HSBC SIGNS AGREEMENT
TO SELL ITS STAKE IN PING AN BANK

HSBC, which owns 19.9 per cent of Ping An Insurance (Group) Company of China Limited (Ping An Group), has entered into an agreement to sell its 27 per cent stake in Ping An Bank Limited to Shenzhen Commercial Bank Company Limited (SZCB), which is an 89.36 per cent owned subsidiary of Ping An Group.

The transaction is part of Ping An Group's consolidation of its banking businesses within SZCB. HSBC is supporting its Chinese partner in this endeavour. The consideration is expected to be US$29.4 million (approximately RMB228.7 million), subject to a review of Ping An Bank's audited net asset value as at 31 December 2006.

Vincent Cheng, Chairman of The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, said: "We will continue to invest in and expand our operations in China as well as strengthening our relations with our strategic partners comprising Ping An Group, Bank of Communications and Bank of Shanghai. These strategic investments are a core component of our growth strategy in China. Additionally, we are in the process of locally incorporating our China business to allow us to further expand our network and range of services."

Ping An Bank, previously named Fujian Asia Bank, was established in mainland China in 1993 as a Sino-foreign equity joint venture bank. It had assets of RMB1.1 billion (approximately US$143.7 million) at the end of December 2005. In 2003, Fujian Asia Bank was acquired by HSBC and China Ping An Trust & Investment, a subsidiary of Ping An Group.

Ping An Bank is currently headquartered in Shanghai and has one branch in Fujian. The bank offers a range of foreign currency services to local and foreign customers, as well as renminbi-denominated services to corporate customers and foreign individuals.

Completion of the transaction is subject to agreeing final terms and to obtaining the necessary approvals.

1. The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited is the founding and a principal member of the HSBC Group which, with around 9,500 offices in 81 countries and territories and assets of US$1,738 billion at 30 June 2006, is one of the world's largest banking and financial services organisations.

2. Ping An Insurance (Group) Company of China Limited

China Ping An Trust & Investment, which holds 73 per cent of Ping An Bank, is a 99.881 per cent owned subsidiary of the Ping An Insurance Group. Established in Shenzhen in 1988, Ping An Insurance (Group) Company of China Limited has the second largest life insurance operation and the third largest property and casualty insurance operation in mainland China as at June 2006. It has over 31 million life insurance customers, over 8 million property and casualty customers and around 240,000 employees at June 2006. In December 2005, it had achieved a total gross written premium and policy fees of RMB59 billion.

3. Shenzhen Commercial Bank Company Limited

Established in 1995, Shenzhen Commercial Bank is a local joint-stock commercial bank with its head office in Shenzhen. The bank provides a wide-range of services in both commercial and personal banking. At December 2005, it had total assets of RMB69.9 billion and an extensive network in Shenzhen comprising 46 branches. Shenzhen Commercial Bank is currently 89.36 per cent owned by Ping An Insurance (Group) Company of China Limited.
