Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On April 1, 2010, Bruker Corporation (the Company) received notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (Nasdaq) advising the Company that, due to the resignation of Collin J. D. Silva from the Company's Board of Directors (the Board) effective March 31, 2010, the Company was not in compliance with the majority independent director requirements set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5605(b)(1). The Company has been provided a cure period of 180 days, until September 27, 2010, to regain compliance with the majority independence requirements. Following Mr. D. Silva's resignation from the Board, the Board consists of twelve members, of whom six are independent, and has one vacancy to be filled by an independent director. As previously reported, Mr. D. Silva had earlier resigned from the Audit Committee of the Board, effective March 9, 2010.

The Company is currently seeking a replacement for Mr. D. Silva to serve on the Company's Board and Audit Committee, and intends to regain compliance with the corporate governance requirements of the Nasdaq Listing Rules as expeditiously as possible prior to the expiration of the applicable cure periods provided under such rules.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) Departure of Director Collin J. D. Silva

On April 1, 2010, Bruker Corporation announced that Collin J. D. Silva, an independent director of the Company since February 2000, resigned from the Company's Board of Directors, effective March 31, 2010. There were no disagreements with the Company. Mr. D. Silva resigned from his service as a director in connection with joining the Company as President of the newly-formed Chemical Analysis Division of Bruker Daltonics.
