ITEM 4.01. CHANGE IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

On March 22, 2012, the Board of Directors of the Scio Diamond Technology Corporation a Nevada corporation (the "Company" or "Registrant") dismissed Gruber & Company, LLC (the "Former Accountant") as the Registrant's independent registered public accountants, and the Board of Directors approved the engagement of Cherry, Bekaert & Holland, LLP. (the "New Accountant") to serve as the Registrant's independent registered public accountants for fiscal year 2012. The New Accountant was engaged on March 22, 2012.

Other than the disclosure of uncertainty regarding the ability for us to continue as a going concern, which was included in our accountant's report on the financial statements, the Former Accountant's reports on the financial statements of the Company did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the period of the Former Accountant's engagement and through March 22, 2012, there have been no disagreements with the Former Accountant (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K) on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of the Former Accountant, would have caused them to make reference thereto in their report on financial statements for any period.

During the period of the Former Accountant's engagement and through March 22, 2012, there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K.

The Registrant requested that the Former Accountant to furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. A copy of the letter furnished in response to that request is filed as Exhibit 16.1 hereto.

During the period of the Former Accountant's engagement and through March 22, 2012, neither the Registrant nor anyone on its behalf has consulted with the New Accountant regarding either:

- The application of accounting principles to specified transaction, either completed or proposed; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Registrant's financial statements, and neither was a written report provided to the Registrant nor was oral advice provided that the New Accountant concluded was an important factor considered by the Registrant in reaching a decision as to an accounting, auditing, or financial reporting issue; or
- Any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event, as each term is defined in Items 304(a)(1)(iv) or (v) of Regulation S-K, respectively.

On March 22, 2012, with the prior approval of its Board of Directors, the Registrant engaged the New Accountant as its independent registered public accounting firm.

The Company has not consulted with the New Accountant regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements during the two most recent fiscal years through present.
