Dear Valued Client:

We are very excited about the upcoming merger with AmeriPath, Inc. announced Friday, September 30, 2005 and what this represents in terms of improved service levels and broader range of testing available to our clients. AmeriPath is one of the leading providers of anatomic pathology testing in the United States, offering services complementary to the specialized clinical reference testing menu of Specialty Laboratories. Let me emphasize that Specialty Laboratories will remain a distinct operating division and the Esoteric Testing Division Headquarters for the new combined company. This merger demonstrates Specialty Laboratories' and AmeriPath's commitment to hospital and reference laboratories and the opportunity to build on both companies' leadership positions, complementary skill sets and service levels in order to provide overall service enhancements to our clients.

We anticipate a number of improvements in 2006 arising from the merger between Specialty and AmeriPath including:

Unification of a non-competing, full-service, clinical and anatomic pathology laboratory resource for physicians, hospitals, health systems and regional laboratories

Easy access to a network of more than 400 pathologists and medical specialists for consultation on assay utility and interpretation of results

A collective process for ordering and resulting a broader range of esoteric tests and cutting-edge anatomic pathology testing services

Enhanced, full-service clinical and pathology outreach partnership solutions

While Specialty's new Valencia facility will remain the primary site for esoteric testing and R&D, the presence of AmeriPath on the East Coast represents an opportunity to expand our geographic presence to better support the needs of the medical community throughout North America, as well as Central and South America.

We are pleased about this exciting development that will position Specialty well for the future and enable us to serve our clients more comprehensively. If you have any questions, please contact your Sales Representative or feel free to call me at 800-421-7110, ext. 6693.

Sincerely,

Vicki DiFrancesco Senior Vice President, Sales and Marketing vdifrancesco@specialtylabs.com
