initial assumption of office is in connection with an actual or threatened contest for the election of trustees (as such terms are used in Rule 14a-11 of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Exchange Act or any successor rule) or other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of a person other than the Board of Trustees;

certain consolidations or mergers of the Company occur;

certain sales, leases, exchanges or other transfers of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company occur; or the Company files a report or proxy statement with the SEC stating that a change in control of the Company has occurred or will occur in the future pursuant to any then-existing contract or transaction.

Limited Purpose Employee Loan Program

In 1996, the Company established the Limited Purpose Employee Loan Program (the "Employee Loan Program") for the purpose of attracting and retaining certain key employees by facilitating their ability to participate in the Company's stock option program. Under the Employee Loan Program, the Compensation Committee authorized the Company to make loans and loan guarantees to, or for the benefit of, any employee of the Company to facilitate the ability to participate in the Incentive Plan. During 2001, the Compensation Committee indefinitely suspended the making of new loans under the Employee Loan Program pending a review of its utility in connection with the entire compensation program. In February 2002, the Compensation Committee extended the maturity date of all loans maturing in 2002 by one year, and determined that thereafter all loans would be payable upon maturity and no new loans would be made under the Employee Loan Program. Prior to the 2001 suspension, under the Employee Loan Program, subject to certain limitations that became effective as of March 1, 1998, employees could borrow to fund up to 100% of (1) the cost of exercising share purchase options held by the employee or (2) individual income tax obligations that may arise as a result of aspects of the implementation of the Company's long-term incentive plans. Such loans bear interest, payable quarterly, of 6.83%, the interest rate of borrowings under the largest of the Company's fixed rate mortgage loans, are recourse to the employees and are secured by a pledge of the shares acquired by the employee through this program. Such loans mature on (i) the earlier of the fifth anniversary of the loan date and (ii) the date that is 60 days following the termination of employment. As of December 31, 2002, the aggregate total of outstanding employee loans was approximately $16.2 million and employees had pledged approximately 1,100,000 Common Shares to secure the outstanding loans.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Messrs. Kearney (Chairman), Dominski and Schrager. During fiscal 2002, none of the Company's executive officers served on the board of directors or compensation committee of any entity whose directors or officers serve on the Compensation Committee. None of the members of the Compensation Committee is or has ever been an officer or employee of the Company or had any other relationship with the Company, except as a member of the Board of Trustees and as a shareholder.

Pursuant to the Employee Loan Program, an aggregate principal amount of $12,676,797 in loans made to the Named Executive Officers by the Company was outstanding at December 31, 2002. Such loans bear interest, payable monthly, of 6.83%, the interest rate of borrowings under the largest of the Company's fixed rate mortgage loans. See " Limited Purpose Employee Loan Program" for a description of such loans.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

During 2002, the Compensation Committee was comprised of Messrs. Kearney (Chairman), Dominski and Schrager. The Board of Trustees has delegated to the Compensation Committee the authority to determine the compensation of the Company's executive officers and other key management employees. The Compensation Committee's primary objective is to ensure that the Company's compensation policies attract, motivate and retain qualified managers in a manner consistent with maximization of shareholder value. The Company's compensation is structured philosophically on a "pay for performance" foundation and thus recognizes the desirability of compensation directed specifically to motivate and reward executive managers for achieving both short- and long-term performance objectives. Compensation is comprised of three major components: base salary, incentive bonus and equity-based incentives, which include share purchase options and restricted shares.

Base Salary

Base salaries are determined in the context of an individual's responsibilities and competitive benchmarking. Base salaries are reviewed annually and adjusted on the basis of individual performance and competitive considerations. In making base salary adjustments, the Compensation Committee considers an individual's performance, especially the effective discharge of assigned responsibilities and the leadership and motivation provided to subordinates. In making salary decisions for 2002, the Compensation Committee considered primarily the effects of inflation and certain subjective criteria, including the Compensation Committee's evaluation of each executive officer's performance of his duties.

Incentive Bonus

In 2002, the Company offered an annual incentive bonus compensation program for the executive officers that was designed to motivate short-term performance. The executive officers were entitled to an annual incentive bonus based upon (1) the relationship of the Company's actual funds from operations ("FFO") compared to budgeted FFO for the 2002 fiscal year; and (2) the individual's attainment of personal objectives. Seventy-five percent of each executive officer's bonus was to be determined with reference to the FFO component and the remaining 25% of the bonus was to be determined with reference to personal goal attainment. Personal goals generally specified attainment of particular objectives or management responsibilities for the executive officer. The Compensation Committee believes that the relatively heavy weight assigned to attainment of the Company's budgeted FFO was appropriate in the light of the priority of maximizing shareholder value and the desirability of emphasizing teamwork in the management of the Company.

Under the 2002 incentive compensation program, each executive officer was assigned "threshold," "target" and "maximum" bonuses that were a fixed percentage of base salary. These percentages were 25%, 50% and 100%, respectively, for Messrs. May, Hunt and Braun; and 20%, 40% and 80%, respectively, for Messrs. Rasley and Hicks. Each executive officer was entitled to receive at least 75% of the designated bonus percentage based upon the Company's achievement of certain FFO levels established by the Compensation Committee. If the threshold FFO level was not met, no bonus would be paid; if the threshold FFO level but not the target FFO level was met, the threshold bonus would be paid; and if the target FFO level was met or exceeded, the target bonus would be paid and the bonus would be increased on a linear basis up to the maximum based upon a scale established by the Compensation Committee. In 2002, the Compensation Committee determined that based upon the FFO attained by the Company, the threshold level had been reached. In addition, the Compensation Committee concluded that all of the named executive officers had met fully their personal objectives. Therefore, the Compensation Committee determined that each executive officer should receive an amount equal to his respective threshold bonus.

Equity-Based Incentives

The Compensation Committee seeks to ensure that the executive officers of the Company focus attention on long-term objectives, including maximization of value for shareholders. The Compensation Committee believes that share purchase options and restricted shares are appropriate compensation tools to motivate and reward executive managers for long-term performance. The Compensation Committee believes that the growth of the Company's FFO relative to an established peer group over a multiple year period is an appropriate measure of performance by the management group. In 2000, the Compensation Committee granted an aggregate of 200,000 restricted Common Shares to executive officers that vest in ten years, or earlier in increments upon the attainment of certain performance objectives related to the growth of the Company's FFO relative to an established peer group. One-sixth of the granted shares vested in 2000 and no additional shares vested in 2001 or 2002. See " Summary Compensation Table."

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

Mr. May's salary compensation as reported under " Summary Compensation Table" for 2002 was $306,731, which was 2.5% higher than the corresponding amount reported for 2001. In making such determination, the Compensation Committee considered, among other things, competitive benchmarking and the Company's performance in the preceding twelve-month period compared to budgeted performance.

Mr. May participated in the annual incentive bonus compensation program and his threshold bonus was 25% of his base salary. Consistent with the approach described above regarding incentive bonuses for other executive officers, Mr. May received a bonus payout for 2002 equal to 25% of his base salary. See " Summary Compensation Table."

Limitations on Deductibility

In 1993, changes were made to the federal corporate income tax law that limit the ability of public companies to deduct compensation in excess of $1 million paid annually to each of the chief executive officer and the other four most highly compensated executive officers. There are exemptions from this limit, including compensation that is based on the attainment of performance goals that are established by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Company's shareholders. It is the Compensation Committee's policy to seek to qualify executive compensation for deductibility where practicable and to the extent that such policy is consistent with the Company's overall objectives in attracting, motivating and retaining its executives. The Company believes that, based upon current compensation levels, compensation paid in 2002 should be fully deductible.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS AND AUDIT COMMITTEE MATTERS

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Trustees. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the financial reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee has the sole authority to retain and terminate the Company's independent auditors. During 2002, the Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards, including as required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP, the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the auditors' independence from management and the Company. The Audit Committee considered the scope and type of non-audit services provided by the auditors when reviewing the compatibility of those non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Audit Committee held five meetings during calendar 2002.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Trustees (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 previously filed with the SEC.

Engagement of Independent Auditors and Related Fees During Fiscal 2002

Audit Engagement. Ernst & Young LLP was engaged as the Company's independent auditors for fiscal 2002.

Audit Fees: Audit fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP during the Company's 2002 fiscal year for review of the Company's annual financial statements included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K and those financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q totaled $87,000.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees: The Company did not engage Ernst & Young LLP or any affiliate to provide advice to the Company regarding financial information systems design and implementation during fiscal 2002.

All Other Fees: Fees billed to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP during the Company's 2002 fiscal year for all other non-audit services rendered to the Company totaled $117,263. These other fees included $75,263 for tax-related services and $42,000 for services related to property-level audits for properties acquired by the Company during fiscal 2002. The Audit Committee determined that the provision of these services should not compromise Ernst & Young LLP's independence.

Relationship with Independent Auditors

Ernst & Young LLP has been selected by the Audit Committee as the Company's independent auditors for fiscal 2003. The Board of Trustees expects that representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting, will be given an opportunity to make a statement at the Annual Meeting if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Audit Committee in its sole discretion may direct the appointment of different independent auditors at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Other Matters

The Board of Trustees knows of no other business that will be presented at the Annual Meeting for a vote. Because the Company did not receive by March 24, 2003 notice of any other matter intended to be raised by a shareholder, proxies will be voted in respect of any other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Trustees or, if no such recommendation is given, in the discretion of the person or persons voting the proxies.

No Incorporation by Reference

In the Company's filings with the SEC, information is sometimes "incorporated by reference." This means that the Company is referring investors to information that has previously been filed with the SEC, so the information should be considered as part of the filing an investor is reading. Based on SEC regulations, the performance graph of this Proxy Statement, the "Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation" and the "Audit Committee Report" specifically are not incorporated by reference into any other filings with the SEC.

This Proxy Statement is being mailed to shareholders as part of the proxy materials for the Annual Meeting. Shareholders may not consider this Proxy Statement or any of the accompanying materials as material for soliciting the purchase or sale of Common Shares.

Shareholder Proposals for the 2004 Annual Meeting

Any proposal of a shareholder intended to be presented at the Company's 2004 annual meeting of shareholders (the "2004 Annual Meeting"), which the Company's Bylaws require be held in May 2004, and to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy and proxy statement related to the 2004 Annual Meeting must be received by the Secretary of the Company by December 12, 2003. Any shareholder intending to propose any matter at the 2004 Annual Meeting but not intending for the Company to include the matter in its proxy statement must notify the Company between February 13, 2004 and March 15, 2004 of such proposal. If the Company does not receive such notice by March 15, 2004, the notice will be considered untimely. The Company's proxy for the 2004 Annual Meeting will grant discretionary authority to the persons named therein to exercise their discretion with respect to any such matter of which the Company does not receive notice between February 13, 2004 and March 15, 2004.

Any shareholder wishing to submit a proposal at the 2004 Annual Meeting must also comply with certain provisions of the Charter Documents. The Charter Documents require written notice of any such proposal (and certain other information) to be delivered to the Secretary of the Company generally not earlier than 90 days or later than 60 days in advance of the date of the previous year's meeting. The Company will provide (without charge) a copy of the Charter Documents to any holder of record of Common Shares.
