Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Asset Purchase Agreement

On April 19, 2011, Seagate Technology plc (the Registrant), Seagate Technology International, an exempted company incorporated with limited liability under the laws of the Cayman Islands and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Registrant (the Buyer) and Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the Seller), entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Agreement) pursuant to which the Buyer will acquire certain assets and assume certain liabilities of Seller relating to the research and development, manufacture and sale of hard-disk drive sets. A copy of the press release announcing the entry into the Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the transaction contemplated under the Agreement will be completed upon the satisfaction of certain customary closing conditions, including, without limitation, the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, clearance by the European Commission and receipt of certain other similar regulatory approvals from the Republic of Korea, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Assuming all closing conditions are met, at the closing of the transaction, Seller shall receive $687,500,000 payable in cash and 45,239,490 Ordinary Shares of the Registrant (together, the Purchase Price), which Purchase Price may be adjusted as provided in the Agreement. The cash portion of the purchase price will be funded from the Registrant's cash on hand.

The Agreement also contains certain other covenants and agreements, including, but not limited to, the cooperation of Buyer and Seller in obtaining all necessary regulatory approvals, certain non-competition covenants of Seller, and certain non-solicitation covenants of Buyer and the Registrant.

Seller agreed to indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer and the Registrant, and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives, subject to certain caps and limitations on indemnification set forth in the Agreement, from, against and in respect of any and all losses arising out of or resulting from (i) any inaccuracy in or breach of any representation or warranty made by Seller in the Agreement, (ii) any breach of any covenant, agreement or undertaking made by Seller in the Agreement, or (iii) any excluded liabilities. In addition, the Registrant and the Buyer agreed to indemnify and hold harmless the Seller and its subsidiaries, affiliates, shareholders officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives from (i) any inaccuracy in or breach of any representation or warranty made by the Registrant or the Buyer in the Agreement, (ii) any breach of any covenant, agreement or undertaking made by the Registrant or the Buyer in the Agreement, or (iii) any assumed liabilities.

Shareholder Agreement

In connection with the entry into the Agreement, the Registrant entered into a Shareholder Agreement (the Shareholder Agreement) with Seller, to become effective upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement. Among other things, the Shareholder Agreement provides for certain transfer restrictions, standstill provisions and voting provisions. Seller shall have the right to appoint one representative to Registrant's Board of Directors so long as Seller and its affiliates continue to hold at least 7% of the Registrant's outstanding Ordinary Shares. Further, the Registrant has agreed, subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Shareholder Agreement, to file a registration statement on or prior to one year following the closing date of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement to register the Ordinary Shares issued to Seller.

Intellectual Property Agreement

On April 19, 2011, Buyer entered into an Intellectual Property Agreement (the IP Agreement) with Seller, to become effective upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, pursuant to which Seller shall license to Buyer certain other of Seller's intellectual property rights and Buyer shall license back to Seller certain of the transferred intellectual property rights and technology transferred to Buyer pursuant to the Agreement.

Additional Elements of the Transaction

Additional elements of the transaction include:

- Extending and enhancing an existing cross-license agreement for each of Seller's and the Registrant's intellectual property.
- A disk drive supply agreement, under which the Registrant will supply disk drives to the Seller for its personal computer, notebook, consumer electronics and other businesses.
